EDITORIAL

As we near the end of another school term, the staff of "Glenmories" hopes that, in spite of such trials as homework and exams, it has been a happy one for all concerned and that this issue will provide you with pleasant memories in future years.

This year has been an eventful one for Glenlawn both socially and sportwise. The auditorium has set the scene for many enjoyable dances and also for our successful Variety Show and Spring Tea. The sports highlight of the season was the basketball teams who, living up to their tradition, captured the Suburban crowns again.

This year saw the Collegiate welcoming three new rooms to its hallowed halls. Because of lack of space it was necessary to carry out these classes at Glenwood School and this arrangement has proved quite satisfactory. On the completion of our new addition, however, there will be lots of room for everyone.

We would like to thank all those who helped this edition to the press with their contributions of pictures, advice, and hard work. Our special thanks goes to our staff advisers, Miss Johnson and Mr. Drosdowech, whose help and advice we greatly appreciate. We would also like to thank Mr. G. Simpson of The Garry Press Ltd., and Mr. E. S. Longstaffe of Rapid Grip and Batten Ltd. for their assistance in technical matters. In photography our appreciation goes to Mr. R. Wright of National School Studios and Mr. A. Leach.

In closing we would like to extend our congratulations to all the graduates of this year and to wish them the best of luck in the future. We hope all the students and teachers enjoy the holiday that we've all been looking forward to for so long.

—Carol McElwain.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE . . . .

A school is a place of ideas—not the shadowy ghosts of words, but somehow alive, warm, and breathful, touching us with a knowing touch, looking us in the eye with a sincere look, speaking to us in appealing tones, and so we are shaken as with a passion, and answer, forgetting ourselves.

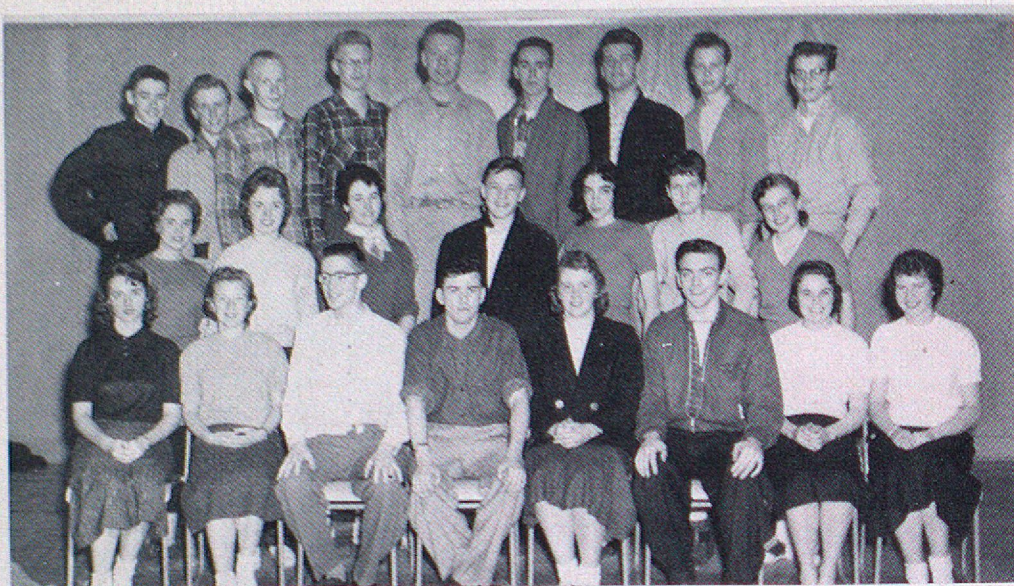

Between the old and the new of Glenlawn extends a corridor—to be greatly used. Something about the future passing and repassing of pupils between those walls, singly, in couples, or in crowds, will hallow it in the memory of the generations of pupils who will use it so much. This entrance to the old building will also be the way to the Gym and the lounging place of the boys and girls at lunch time. But the old hall will continue to be a main travelled highway at Glenlawn.

There is the thrill that comes when the cheers crash out and come pouring back from the walls of the Gym—there are the bright shifting pictures of play on the basketball court—and so we cheer ourselves hoarse, and watch breathlessly, and “sing” in the showers. We play, at times carelessly, at times in the bitter earnestness of conflict. Struggle, defeat, victory, chance, here is a place of a thousand climaxes.

In the evening when the lamps wink on down the street and the mile long motor parade flashes silently by in lines of blazing light, the young ladies and men begin to come to this building. They are dressed a little more carefully than usual. They are excited—perhaps. Then for a time there is a politely noisy crowd of them, each waiting for Some One. It is a Social Night at Glenlawn.

It must be that years in our school will put other stamp on a man than one purely intellectual. After all it is in this place that we most think on the things true, honest, just, pure, lovely and of good report. Here our hearts are stirred, and our eyes are lighted, and we catch far sight of that brave city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God.

W. S. YARWOOD, Principal.

A MESSAGE FROM THE STUDENT COUNCIL

As another term quickly draws to a close we look back on a most memorable and eventful year, the success of which is due to the fine co-operation of the principal, staff, and students.

The first major event of the season was the annual election of the student executive which included campaign speeches, colourful posters, and a "dazzling" parade. Our next and perhaps greatest activity of the year was the variety show held on March 7 and 8, which was a great success, both technically and financially. Near the end of March our annual spring tea was held in the school Auditorium, providing additional funds for the Junior Red Cross.

This year as last, we will be sending two students to the United Nations Seminar; to be held during the summer vacation at the University of Manitoba.

As usual, both boys' and girls' basketball teams came out on top in the Suburban league. This is the eighth consecutive championship for the boys and the sixth for the girls. The Student Council wishes them the best of luck.

The Council wishes to thank everyone who participated in the year's activities and made them a success.

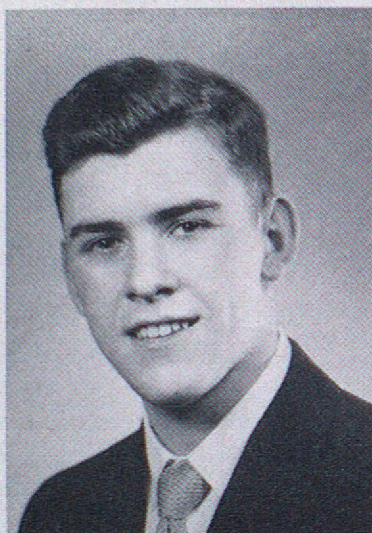

—Allen Lansdown, President.

Honor Roll

ALLEN LANSDOWN

Governor-Generals' Medallist, 1956
Institute of Chartered Accountants
Scholarship Winner

Students at Glenlawn this year know Allen as the school's capable president. Glenlawnites of last year remember him as a top student and active participant in the Red Cross and other school affairs. He was Glenlawn's representative on Eaton's Junior Council, and besides this, served as a page boy during last year's Parliamentary sessions. The staff of "Glenmories" wishes Allen the best of luck and happiness in the future.

Les Crosthwaite

Winner of St. Vital
Legion Scholarship.
(Ladies' Auxiliary)

ELDA MACHAN

Winner of Abraham
Wolch Memorial Trophy.

Grade 12 . . .

JOYCE ANDERSON

"Rosette" is our little cheerleader. She is vice-president of Room 9. Curls, often seen gabbing with the girls in Room 10. Favorite pastime—having pyjama parties.

JERRY BOYKO

The boy who likes taking weekend trips to the States. His favorite diversion is talking to Al. We hear Jerry's quite a weight-lifter—Plans to?

DON BROWN

Our motorcycle fiend. "Boomer" seems to love talking to Scrapy. The Marlon Brando of Room 9. Destiny—assistant to the assistant mechanic.

DAVIS DAYCOCK

Our room-president. "Dave" is hoping for a shining career as a naval officer. Spends spare time working at Shop-Easy. His romantic problems are a mystery to everyone—even himself.

KENNETH GENZELEVICH

Romeo's buddy—enjoys aiming missiles at Brandy—especially in between periods. Future unknown. Interests unlimited.

BETTY-RUTH GILLIES

One of our ex-back corner girls. Her favorite pastime is talking—main target for Hal's pranks—our Year Book Rep. Bowls, sings in the Glee Club. "B.R." plans to head for Grace Hospital in the fall to join the girls in white.

. . . Room 9

HAROLD BEHRMAN

A new recruit from Saskatchewan who has found Glenlawn very pleasant. Bowls—seems to get a kick out of girls. Hal's motto is "The only way to get rid of temptation is to yield to it."

GLENN BRAND

An ex-back-corner man and skip in the curling league, "Brandy" has bagged a "Wolfe" in his hunting career. A real asset to our basketball squad. Pet peeve—Maths. Favorite speech "I just can't do those logs".

KEN CHARMAN

Leader of the big thirteen. He's an airforce man with a "Rose Tatoo". Always threatening to leave our hallowed halls. Favorite speech—"What did I do now?"

CECILE DEMARCKE

Hails from down South-Reservation way. A conscientious student and quite an organist. Her sister is even smaller, we hear. Undecided future.

JOHN GERARD

Our quiet type and a real worker. Says he likes Chemistry. Ernie's cohort. We often wonder what he is thinking about. Another of our budding engineers.

GERALD GRAHAM

Room 9's charm boy. A basketball fiend until he was forced to retire early in the campaign. Brand's partner in crime. Plans to join the Redcoats and be free of the female sex for five years. Let's not bet on that.

Grade 12 . . .

ELEANOR HAWN

"Rusty" is our efficient school treasurer, captain of basketball team, plays volleyball, curls, and sings in Glee Club. Can often be found in Room 1 conversing with Miss Johnson. How do they find so much to talk about? Plans on a career as a Phys. Ed. teacher. She's just a girl who can't say no.

TED JOHNSTON

We hear he plays hockey for Norwood Falcons. George's partner in crime was caught in a crossfire in the early season chalk fights.

ALLEN LANSDOWN

The energetic president of Glenlawn is often seen in the Lab, preparing experiments. Dave's accomplice. One of our famous pink elephants Al plans on a career as a mining engineer.

JACK McCOMBE

"Romeo" seems to make a hit with the girls. Although he does not take Chem. Jack is always expounding some theory or other. Aims to go into accountancy. What's the attraction—Figures??

GARY ODDLEIFSON

"Moose" is centre on the school basketball team. Curls, another of our famous pink elephants. Always two weeks behind in Maths and never late for school!

AL PILLING

"Herb" curls, plays basketball. Keeps the front corner in an uproar with his famous remark, "It's a snap". Always manages to get back to General Hospital in time for curfew. Destiny—nurse's aide.

JOHNNY HUNTER

A faithful bowler and curler who is Bud's pal. Favorite pastime—swimming and stalling cars. What's the matter—no gas? Plans to be a civil engineer. Destiny—chain gang.

JIM KRUGER

The boy with the original jokes—he laughs at them too. If you see a rainbow coming you know its Jim. Likes girls—or is it the other way around? Destiny—bubble dancer.

GLEN LOVERIDGE

The strong silent type who works hard. Always trying to rescue his desk from Ken's clutches. Plans to be a world-famous chemist.

GAIL MACKIE

The girl with all the answers to everything? Always getting us in "dutch" for the Yearbook. This Grade A student plans on a career as a teacher—in a girls' school.

RALPH PENTLAND

Doesn't talk too much, won't tell us what he's going to be—educated bum, we guess.

DIANE ROBERTSON

This tall lass is a hard working Latin student and faithful to her job at Murphy's. Often seen with Mavis, Diane plans to try her hand at a teaching career.

. . . Room 9

Grade 12 . . .

ERNIE STANLEY

"I shall laugh myself to death", "Stan" professes allegiance to the C.P.R. John's buddy is very often puzzled by those impossible Maths questions. Favorite speech—"How did you get that answer?" A really nice guy, his booming laugh often resounds throughout Room 9.

ROBERT WAKEMAN

Bob enjoys talking to Al and Jerry. He packs parachutes for the R.C.A.F. Can often be seen at Norberry Canteen. Destiny: dance master in enlisted airmen's mess.

TED WHICKER

Another charmer, this sailor is the pink elephant with the nicest legs. He says he can bowl—he ought to know.

RALPH URBANOSKI

"Rubbernose" bowls, curls and girls. Holds round table discussions in Maths period. Wants to be a pharmacist. Destiny—at Murphy's sweeping floors.

JACK WENHAM

"Scrappy Jack" is one of Miss Johnson's pet peeves. He just can't seem to resist talking to Don. Bowls, is also one of our pink elephants. Wants to grow flowers for a career.

Grade 11 . . .

ARLENE ALLOMBY

Participates in GCI'S student activities. Hopes to become a teacher. Ultimate fate: Airforce wife. Works hard on the weekends while waiting for a certain guy.

THERESA BARTA

"I'm just a girl who can't say no." Room 2's Secretary-Treasurer. A bowler, basketballer, and all-round good kid.

MARILYN CORMACK

A good kid from Room 2, well liked by all. Chums around with D.M. Ambition: Court reporter or law steno. All the best to you!

BARBARA HALDORSON

Always seems to be tired. Could it be from "studying" hard with B.Y. each night? Is it that serious, Barb? Ambition: Court Reporter. Destiny: Gold band.

DIANE HOLLINGSWORTH

Quiet, but oh, so nice. Pretty, too. Social life a secret; love life ditto. Why, Diane? Ambition: ? Destiny: Another housewife.

ROSALIE HRECZUCH

Another one for the Red and Grey. Also a "girl who can't say no". The popular "brain" of Room 2. Plans to be a Phys Ed teacher.

. . . Commercial

SANDRA ANDERSON

Laugh, laugh, laugh, all day long. Wish we could share the joke. A bowler. Seems to stick with the "gang". Ambition: Unknown. Destiny: Likewise.

CAROL BRUSEGARD

Quiet girl of Room 2. Holds long, involved conversations with pal Gail. Also a bowler. Ambition: Unknown. Destiny: To spend the rest of her life "Ron"ning around.

JOYCE EVANS

Lunch is better when you eat it together. It makes a difference who you eat it with, though. Just ask Joyce! Ambition: ? Destiny: Housewife.

SANDRA HOLLAND

Our Yearbook Rep. and Art Editor. Tall, dark, and, oh well, we can't have everything. Ambition: IBM Operator. Destiny: Collecting "Bates".

MAUD HOWELLS

Quiet, cheerful, friendly. Everything nice applies to Maud. She's popular with all. We hear she's joined the Air Force to work as a typist. Good luck, Maud!

MARILYN JOHNSON

No peroxide here — that hair's for real. Marilyn keeps her private life a secret, but we hear . . . Ambition: ? Destiny: Marilyn Monroe the 2nd.

Grade 11 . . .

SUE JOHNSON

Carol's pert and pretty partner in crime and talking. Another true blonde, Sue works on her week-ends and in her spare time. She's also a Room 2 Social Rep. What else does she do with her time?

BEATRICE LECHNER

Our "Beatrix" is an usher at the Windsor Theatre. She's known as Betty to her friends, which are many. Room 2's Red Cross Rep.

DANIELLE McQUAT

One of a large family, "Danny" doesn't say much. An ardent curler and bowler in the winter. How does she fill her summers? A well-liked Room 2-er.

MARILYN MOFFAT

Favourite expression: "Oh, you kids! Honestly!" Part of that famous back corner. Leads a varied social life with the "gang".

BEVERLEY SAWYER

Ambitious President of Room 2, Bev participates in many student activities. Thinks Orange Crush is just Jim-dandy. Works (?) at Eaton's. Future plans: School teacher.

MADELEINE SCHUMACHER

Maddie has quite a sense of humor. She can be found at a certain corner, telling the latest to C.W. Now, we wonder who her favourite teacher can be.

. . . Commercial

LORRAINE LAMBERT

Modestly admits that she speaks French. Works as a typist in the Misericordia Hospital in her spare time. She keeps her private life a deep, dark secret.

DIANNE MAXWELL

Quiet, but lots of fun. Usually seen with her pal, "Corky". We're not sure of her ambition, but whatever it is, we're sure she'll be a success at it.

JOSEPHINE MESSENGER

Terry's dark, good-looking pal. Interests centre around ?. Captain of a GCI bowling team. What has she planned for the future?

GAIL PARSONS

That wallet full of pictures is famous. Like every good hunter, Gail keeps trophies. What does she plan on for the future? Ambition: To raise ten children. Destiny: Success.

D'ANNE SCHJERNING

Still got those cowboy boots, Tex? D'Anne has a great sense of humor, which she shares with all, especially S.A. Tex seems to prefer the sunny South.

MAXINE TOHMS

What does Max do with her lonely evenings while a certain guy is away? Friendly, and one of the most popular Room 2-ers.

Grade 11 . . .

CAROL WOLFE

Petite and pretty Carol keeps the back corner going all day long. It seems that her charm works on boys too. Which one, Carol?

Grade 11 . . .

PATRICIA BALL

"The pride of the beach". Has the position of guard on the basketball floor. Pat plans on a nursing career. Best of luck, Pat.

EDITH BESWATHERICK

Glenlawn's number one gal. Her personality and cheery disposition assure her of success, in nursing. Edie's another "raring to go" B.B. player.

BRYAN COLLARD

Does not find school an obstacle for other activities. A great tumbler and skilled high jumper. His ambition is to be a draftsman.

REINHART DAHER

Occupying a back seat, he is seldom heard except when prompted. A smart student who keeps the rear of the room supplied with all answers. Outside activities are a mystery, but has been seen driving his Dad's Dodge.

THOMAS FLATHER

The best natured boy in the class. Tom is a curling champion and a brilliant mathematician. Ambition: To win Maths scholarships.

BETTY GROSSI

This hep little gal doesn't take up much space but we sure know she's there! Betty's pleasing personality makes her well liked by everyone. Ambition: To nurse the sick.

JOHN BLOOMFIELD

Room 7's haircut expert. Always comes up with a "funny". Has a winning smile for everyone. Ambition: To win a jive contest.

JOHN CALDER

An advanced tumbler with the lust to travel. Is one of the "Pink Elephants" graceful members. Destiny: a mad composer of science fiction for Hudson's Bay Company.

JAMES CUNNINGHAM

One of the airforce lads hired by the National Defence for the purpose of entertaining the officers with his witty excuses. Can be seen walking goggly-eyed down halls with future Mrs. Cunningham.

ALETH ELLEFSON

Room 7's dynamo. Five foot two of sparkling personality, cuteness, and curves. Ambition: Interior Decorating.

LOVERNE GRETSINGER

A studious lass who skips down the halls during noon hour to the tune of "Lolly put the Campbell's on, we'll all have soup."

ELEANOR HEMENWAY

It must be charm that attracts a certain front seat student, or is it her good nature? We're inclined to believe it's both. Her ambition is to become a millionaire working in an office.

Grade 11 . . .

HARRY JANZEN

A "happy-go-lucky" character who's good spirit always manages to keep the class in an uproar. Enjoys hockey. Ambition: To become a good hockey player.

HEATHER KEATS

A pretty Miss who possesses a pleasant personality. Ambition is to be successful at whatever she attempts. We believe she can do it.

MYRNA MARCHYSHYN

Our aristocrat model who thoroughly enjoys biology periods (?), basketball, and "ry" dances. Myrna's intelligence will secure a stable R.N. career.

GLENN MARTINSON

A masculine fellow with a genial gleam in his eye, especially when a question is thrown his way. His friendly manner makes him a well liked fellow.

PATRICIA McKAY

We need not stress the beautiful tresses of our ravishing red-head. Pat's assignments are like her—neat and nice. She is also our Red Cross Rep.

TOM RUSSELL

Another of the few who devotes his time to studying. Tom is well liked by everyone. Ambition: To be a railroad man. Destiny: Running electric trains at Bay.

. . . Room 7

HENRY JANZEN

An ardent sportsman with the desire to be a great football player. Ambition: Play for the Weston Wildcats. Destiny: Working for the Harold F. Richee Company. (Comb and mirror division)

DOREEN LAMBLIN

Another of the girls who "can't say no". Is noted for her gay laughter and pleasing personality. Member of the basketball squad, and a good tumbler. Ambition: to be an airline stewardess.

RUSSELL MARTENS

Drives a bowling bus each Monday. A cheerful boy, never seen without his smile. Believes a school week should be but one day. Destiny: Sampler of the brewery.

JANE MILGAARD

A tall likeable girl who has a strange attraction for Portage la Prairie, and all points in that direction. Ambition: To be the first teacher to loose her temper.

BRUCE OSBORNE

Room 7's HE man. Liked by everyone and possesses a hearty laugh. Ambition: to be a successful salesman.

GERRY SAWYER

A motorcycle fiend with the ambition to perfect a machine that will run without gas and at no cost. Destiny: Making motorcycle jackets at Birt Saddlery.

Grade 11 . . .

HEATHER SCHELL

This petite and pretty brunette rates high in school. (Especially in cheerleading). Enjoys tumbling. Ambition: To marry a wrestler.

WAYNE SINCLAIR

A gift to the Glenlawn Lions. Enjoys wrestling matches. Ambition: To be out on the field punting with Henry and Tom.

DIANA TURNER

Has the appearance of an experienced model. Diana possesses a natural humour which keeps the rest of the class entertained.

BARRY WILKINSON

"Red" is a great basketball player. A mad chemist with the unlimited desire to mix up some wonderful concoction to exterminate all teachers.

GLEN SEALEY

A swell guy with a wonderful personality. Can really swing his hips and click his heels to the tune of "Ka Ding Dong." Was worried about leaving his fingers behind at the tea.

PHYLLIS TOHMS

Phyllis's quiet manner and friendly smile can't conceal the sign of a budding genius. She proves the ancient saying: "Smart packages come in silent bundles."

LOIS WALKER

This little lass who occupies a front seat, indulges in school work and (?). Ambition is to go to the U. of M. for Home Economics, and design fabulous creations.

NORI WOODS

"Our cheerleader deluxe". Nori shows inexhaustible energy concerning sports and student council activities. Nori will add a touch of beauty to the University campus next year.

Grade 11 . . .

RALPH ATKIN

He's a quiet, "earnest" type
But when the situations ripe,
Then out of trouble he cannot stay.
And spends in the hall another day.

BOB BATURIN

Can always be found at the water tap,
Or sitting at his desk having
a nap.
He sits at the front and dreams
of the back,
And certain qualities he doesn't lack.

JERRY BOWMAN

To "Johnnie's" at recess for a snack,
Then to school he hurries back.
He likes to talk to Bob and Ken,
To drive his Austin is his only yen.

BOB BRENNAN

Brennan is a little guy,
He sits and watches the time
fly by.
He makes people laugh in many ways.
But when asked a question he's in a daze.

LES CROSTHWAITE

Here's a guy who's quite a clown,
Pulling the blinds up and down,
Looking out of the windows he enjoys,
Or turning around talking to the boys.

WALTER GLOWACKI

All the females will cry
"Walter",
Please escort me to the altar.
When they know him at all well,
Walter won't be hard to sell.

. . . Room 8

ALFIE AYLWARD

A tumbler in our Variety Show
And at his school work he's not very slow.
He gets along with Les real well,
And all the girls think he's swell.

JIM BORDIAN

A happy guy and peppy too,
Loves his fun as we all do.
Does his work when 'ere he should,
Making Jim all around good.

GERRY BRAUN

A healthy head of hair he sports
And is a whiz on basketball courts.
When it comes to girls he's really alive,
And man! You ought to see him jive.

GRAHAM CLARKE

All the kids call him "Fuzzy",
He always does his work or does he?
He brought his radio to school
one day
Just to pass the time away.

KEN CUSSON

Here's a guy who likes to talk and play
Through class hours every day,
And a one-week holiday he got
When once he did get caught.

JIM GRAHAM

For overwhelming humour dry
You've met the very perfect guy.
His wit will send you in the aisles.
Because he's always ready with a smile.

Grade 11 . . .

FRANCIS HARDY

It really is a special treat
To know one so sincere and sweet,
The best of qualities to see
Are found in Francis Hardy.

BARRY HAWKINS

Here's a very special guy,
Who makes you raise a special
eye,
To meet at last a perfect gent
To whom success was truly meant.

JOHN McCORMICK

This boy a Buick does drive
And at all the right answers does arrive.
He is friendly and full of reliance,
And likes such things as bowling and science.

MARGARET PAKALUK

She's not a gal with go and get,
She does her work from day to
day,
And doesn't have too much to say.

BOB PLANTJE

To school he comes from far away,
Thus for lunch he has to stay.
At tumbling he is mighty good,
And he studies as we all should.

. . . Room 8

ART HAWKINS

Summer, winter spring, and fall
Art can be seen playing basketball,
He has personality and pep
galore,
And will do for you all he can,
and more.

BUD HOFFMAN

Assistant Editor of the "Roar",
His many talents will help him
soar.
Each week to him is the same
As he takes out a girl with a different name.

EDWARD MATHURIN

Ed is Room 8's Liberatee,
And is usually right on key.
Sometimes quiet and sometimes not,
But when he talks, he never gets caught.

DERREK OWEN

He likes Latin (?) and Photography,
And plans to go to University.
He's got Red (?) hair; is quite tall,
For Glenlawn he plays basketball.

JUDY PILGRIM

We'd love to be in her position,
Having looks, brains, and ambition.
It sure gives you a grand
sensation,
To know one in that situation.

BOB REID

Although he fails to make much noise,
He's favorite among the boys,
And how he loves to flirt
With anything that wears a skirt.

Grade 11 . . .

SHIELA ROSTAD

Every fella must be fond
Of locks so soft, so smooth, so blonde!
Shiela is a special lass
Whose good will puts her in a special class.

JOHN SPRINGER

The guy whose homework's done
each night.
He's diligent and wants things
right,
Correct in all things he might do,
He's quiet yet he's friendly too,

MURRAY SUTHERLAND

It certainly isn't just a rumor
That Murray has a sense of humour.
He takes teachers to the task
He has so very much to ask.

TOM TALBOT

Thinks that school should start at ten,
As at nine he picks up his pen.
At photography he is good,
And does his work as we all
should.

DOUG VANDEN BERGHE

From school he lives quite a distance,
And in his work needs no
assistance,
Everyone thinks that he is swell,
That's why he is liked so well.

DARRYL WILLIE

This handsome guy is six-foot-
five,
The girls would "love" if he could "jive".
A swimmer and impersonator
He always gets to school sooner-or-later!

. . . Room 8

BOB SCHNEIDER

Anyone can rightly bellow
"Duke is a top flight fellow",
All the girls like to be near—
Is it just to see his bright cashmere?

DANNY SPURRILL

It must be more than just plain luck
To imitate so swell a duck!
He sings and "whistles"?,
Danny should
Pack up and go to Hollywood.

RUSS SYKES

In Maths, class Russ is quite a brain
When Mr. Frith questions him again.
As to the answer he'll get,
"The answer's at the back I'll bet!"

JIM TURNER

Masculine, virile, and vroom(?)
That gorgeous creature in our
Room (?)
Claims he studies every night,
Come now "Jamie" is that right?

DENNIS WATTS

Out of the window he often looks,
Not paying much attention to his books.
To do his work he does endeavour,
And at tumbling he is quite clever.

BILL WILSON

Billie has the cutest blush
Whenever the women give him
the rush.
Has been shaving for two years
—enjoyed it both times!

Grade 11 . . .

BARCLAY WINSLOW

Here's a guy we all call "Clay",
He does his best in every way.
He may get mad on the basketball court,
But actually he's a very good sport.

. . . Room 8

Elinor Woodcock

Elinor is our girl of fate,
She hasn't been to school of late.
We're glad to see her well
Because we think she is so swell.

. . . Room 10

DONNA BENTHAM

Chums with certain girls in Rm. 2. What do you do on your week-ends, Donna? Must have lost her voice, always talks with her hands.

SHARON CARLSON

Often seen at Champlain Canteens on Friday nights. What's the attraction Sharon? Always gets caught talking with S. G. and C.P. Ambition; to get to school on time from "Johnnies".

DENNIS CHECKLEY

One of Glenlawn's tumblers. Loves to argue with teachers. Ambition: Electrical Engineer. Wow! What a shocking career.

BARRY CLARKE

Rm. 10's Pres. and star basketball player, who never has his homework done. Keeps the girls laughing with his phony jokes (homemade). Ambition; to own a peppermint factory. Fate: eating 'em.

GERRY DUCHARME

Rm. 10's Social Rep. Loves curling and souped-up convertibles. Misses school often. One of the final contenders for the curling championship.

SHARRON GOODMAN

Cute "blonde" of Rm. 10. Seems to keep steady company with Ron B. of Silver Heights. One of our room's better? tumblers.

Grade 11 . . .

ERIC GRAHAM

Rm. 10's clown. His opinion always seems to differ with Mr. Frith's. The girls think he's "so cute", especially in a grass skirt.

. . . Room 10

WAYNE HAMEL

Hard working student? ? who pretends to be intelligent. His outside interests are unknown to us.

LLOYELL HULL

Holds back seat but still manages to keep his marks up. His interests include curling and C-cile.

LARRY JONES

Ardent curler and "y" basketball player. Should get a medal for regular? attendance. Always ready to take part in class mischief.

CAROLYN KILLEN

One of our curlers who always finds something to say. Keeps getting shifted to different places in the room. Wonder why? Her night life is a secret.

MAVIS LAURIE

One of the quieter members of the class who chums with D. R. of Rm. 9. Who's S. S. Mavis?

KEN McCREATH

The "voice" of G. C. I. He doesn't seem to mind those long walks to school every morning with a little companion from Rm. 2.

CAROL McEWAIN

Rm. 10's paper Rep. and Editor of Glenmories. Keeps company with girls in Rm. 2. Another one of our bowlers.

BILL McQUAT

Rm. 10's willing? Red Cross Rep. Keeps his social life a secret. Ambition: Admiral of the Canadian Navy. Fate: Captain of the Garbage Scow.

JOAN PALUSMA

A friendly gal who works hard. Seen chumming with the girls in Rm. 4. Keeps her outside interests a secret.

DIANE PIERCE

C. K.'s right hand man. Never refrains from giggling during study periods. One of the many curlers.

CHARLINE PIRIE

A curler and one of the quieter members of the class. Favorite pastime—sitting in Johnnies and being late.

Grade 11 . . .

DENNIS PROULX

"Alas, poor Dennis, we knew him well." One of the many clowns of our room, who made a quick disappearing act. Lots of luck in your job Dennis.

JUDY ROBERTSON

Able leader of Glenlawn's pert Cheerleaders, vice-pres. of Rm. 10, and a member of the "pack". Also curls and bows. What's the attraction at Tec. Voc. Judy?

BOB ROWLUK

Top weight lifter who hails from St. Paul's. The strong silent type. Keeps Eric under control—well at least some of the time.

BOB STEVENSON

The man with the "big" car. Who's he trying to charm from Windsor? Another refugee from S. P. C.

. . . Room 10

RODGER RIEL

A hard-working student who leads a quiet social life as far as we know. What about it Rodger?

JOAN ROBSON

A cheerful gal always ready for a laugh. Ambition: to straighten out her lopsided somersaults in Phys. Ed.

LORRAINE STEVENSON

Another good worker with a friendly personality. Keeps outside interests to herself.

CONNIE THOMAS

Top player for Glenlawn's hustling basketball team, bowler, and Sec.-Treas. of Rm. 10. One of the "pack". Always one to laugh at Barry's jokes. Besides all this, finds time for homework and Mill.

MARGARET BATEMAN

Property belonging to "Mr. G.". Chums around with a certain little "Wolfe" and "Mr. B."

GLADYS BEER

One of the room's comedians. Maureen H. is the other half of the team. Smarter than she lets on to be.

BRENDA BURTON

For one who sits at the back of the room, she is quiet. Chums around with Judy. A ready smile for anyone.

MAUREEN CANNON

Goes out with a guy by the name of "Corney". Maybe it's just the name that interests Maureen.

MERLE CHANNING

Always says she is studying but seems to know what is going on. Still has an interest in Grey.

BETH CHEADLE

Younger fellows just don't appeal to Beth. Her interest is over the voting age.

MARILYN DALE

Teams up with Bev. Always around when there is anything to eat. Seems to prefer "Brawn" to brain.

GAIL DAVIS

"Little Davis" titles this one. Woodsie is the chum of Gail. Has her name tag on a guy named "Wally".

LINDA DAVIS

Room's comedian. Ike and his sports car hold quite a fascination for Lu. Hang on, Lu.

GWYN EVANS

Room 4's year book rep. We wonder what attraction "Bill" holds for Gwyn.

GAIL FISHER

Where did Gail get that ring for her finger? Could it be from "HER B"oyfriend?

MARGO GARDINER

Seems the quiet type. Could her profession turn to teaching shorthand?

BEVERLY GIBSON

"Midgit" keeps the front of the room rolling. Along with Marilyn she's quite the girl. Interest turns to E. K.

DAWN GREENFIELD

Why is our "prexy" so anxious to visit New Brunswick this summer? Maybe it's to see the sun—the Simp'son".

S O C I A L   S C E N E

Glenlawn's social activities for '56, '57 got underway with Miss Fryer as staff adviser, Gerald Braun as chairman and Pat Ball as secretary-treasurer.

On the Class Social Scene, Room 8 held a series of three class parties, one at Francis Hardy's and the other two at Darryl Willie's house. Room 7 held a tobogganing party at Lockport with a party afterwards at Nori Woods'. On November 24, the XI's and XII's held a gay party at "Jack's Place". Many happy couples attended, enjoying themselves of course.

The "Hallowe'en Hop" held on November 2nd was the first school dance. The seniors as well as the juniors enjoyed this event.

Just as Xmas Exams were over, the students celebrated by attending the "Snowball Hop". Eaton's provided splendid music. St. Nick (Gary Oddleifson) just happened to pay us a visit, distributing many gifts. Everyone got in shape for the holiday season by taking advantage of the "Mistletoe".

Supporters of the "Red and Grey" have enjoyed several after game dances at Viscount Alexander, East Kildonan and of course good ol' G. C. I.

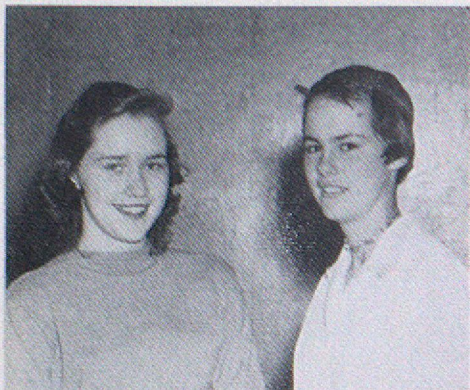

Cupid had a field day at the "Bow and Arrow Ball" held on February 15. The "Cools" supplied the dancing music, as the couples whirled around the floor. This semi-formal dance gave all a chance to get dressed up.

On March 27 and 28, the future politicians visited the Legislative Buildings.

To wind up a successful Social Season, graduation, the senior's big event, is scheduled for June 7.

Thanks to all those who took over the job of decorating the gym for special affairs and to those whose active participation in social activities helped make this year a happy one.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

We began our Junior Red Cross activities this year with Miss Kelly as director, Barry Hawkins as chairman, and Beatrice Lechner as secretary-treasurer. The first project of the Glenlawn Junior Red Cross Committee was the undertaking of a Sock and Mitt Drive to aid the Hungarian refugees. Approximately 169 articles of wool were collected and they were greatly appreciated by the Red Cross. The next project was for a hamper to be given to some needy family. Through the students' wonderful co-operation, this project was a huge success and we would like to thank all who helped make it that.

In January, a basketball game and dance was held and the proceeds went to the Junior Red Cross. The receipts from this project totalled $45, and we were more than happy to receive this sum. Our next project was the Blood Donor Drive and Glenlawn Collegiate ranked among the schools with 85 donors. Sheila Rostad received a Crest for high canvasser with 20 donors to her credit. An album is being finished to be sent to Germany. Several girls go to the St. Boniface Hospital on Sunday afternoon to help out. Taking turns with other schools, the girls either wrap bandages or play with the children. Two girls also go every week to do special work in the Admittance office, X-raying patients and taking them to their wards. Two boys go to St. George Hospital once a week and play games with the men polio patients. A variety show was held at Trinity Hall for the Senior Citizens group on March 25. Thanks to those who participated and made this project possible. The Junior Red Cross received the proceeds of the home cooking from the Spring Tea, amounting to approximately $70. The total sum will be given to much the same as years before—half to the Crippled Children's Fund and half to the Convalescent Unit of the Children's Hospital.

Once again we of the Junior Red Cross Committee would like to thank the students of Glenlawn for their hearty support.

Barry Hawkins.

On January 8, 1957, the Roar commenced its second year as Glenlawn's official newspaper. The purpose of the paper was not to raise money but to keep the students up to date on the activities of the school and their fellow students. As there was no executive until just before the Christmas holidays, the first issue caused a good deal of rushing around on the part of the staff in order to get the paper on the stands with the minimum of delay. To add to the difficulties, the staff was somewhat lacking in experience and had to learn the rudiments of newspapering as it went along. Nevertheless, the enjoyment and experience received is well worth the work. We, the staff, only hope next year's staff finds the same enjoyment. In closing we wish to express our warmest thanks to the Student Council, Miss Fryer and all those who aided us in the publication of the paper. Until next year, then, the Roar remains—"For the Students, Of the Students, By the Students".

VARIETY SHOW

On Thursday, March 7, at 8.00 a lot of preparation came to an end and the 1957 edition of the Variety Show was underway. As the curtains opened for the first time our cheerleaders gave everybody a big welcome with a rousing cheer they made up especially for the show.

Then this year's Emcee, Cliff Gardner, gave his introduction. We were lucky to get him as emcee; his talent gave the production a tremendous boost; and besides this he gave our show a plug over his program.

The first act; the Glee Club, opened with "It's A Grand Night For Singing". They were under the able direction of Miss Johnson and the accompanist was Marlene Martz. Edie Beswatherick gave us the commentary for the next act, a Fashion Show. Miss Leathers provided the costumes and the whole affair was a real crowd-pleaser. Pat Ball gave an energetic performance as a belle of the 1920 beach. This was followed by a lively accordion solo by Karen Jorstad; then came Mr. Kaplan's tumbling which gave parents a view of an accomplishment of the school. A lot of talent went into this production. At this point Gardner dubbed in his imitation of a symphony conductor. If you saw it I don't have to tell you how funny it was. Some of the cheerleaders produced a piece of drama called "Fatal Quest". No doubt this presentation gave everyone a picture of Glenlawn's dramatic talents. A pleasing piano solo by Ed Mathurin followed. Then came the lowest ebb of Glenlawn's history—the biggest farce ever to be presented on a stage. My mother loved it. Of course it was the cultural feature, "Pas D'Huit", with the "Corps de Ballet". Judy Pilgrim did an excellent job in directing the boys. The first half was concluded with a newly-formed singing group, the "Glens". They are: Bill Hunter, Bill Ostap, Terry Webster, and Jim Berthman. The boys have talent.

At intermission the ushers filled in as drink-sellers and did a roaring business, which all added to Glenlawn's account.

Part two was opened by a play under the direction of Miss Fryer. It was a comedy, "Brothers in Arms", which was very well staged. Room five provided the talent; they were: Oliver Reimer, Leona Twaites, Barry Stewart, and Bill Wood. George-Anne MacKay, from Glenwood provided us with a spirited dance solo to the music of "Kiss of Fire". Next came a feature attraction of the evening: The Palefaces. The crowd loved their comedy version of the calypso tune, "Marianne". Gerry Braun, Eric Graham, and Dennis Proulx worked long and hard on their routine and it paid off in applause. I'm not sure how the next item passed censorship, but at any rate, the girls who "Can't Say No" are the versatile members of the basketball team. Miss Leathers provided the routine and the coaching which brought them success. Darryl Willie mouthed the words to "I Love My Baby". Besides this he danced in a long, black skirt and put on a terrific act.

Thursday night our guest acts were Lynne Riley, the talented batonist, and Doreen Lytle, who gave us her "Day O" dance. Friday night the Saints put on a tremendous, crowd-pleasing show. They were followed by a second guest act the "Red River Ramblers", who provided us with western music and rousing tunes.

When the curtain came down Friday night a month and a half of work was at an end. It was worth every minute of it.

I would like to thank a few people connected with the show. Allen Lansdown did a topflight job backstage. Gerry Braun, as publicity chairman, spread news of the show by posters. Eleanor Hawn did a fine job in the ticket department. Thanks to the advisory teachers as well as all those who worked backstage and out front; that includes Gerald Graham who probably earned the five drinks he took for his trouble. Without the work of these people the show would not have been a success. Thank you very much.

—Ralph Aikin.

Spring Tea . . .

Our Annual Spring Tea was held on March 29. From morning until evening, students and teachers worked together, coordinating their ideas to make the tea a success. The teachers headed different departments while the students assisted.

The convener was Miss N. Kelly who worked enthusiastically to make the tea a success. The affair was opened by Mrs. Penner, who was introduced by Miss Fryer.

Afternoon tea-pourers were Mrs. Penner, Mrs. G. M. Lansdown, Mrs. Houston, Mrs. Green, and Mrs. O. Marris. Evening pourers were Mrs. Yarwood, Mrs. Wicker, Mrs. Daviss, Mrs. Chivers, Miss Patterson, and Mrs. Gillies.

Behind the scenes, making the all-important tea, was Mary Fleischaker, and helping her were Mrs. Schell, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Loveridge, and Mrs. McCormick. Ladies helping in the home-cooking room were Mrs. Cormack, Mrs. Holland, Mrs. Messenger, Mrs. Loveridge, Mrs. Pilgrim and Mrs. Whicker. Helping in the kitchen were Mrs. Hollingsworth, Mrs. Daycock, Mrs. McElwain and Mrs. Atkin. Our sincere thanks to all these ladies and to all those who helped in the supply room, and who so willingly gave up their time.

Junior Hostesses were Edith Beswatherick, Sandra Holland, Judy Pilgrim, Sheila Rostad, Eleanor Hawn, Joyce Anderson, Heather Schell, and Judy Robertson.

The supply room was efficiently looked after by Dr. E. Watkins. Our thanks to mothers and friends who so generously donated the supplies, home-cooking and candy, and who lent equipment.

The home-cooking department, skillfully managed by Mrs. L. Elliot, netted a handsome profit of over seventy-five dollars, which was donated to the Junior Red Cross.

The decorating committee was headed by Miss Johnson, and helping her were Sandra Holland, Gerry Braun, Arlene Gunn, Bud Hoffman, and Carole Lambert. They did a splendid job in decorating both the auditorium and the home cooking room in a lively spring and Easter motif.

The entertainment committee was headed by Miss Leathers. Entertainers were Mr. Newboldt, Diane Pritchard, and Marlene Martz.

Our thanks to Sue Johnson and Carol Wolfe who worked hard in collecting supplies. And last, but not least, thanks to all the students, from the dishwasher to the doorman, who participated in an effort to make the tea a success.

Although the tea was not as successful financially as we hoped it to be, it was a great success in that parents, students, and teachers worked and mingled together in a strong effort to make it a success. That in itself was rewarding. Our sincere thanks to all.

—Beatrice Lechner.

Voices of Spring

By Bill Wood

Early April is the picturesque season of the beginning of spring in Canada's north-land. Down from the hills the glistening water winds a path into the valley. The warm sun beats on the snow-covered ground and produces a layer of slush and crystals of ice. We listen a moment, then in the distance we hear and see the V-shaped figure of the Canada Geese, winging their way to the summer nesting-grounds. In the nearby marsh, the air is filled with the irregular croaking of frogs and toads. On the few trees behind us, the hoarse cawing of the lazy crows pounds on our ears. When we finally look through the valley of the surrounding hills and see the huge lake, with its breaking ice, we feel certain that summer is not far away.

Sports Report . . . 1956-57

The curtain has been rung down on another year at Glenlawn. Sports wise the year was one of the most successful in Glenlawn's history.

Soccer started the sports' year off. The team enjoyed considerable success reaching the semi-finals only to be beaten by Transcona. The girls' volleyball team reached the semi-finals against St. James but came out on the short end of the series. Glenlawn's girls' and boys' basketball teams won the Suburban Basketball crowns but with one difference, Mr. Leach, who successfully guided the teams through the past seasons, had to regretfully withdraw from coaching. Mr. Goodrowe took over the helm of the girls' team while Mr. Kaplan piloted the boys' team. Their fine record speaks for itself. In the Provincial Championships, our girl's team took the honours, bringing the cup home to Glenlawn while our boys put up a good fight. Congratulations!

Noon-hour basketball champions were Glen Brand's team. Allan Pilling did a splendid job in organizing the league.

Bowling again one of our most popular pastimes enjoyed another outstanding season. The credit for the success goes to Johnny Hunter and the Bowling Committee.

The curlers can certainly put up a strong argument that their sport is the most popular in Glenlawn. Glen Brand's curling committee organized the league and Bill Wood's team won the championship.

"Nip ups, short arms, headstands", became accepted jargon around the halls as tumbling enjoyed a revival.

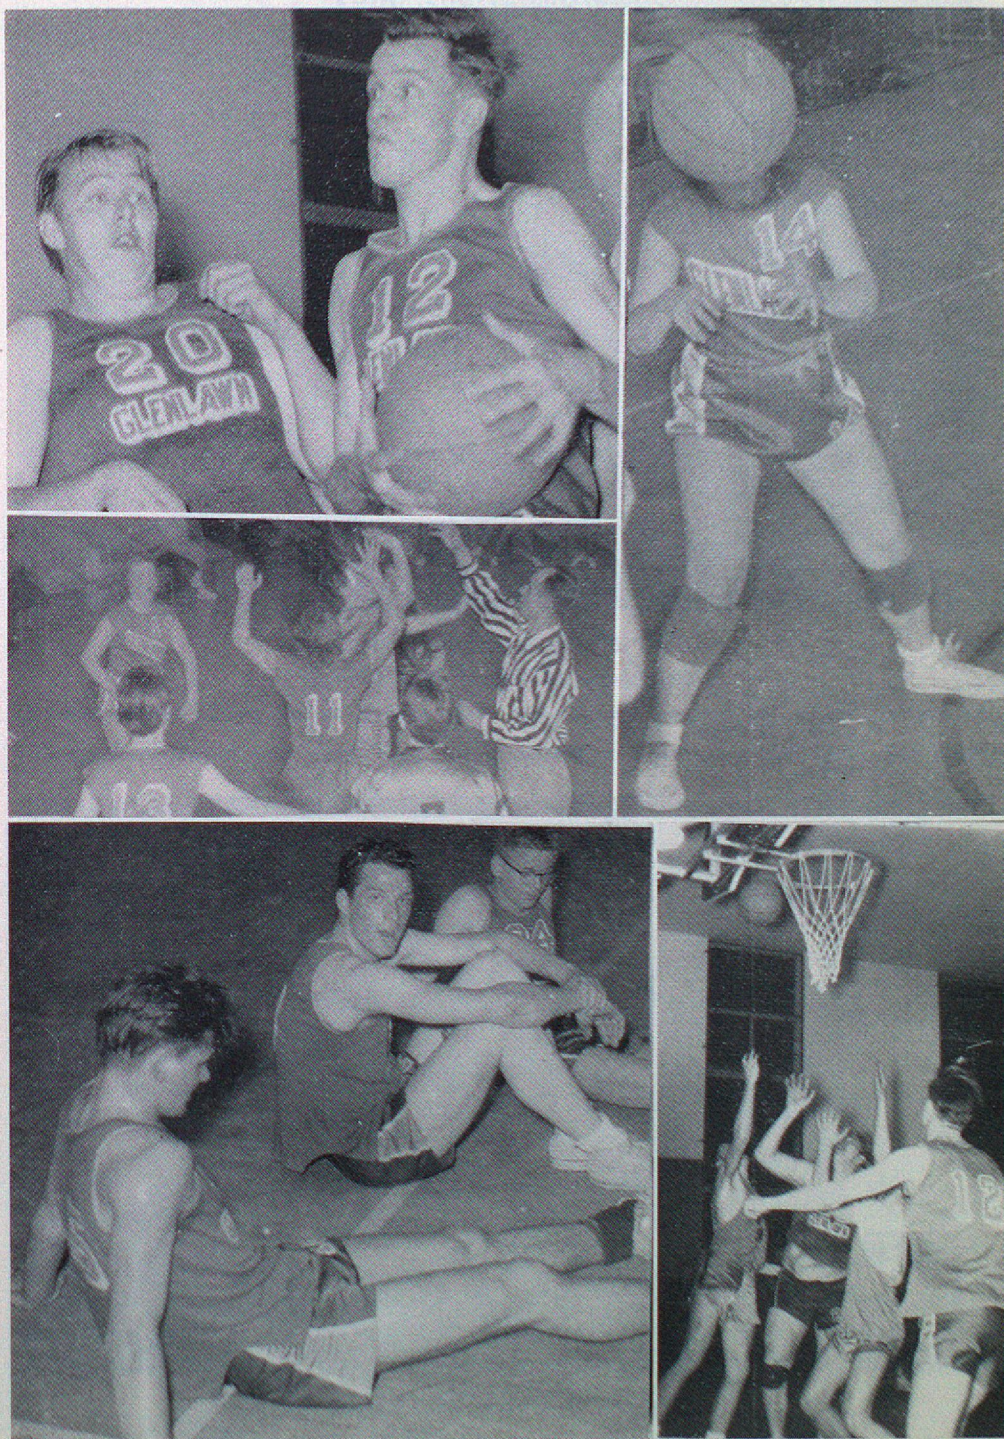

Track and field closes the sports year. This year an outstanding performance is anticipated due to Russell Syke's far-sighted planning and the hard work of the athletes.

Students honoured with Letters last year were: Allen Pilling, Barry Wilkinson, Grace Malyk, Dave Monroe, Lois Kelly, Eleanor Hawn, Don Webb, Rose Hreczuch, Edith Beswatherick, Doug Donald, Connie Thomas.

A special vote of "thanks" to Miss Leathers and Mr. Kaplan, the members of my executive, Rose Hreczuch, Jim Graham and members of the Sports Council for their work and co-operation.

—Barclay Winslow.

Dreams For Sale

By Anne Cleaver

"Dreams for sale. Dreams for sale " A little brown elf with a merry face, named Whee, skipped through the village, his basket of woven sweet grass on his arm, crying his wares.

"There you are, little girl," he said, "that is a dream of a beautiful doll who walks and talks and plays with you. It will cost you that ugly frown on your face, and those nasty words you were going to say to your sister. And here, little boy, here's a dream of bright red fire engines and dirt and noise and puppy-dogs. I'm sure it is worth that tantrum you were going to throw about taking your afternoon sleep."

As the day drew to a close, Whee flew slowly to his home under the red and brown leaves at the foot of an old oak tree. There he ate his elfin bread covered with sweet honey and drank the nectar which his friend, Bumble bee, had brought him. Looking into his basket he saw that he had only one dream left.

"Maybe I'll use it myself," he thought. So he hopped into bed and quickly swallowed the dream pill. Immediately he saw himself trudging down a dusty, dirty road crying:

"Dreams for sale! Dreams for sale!" But now his basket was filled with horrible dreams dreams of tigers who ate little boys and girls, dreams of monsters and giants, dreams of dark, lonely woods and swamps.

"Here, little girl, here is a dream. It will cost you that pleasant thank you you were going to say to Mommie for the new dress. And you, little boy, here's a dream for you. It must be worth your smile and the gentle pats you are giving your kitten."

And on and on he went spreading unhappiness and quarrels as he took the laughter in exchange for his terrible dreams. At last he came to his home again, and after eating his supper he went to bed. He had only just lain down when the Queen of all the fairies and elves appeared to him and said:

"You have been bad and sold horrible and frightening dreams. I will punish you by giving you an eternity in which to cry 'Dreams for sale- Dreams for sale!' and yet not be able to sell them to the children."

"No! No!" cried Whee in anguish, "I will never do it again, if only you will let me off this time. I promise." At this he woke up to find himself snug in his own little bed and not facing the dream Queen.

"I will never do anything like that," he vowed silently, "I will check each morning to be sure that I carry only good dreams and no bad ones in my basket, and then I can go out each day with a happy heart as well as a merry face to cry:

"Dreams for sale! Dreams for sale!"

A Unique Business

Ann E. Mouse

My name is J. B. Smith. I operate a unique business. People who have unique dreams come to me with them. I record everything that they tell me and I file away the recordings. Once a month, authors, playwrights, and movie producers, come to me and listen to these recordings. If one of them finds a dream which he thinks he can develop into a play or a book, he buys it from me. I, in turn, pay the original creator twenty per cent of what I receive in the sale price. If the dream is developed into a play or a book, the creator receives thirty per cent of the royalties.

Here are two original dreams that I have collected through the years. The first one by Mrs. K. J. Schwartz, goes as follows: "I was walking along a street one day when I chanced to see a one dollar bill lying on the sidewalk. I bent down to pick it up, but it seemed to be stuck to the pavement. I yanked at it and it ripped in half. I put the half I was holding on top of the other half which was stuck on the sidewalk. Lo! It mended together again. A policeman approached, and showing him the bill I told him what had happened. He bent down to look at it, but received a spit in the eye. He looked at the bill again and again he received a spit in the eye. He jumped up and down on top of the dollar bill but couldn't do anything to it. He then told me to stand guard over the bill while he went to get the police chemist. When the policeman was out of sight, the bill quivered, stood up on its edge, and fluttered to my cheek. It caressed my cheek and nose, and then it was gone."

The second tasty dream that I have in my files was created by Reginald Van Poepanhouser. It goes as follows: "One day I was driving my "Mercedes-Benz" along the highway heading into Dusseldorf, Germany. All of a sudden my car stopped, as if frozen in its tracks. Every working part seemed to be frozen. All the other cars went buzzing by me. Why wouldn't my car work? I got out and lifted up the hood. There was no engine; not even a spark plug. I reached up to grab the hood but instead I grabbed empty air. The hood had vanished! As I surveyed the car, I saw the tires and seats disappear. The chassis was now literally floating on air! I thumbed down a motorist and showed him my car. Great heavens! The car was again complete. Everything was back in it. The motorist gave me a puzzled look and drove away. I got into the car and continued my trip into Dusseldorf."

Well, my friends, those are just two samples of the hundreds of dreams I have filed away. If you have a unique dream, drop around and see old "J. B." and I'll see what I can do.

A PUPPY'S LAMENT

By Marlene Martz

*As I was strolling along one day,
I saw a dog, so happy and gay,
For in his mouth there was a bone,
And I suppose he was carrying it home.*

*Then all of a sudden, a stream he spied,
And sitting lazily down beside,
He chanced to look in—and lo and behold!
There in the stream was a dog so bold.*

*In this dog's mouth, there was also a bone,
(Only his was bigger—in the reflection shown).
Our hero glared down jealously,
And then he plunked in zealously . . .*

*While he was searching for his foe,
A tiny mongrel, who'd seen the show,
Picked up the bone, and ran away,
And our hero was sans a meal that day.*

*This is the moral I wish to push
A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush.*

Young Canadians, graduating from High School this year, have a wonderful opportunity to go on to exciting careers in the Navy, Army or Air Force. Through the Regular Officer Training Plan (ROTP) qualified applicants can obtain a college education, military training, and ultimately the Queen's Commission . . . all under the sponsorship of the Department of National Defence.

On acceptance, applicants become Officer Cadets and attend one of the three Services Colleges . . . Royal Military College, Royal Roads, Collège Militaire Royal de Saint-Jean . . . or a designated Canadian University. During the summer they train with their chosen Service.

Officer Cadets receive ROTP rates of pay throughout their training. At the Services Colleges, quarters, food and all necessary equipment are provided. Cadets at Universities receive allowances for food and lodging, tuition, books and instruments.

copper money...

Included in our Historical Exhibition is one of the hand-beaten copper plates (2' 6" high x 18" wide) which were used by the Pacific Coast Indian Tribes for barter purposes. At the potlatch in honor of a dead chief, one or more were broken and thrown on the fire or into the sea. In 1895 this particular copper had attained the value of 2000 blankets. There are many fascinating objects of historic interest in our Exhibition, on the Fourth Floor.

We extend our congratulations to the Editor and his associates on the preparation of this Annual, and appreciate the opportunity of participating in its production to the extent of providing the printing plates.
