KEEPING YOUNG WITH YOUNG CANADA

Fresh new approach to old problems . . . enthusiasm, energy, and an eager desire to reach out for new ideas and challenges . . . these are the vital and important qualities of youth that we can use and appreciate. We, at EATON'S, are proud of our 1960-1961 Junior Executives and Junior Councillors! Chosen on a basis of academic standing, personality and general participation in school activities, they help us keep young and in touch with current trends, fashions and needs of Young Canada. In return, EATON'S gives them practical training in modern retail business methods and merchandising . . . as well as actual selling experience.

EDITORIAL

This term at Glenlawn has been fuller and more rewarding than ever before. The extra curricular activities have more than doubled. Many new and worthwhile clubs such as the U.N. and I.S.C.F. have been formed. The Roar has greatly improved under this year's excellent staff. The Variety Show was bigger and better than ever due to the organization and participation of many students. The school teams are also to be congratulated for the honors they bestowed upon Glenlawn. Following the trend of many other Greater Winnipeg High Schools, Glenlawn's Graduation will be held in the fall.

We, of the yearbook committee, wish to express our thanks to Mr. Dow and Mr. Halstead, our staff advisors, who gave up so much of their time to make this yearbook a success.

STUDENT'S COUNCIL

It is the straight-forward wish of the President and Student Council of 1960-61 that we have helped to make this year at Glenlawn both successful and full of memories. The council would like also, at this time, to take the opportunity to thank the student body, faculty and janitorial staff for their whole-hearted co-operation throughout the year. I would like to extend my personal thanks to the council and staff advisor, Mrs. Halstead, for their able assistance throughout the year.

This year four dances were held at Glenlawn. A splendid task was done on these through the efforts of the Social Committee and its chairman, Dale Sarenchuk.

The Sports Council was granted control of its own financial matters by the council. With its chairman, Bev Moon, the Sports Council deserves thanks for the successful organization of a Badminton Club, Bowling League, Curling League and the Annual Track Meet. The Student Council purchased soccer boots, a school banner and sweaters for the Cheerleaders. The Student Council also bought crests for all winning teams as a form of official recognition. The basketball teams both fared well. The boys placed second in their division but were knocked out of the play-offs by Vincent Massey. The girls, however, won the suburban title and then won the Consolation in the Provincials. The boy's team made two road trips this year; the first to Kenora and the second to Grand Forks. Both were accompanied by spectators.

A regular edition of the school newspaper, The Roar, was published this year under the hard work of its Editor, Suzanne Lipsett, and staff. This journalistic body can well be congratulated for the fine job they have done.

The Student Council, along with the work of two members, Diane Lamoureux and Nicollet Holub, designed an official school jacket, and supplied rings to the students.

Glenlawn's Variety Show ran for three nights in February. It was both entertaining and well received by both students and guests alike. The Follies were also one of the most financially successful shows this Collegiate has ever had. This tremendous success can be attributed to the excellent work of the Variety Show committee, headed by Jim Reger.

Sandy Gregor was chosen as one of four delegates to represent the Canadian Junior Red Cross in Austria during the summer. To help finance his trip, the Council donated to him $150.00.

This year a new plan was introduced for Graduation. A Grads Farewell Dance was held in the spring, and Graduation will be held in the fall after the June examination results are announced.

In conclusion, I wish all of the students of Glenlawn a happy, successful and prosperous future. I would also like to take this last opportunity to wish next year's Council equal success and to hope that they will receive the co-operation and support that this Student Council of 1960-61 has had.

GARY CROOK
President

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

This annual occasion gives me an opportunity to reminisce about the past year. About six hundred students in twenty-five classes have been ministered to by a total staff of thirty-seven teachers including the Practical Arts. Both staff and students are to be complimented on a year of very orderly work and progress. I am deeply indebted to them for the co-operation they have all given me, without which the administration of this large collegiate would be impossible. Student Council and its committees deserve thanks for their hard work under president Gary Crook.

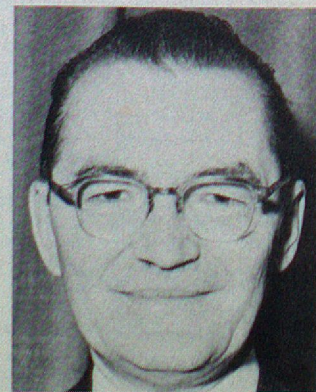

Mr. Drosdowech has done an excellent job in looking after the Grade Ten students, as well as texts and guidance. His thriving collection of plants contains a carnivorous specimen that may be a useful deterrent by the fall!

World events, on the other hand, have been far from orderly. Gagarin has circumnavigated the globe in space in eighty-nine minutes, followed by Shepard for a briefer jaunt. The troubled Congo gave point to the study of Canadian constitutional history. A new dictator strengthened his power in Cuba. Tanks rolled down Champs Elysees. Stirring times, indeed, in which you graduates of this year 1961 will have great need to be alert.

Train yourselves as much as possible to be ready for new opportunities; understand as widely as possible so that you will recognize them; and develop as deeply as possible the great human ideals of love and service to guide your own inner lives.

My best wishes to you for your future progress.

Tom, our president, has our acclaim.
His masculine humor has earned him fame.

Our Jean is the girl who's on the ball!
As vice-president she rules us all.

For the touchy collection of all fees,
We call for help from sweet Louise.

Carole plans our social balls
Between giggles in our sedate halls.

"Rich" at centre front, is social rep, too,
Hopes for basketball if his luck runs true.

After glee club practice, our Red Cross rep,
Sharen, will lead us with vim and pep.

Carla's our offering for opera fame,
Her only claim — "there's nothing like a dame."

Our two sports reps keep us all on call —
Len with bowling, Bev with basketball.

Consider our rep to the "Roar" so smart,
Many papers on hand, Barb has only one boy in her heart.

But Audrey has someone that puzzles us all,
Unless he is someone not seen in our hall.

Then there is Donna. Her future is planned,
To walk forever with someone hand in hand.

In the classroom our "Merg" spends most of her day,
Busy with small talk and dog shares, they say.

In days of yore, it was cheerful Chris,
But mathematical gloom has changed all this.

Sharon Tully, another lass of 25,
Hopes to leave Grade 12 less dead than alive.

Before the "Torch" got hit where the love bug bit,
Eleanor was the first gal to make fun of it.

Irene at the front of the room, makes no moans
At passes at lasses with glasses on phones.

Karen, the doll with the long golden hair,
Likes pickles, dimples, and lots of fresh air.

Pretty and prim, at the doorway we see,
Zora a- sitting, so quiet (?) - ly.

Although Gwen claims her baby brother is king —
Every morning early, she's at the glee club to sing.

No one can miss where Wendy goes
She's decked in red from head to toes

Down from the North, and the town of Bisset,
To Glenlawn came Faith, in case she might miss it.

Dark-haired Ruth, in French is our queen,
Yet often is seen sporting brash Irish green.

Pat, up at the front, seems all attention,
But her secret thoughts might earn a detention.

Simone is a great one for writing a letter,
If she were always here, we would know her better.

Lillian, ruling the back of the room,
Keeps her court quiet, without any gloom.

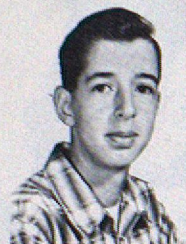

Gord is a rebel in his back seat,
He finds noisy basketball more his meat.

Anne dreams in her front corner seat;
People going by, trip on her feet.

Then comes our girl with eyes that gleam,
Mary-Lou Booth, the girl on the beam.

Wonderful, fun-loving, sports-minded Lynn,
With her on our team, we're sure to win.

Room 23 proved early in the school year to have many hidden talents in the midst of all the numbskulls.

Glenlawn's basketball successes are assured by stalwart Vince Serby. Soccer brought a championship to Glenlawn this year. Helping the Glenlawn team defeat Transcona were Dieter Lindner, Arnold Pohl and Len Surbey.

We are blessed with the presence of our beloved school president Gary (Fuzzy) Crook.

Class officers elected at the beginning of the year were: President, Dieter Linder; Vice-President, Blair Swanson; Boys' Sports rep, Ed Roman; Secretary-Treasurer, Sandy Johnson; Roar rep, Bob Bell; Social rep, Blaire Swanson; Red Cross rep, Arnold Pohl.

As far as clowns go, we of Room 23 have the best. Dave (Yogi) Yomada and Ed (The Bopper) Romaniuk keep the class in stitches most of the day.

As far as the fairer sex is concerned, we have quality but not quantity. "The yappy two," Blaire and Sandy, comprise our female population and split the duties given to "les filles de la salle 23."

Room 23 would like to wish all the Glenlawn Grads the best of luck in the future.

Here's singing the praises of Room Twenty-one
Whose interests are studies, sports, meetings and fun.

This club and that club and most sports too,
There isn't much our Joanne doesn't do.

Pep club would be lost without its bold leader
Our Margie can be seen with her father Peter.

Right now Betty Bowcott appears on the floor;
In leading our cheers, she gives out with more.

Here's Gordon, an old salt of room twenty-one,
Who goes down to Chippawa when day is done.

In front of the room sits a likeable guy,
'Least good ol' Stan thinks so, we don't know why.

Well, Alvie's our sec-treas, so avid and bright,
When our room's in trouble, she sets us aright.

Bob Force stays at school just so long and no more,
He's out of the door as the bell rings it's four.

Jim Garwood, it seems, excells in la French;
And has his wee eye on a certain fair wench.

And there's Brenda Goudie, our room Red Cross rep;
When packing those hampers, she does it with pep.

And Arthur der Grenke thinks soccer a sport,
A likeable chap, not a sarcastic sort.

Terry Hawkins is great, in B-ball supreme,
A pass mark in maths is his biggest dream.

For Dave it is basketball, football, but still
It's only hockey that gives him a thrill.

This Leroy kid is not as dull as he looks;
It's just that he's crushed by the weight of those books.

Now Karen Jaquet's a tiny wee lass,
Whose marks will ensure her a glorious pass.

Bob K., our fanatic electronics fan,
Has hopes of eventually being a great man.

Our Cal can be seen at the store buying rice
Or sitting at home during class shooting dice.

Ed is the gent who works hard and won't fail;
If he does, "Heck with that, so — navy and sail!"

Now most of these write-ups were done by gay Pete
Who studies his maths in his coat-hung seat.

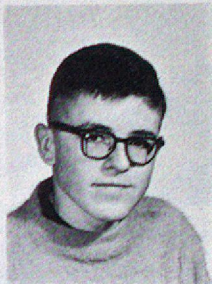

Peggy McGuckin is our nightingale,
In concerts or sing-songs, she doesn't us fail.

Donald McLeod knows his old country history,
Though dates, to him, are a first class mystery.

Bagpipes and kilts and a twinkling eye,
Roy is our Scotsman who makes the girls sigh.

And Bill, of the four, not in maths class does shine;
He only likes being late, parties and wine.

There's Lawrence, a man who paddles a canoe,
His own, no doubt, on the Red and Seine, too.

Our president broke his left leg at football,
So Jim would come limping to school in the fall.

Though Ron sits and listens when he is in school,
He's an expert on autos, batteries and pool.

Our curly haired Dale always keeps us in stitches
With physics solutions she always bewitches.

Lydia S. has quite a score bowling;
In the aisle with bad jokes she keeps us a-rolling.

Marion loves basketball, we wonder why;
At all the games we hear her "Yea, Glenlawn!" cry.

The strong silent type is our Bob W.,
If you have worries, he won't let them trouble you.

And here is a guy, by name, Ted Whicker;
While his jokes were funny, they are getting sicker.

Good grief, Mrs. Halstead's the maitre-de-classe,
She does her best with us and hopes that we'll pass.

These same boys, with Bob Baker, Bill McDougal, Hugh Gannon and Mitsuo Tsutsumi form the room soccer team. Six curling enthusiasts in our room are Dennis Darragh, Bill Sproat, Peter Lawrence, Bill McDougal, Wayne Page and Garry Sauve. Tumbling is one of the interests of Hugh Gannon and George Chudy. Class members of the bowling league include Ed Rasmusson, a newcomer to Glenlawn, Don Boch, Hugh Gannon and Dave Oakley. The only male member from Room 33 in the United Nations club is Al Compton. All six of the girls, as well as two boys, form our class executive. Room 33's president, Diane Lamoureux, is also one of Glenlawn's pert and pretty cheerleaders. Louise Bockstael, our class secretary, participates in all inter-room sports and is a member of the United Nations club. Nicollet Holub, another inter-room volleyball player, is our vice-president. (late again Nicky?) Our sports rep, Cathy Flower, plays on Glenlawn Collegiate girls varsity basketball and volleyball teams. She is the girls' social rep and belongs to the United Nations club. Ann Powell, room 33's year book rep, member of the drama and United Nations clubs, plays inter-room volleyball. Judy Norton, secretary for the school newspaper, "The Roar", has cheerleading, drama club, and inter-room volleyball, as some of her other interests. The boys' sports rep, Dennis Alvestad, a player on Glenlawn's varsity basketball and volleyball teams, is also a member of the inter-room soccer, volleyball, and school bowling teams. Brian English, our boys' social rep, plays with the varsity basketball and volleyball teams and is very busy on the room teams, the pep club, and the tumbling club. RED CROSS COUNCIL REPORT

The Glenlawn Junior Red Cross has experienced a very successful year in all respects. Numerous projects in which every student was able to participate, have proved to be extremely interesting and beneficial in their results. At Christmas, several large hampers were prepared for needy residents of St. Vital. During the next term, Health and School kits were collected for less fortunate Greek students. A blood donor drive took place during April. Much needed funds were raised throughout the year by means of such activities as coat-checking, bottle-collecting and a very successful postage-stamp drive.

The Junior Red Cross Council would like to put forth its most sincere thanks for the wonderful co-operation it has received during the entire school year from the student body and the school staff.

"No males!" the unanimous cry arose at the beginning of the term. However, we discovered them an unnecessary asset and soon were happily engrossed in our year-long hen party. We are exceptionally lucky to have Dr. Watkins as our class teacher, without whose pep and enthusiasm things would be terribly dull. Dorothy and Carolyn, our capable president and vice-president, keep us well informed of the doings at student council and never miss a meeting. Marilyn was elected our trustworthy secretary-treasurer. Dawn, our social rep, is quite enthusiastic about her position and even has extra meetings in the evenings with the head of the social committee!! Gerry, our Red Cross rep, did a good job of organizing our Christmas hamper. Luckily the "Roar" has two of our girls working for it; Helen's illustrations have certainly proved a great asset, while the news editor, Betty-Lou, has proved to be an excellent reporter who enjoys digging up news tidbits. On the sports scene, Colette and Joan keep us informed. Our volleyball team, composed of Joan, Colette, Pat Kidd, Sue, Pat Kellett, Gail B. and Sharon keep the other teams hopping. That's the way to fight, girls!! We have four of Glenlawn's vivacious cheerleaders in our room — Pat Kellett, Pat Kidd, Dawn and Carolyn. Pat, our pert little head cheerleader, keeps everyone in line and never misses a game. Could there be a special interest in a certain player? We hear Betty-Lou, Pat Murray, Marlene, Nina, Isla-May and Dawn are beginning great acting careers, thanks to G. C. drama group. We also have a number of budding singers in the glee club, Colette, Carolyn, Dawn, Dorothy and Isla-May. Isla-May enjoys keeping the club's funds in order. Joan, Marlene and Isla-May, our contributions to the camera club, find the dark room quite intriguing. Our room supplies more than half of the year book staff. Pat Murray, the efficient, hard-working editor; Dorothy, head of advertising, and Marilyn, literary editor. Kay and Margaret Evans have the knack of getting outstanding marks and are envied at exam time. Unless you haven't guessed it by now, most people agree that our room is tops!

SPORTS COUNCIL

This year the Glenlawn student council passed a motion that the sports committee would become independent from the Student Council in monetary affairs. This meant that the Sports committee had full control over the money brought in from the basketball or volleyball games. This has been very successful as a profit of one hundred dollars has been cleared for the year. Road trips to Kenora and Grand Forks in the end paid for themselves. The expenses for the year included referees for all games, transportation and dry-cleaning of the uniforms. Since this system has worked out so well, it will be continued from year to year.

All in all this year has been successful for the Sports Council, thanks to the help of Mr. Gaudreau and Miss Roslycky, and it is hoped that it will continue that way.

Room 31 consisted of twenty-two boys and four girls. Fortunately, for the male population of the room, all four were perfect specimens of femininity. The "rulers" of the room were: Niki Reitz, the competent president; Barb Bellamy, the beautiful brunette vice-president (traded jobs with B.B. and became the secretary-treasurer); Barb Carey and Rick McDougall, a combination of beauty and bronze for sports reps; Trudy Barta and Ron Rogers as able social reps; George Garbutt as "Roar" rep. Mitch Ohta, wonder who he is? Many in the room participated in school sports. Ron Rogers played goalie, while Niki Reitz scored the one and winning goal to earn G.C.I. their first soccer championship. Pupils like Trudy Barta, Barb Bellamy, Barb Carey, Dan Dare, Mike Gravenor, Vicki Lindquist, Steve (Peever) •

McDermot, Leonard Parchewsky, John Platt, Byron Thompson, Trevor Toyne, and Ken Wilson participated in curling or bowling. The remainder may not have been in sports, but were surely heard in class at the wrong time. Alvin Brown, Pete Kennedy, Grant McJannet, Dave Mossop, Peter Phillips, Allen Pomeranski, Ed Tisher and Ken Watts are usually rowdy during periods and quiet during breaks. Room 31, as a group, did well in inter-room sports such as volleyball and soccer (out of the cellar at least!) Room 31 was an "exceptionally good room," so some teachers say. Which teacher? The one with all the cash. Seriously, though, a friendly relationship existed between teacher and students which led to many laughs, along with many stale jokes—a successful term enjoyed by teacher and student.

The Social Committee was very glad to have Miss McCamm and Miss Smith as staff advisers for the term of 1960-61. Thanks also to Marion Stupar for her fine job as Secretary-Treasurer.

The first social event of the year was the "Harvest Hop." At this dance, Francis Pfeffer was crowned as Glenlawn's freshie queen for 1960-61. Entertainment at this dance was provided by the "Jay Walkers". Our next dance was the Christmas dance, aptly called "Frosty Frolic." This dance was welcomed by everyone after the pressure of the Christmas exams. Entertainment was provided by Mr. Glenn Wood from Eatons, and even though the attendance was not great, Santa Claus made his appearance and passed gifts to lucky persons. Refreshments, which were obtained and distributed at the expense of the teachers present, topped off an enjoyable holiday dance. The third dance of the year was called the "Mardi Gras." The Mardi Gras, a masquerade, gave way to many humorous and exciting ideas. At this dance, Wendy Arbor was awarded first prize for having the most original costume. May 12th was the date of the "Primrose Prom", which provided a final get-together for all the students and was a tremendous success.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the heads of committees and all those active participants who helped make the social scene of 1960-61 a great success.

GRADE 11 - ROOM 30

This year Glenlawn is honored to have such a room as 30 where every pupil is a boy. This seems to be no handicap, especially during physics. Most of the boys in our room are very active in school activities. Earl Fortier participates in curling, chess and bowling. Wayne Buzahora, a member of the senior basketball and volleyball teams, is also a member of the chess club and our room teams. Our president, Ken Cooper, is another sports-minded fellow. He is a member of senior basketball, senior volleyball and in room teams. Our social rep, Brian Gibson, also takes part in room sports. Ron Funk is a member of the chess club as is Doug Dare, our "Roar" rep. Barry Ivison, who participates in bowling and inter-room sports, was a member of the championship senior soccer team. Our vice-president, Tom Thorsteinson, is very active. He is a member of the senior basketball and volleyball teams and of the tumbling club. Jerry Seadon bowls, Dave Richards is one of the Friday night curlers. Dennis Sessions is the only member of the camera club from our room. Ted Mathers, Wayne Vandenberghe and Don Pirie are all active in room sports. Brian Baxter, our secretary-treasurer, finds time to be room 30's year book rep, help on the G.C.R., and curl. Bill Taylor is the G.C.R. and drama club sound technician. Last, but not least, is Keith MacTavish holding down the honored post of Red Cross rep. These boys represented room 30 in all the school activities they participated in. Of course, the other boys such as, Fleming Larson, Brian Barker, Brian Payjack, Doug McAmmond, Neil Barbour, Lee Gretchyn, who didn't participate in any one thing, added greatly to the room spirit, keeping the room always lively.

THE ROAR

This past year the Roar has been very active in reporting school activities. The issue has tried to keep students and teachers informed on the sports, social and academic news in Glenlawn, as well as in many other schools. The "Roar Box" which the staff, with the co-operation of Mr. Mildrew and Mr. Newbold, has placed in the main corridor, has proved very useful in collecting information from the student body. The members of the staff thank all those who wrote articles, typed stencils and assisted in other ways. We hope next year there will be an even greater student participation.

GRADE 11 - ROOM 29

First in our room comes Barry Anderson. "Andy" is the silent, studious type, (when the teachers are looking). Walter Behnke takes part in many sports activities, excelling in soccer. Hence, Walter is our boys' sports rep, filling the position very ably. One of the curlers in our room is Brian Clifford, who skips his own team and dreams of owning a Thunderbird. Don Coggan is another of our studious young men. As well as being an active sportsman, Don has an avid interest in electronics. Our room seems to have more than its share of sports-minded people. Rick Davis is no exception, specially active in hockey. Austin Erickson is Room 29's silent partner, yet all enjoy his presence. Sharon Geswin is our girls' social rep and a member of the school drama club. A member of the school's illustrious soccer team is Jim Gosman who is also active in other sports. Forbes Grant, our elected room president, is a cadet in the Cameron Highlanders. Bob Gunning (Goink) enjoys school and makes the most of his time in classes. Our secretary-treasurer, Lynne Hopkins, one of the live wires in 29, keeps everyone awake during classes. The chief recipient of Lynne's tricks is Russ Kelly, a quiet lad from Kenora, who manages to keep his head in spite of interruptions. Dennis Larone, popular with everyone in Room 29, enjoys horseback riding. Mike Lidster is one of those hard working students who enjoys a little fun with his work — or it the other way around? Our soft-spoken year book rep is Maureen Mager. Niel MacDonald (Angus) is a dyed in the wool Scotsman who loves to save money and hates to let go of it. Don MacLean, a quiet, studious boy in spite of himself, speaks only when he thinks it is unnecessary. Another athlete, Gary Mueller, remains quiet most of the time. One of the few striving for success in this room, Dennis Nimchuk, is bound to obtain his goal, (sooner or later). Drew Simpson is the head of Room 29's "Intelligent Questions Dep't," mainly because he is the only one in it. Our other year-book rep is Ted Stevens, who seems to enjoy himself immensely during school hours. Barrie Thompson, (Ting) dislikes anything serious, especially school. Lawrence Tychiewicz is our eager Roar rep. (Abdul) can always take a joke with good humor, which is lucky for him. Wayne Wedge is a good friend of all in the room, which naturally puts him on the opposite side of the fence from the teachers. The room's scribe and maker of plans is Carlisle Wilson, noted for his wonderful blushes upon the rejection of his plans.

We must admire our dark curly-haired prexy, Winston (flirt) Nock, an active "late" member of the Student Council, the Camera Club, and the bowling team, who also belongs to one of the largest 'girl watching societies' in town. Next is our vice-president, Richard Braun who is very good at pounding the pins in the school bowling league. Our three girls are active in school committees: Sharon Warr our social rep, Diane Huhtala, our Red Cross rep, and Norene Le Couillard our secretary and sports rep. The boys in the class have nicknamed the girls Sam, Son and Delilah, respectively. Our other social rep and another mad bowler is Phil Bardal. George Morawski is also a keen bowler. Our member of the victorious Glenlawn soccer team is Stewart Thorniley. Lloyd Learmonth and Ron Burrows supported the drama, acting in "My Girls Thursday." Dwight McQuat, the boys' sports rep, led our class soccer, basketball and football teams.

The G.C.3 is one of the school clubs created especially for the benefit of students of the commercial department. These students compose the club, do the required work, and reap the profits of the experience they receive in doing some of the things they will do when they reach the offices of business firms.

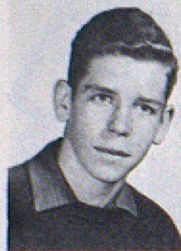

The members are from Grade 10 and 11, and together make a fine team who will surely leave something behind for the commercial students in the years to come to be proud of.

I.S.C.F.

A club new to Glenlawn this year was the I.S.C.F. Club. We have been trying to follow the I.S.C.F. motto, "To Know Christ and to Make Him Known" by means of Bible studies, group and panel discussions and special speakers. We have also been participating in the province-wide activities of the I.S.C.F. such as socials, conferences and teen camps. We are looking forward next year to the hope of a larger and more challenging club.

Linda also holds the office of president in the commercial club, and constantly plays volley-ball for the inter-room team. Entrusted to be our honest??? secretary-treasurer is Thora Bergstrom. Faye Craigie and Gary Parker were elected social reps. Faye, our petite blond, also finds interest in the pep club. Room 3 is very well represented by our female sports rep Liisa Nygard. This busy blond is an able member of the senior girls' basketball team. She also finds time to be a member of the pep club, commercial club, year book committee and the glee club. Our male sports rep this year is Harold Beswatherick, who also belongs to the chess club. Helen Burland, a newcomer to Glenlawn, is the room's Red Cross representative, who also belongs to the commercial club. Our very reliable and willing??? year book rep is Eleanor Charman, who also takes an interest in the pep club. Karen Johnson is Room 5's friendly "Roar" rep. Her other school interests centre around the commercial club and the inter-room volleyball team. Other members of the inter-room volleyball team and the United Nations club include Millie Buttazonie, Dolores Aurell and Mary-Anne McLeod. Dolores Aurell also finds time to blend her voice into the glee club and to be a member of the I.S.C.F. club. Representing us on the boys' volleyball and basketball teams is Gordon Skwarek. THE GLEE CLUB

Richard Toews

Illustrious members of our Grade 11 and 12 classes decided this fall to re-establish Glenlawn's Glee Club. Under the capable and hilarious direction of Mrs. Halstead, our girls swept the school with melodious voices (!?) Our first assignment was to sing for the Drama Night. The club led the audience in a sing-song consisting of Christmas carols and old well-known songs. Our girls then put in long and early hours of practice for the school's Variety Show. The show, I may add, was a great success (probably due to our magnificent glee club). Next year we hope the glee club will be larger and comprised of more than just female voices.

Our congenial captain is Miss Hutchinson. Our executive consists of Lynn White — prexy; Myrna Smith—secretary-treasurer, George Howard — vice-president; Lyall Hunt and Heather McClay — sports reps; Herb Eyres and Linda Donald — social reps; Heather McRae — Red Cross rep; Linda Friesen — “Roar” rep, and Susan Sarmatiuk — year book rep. The complete team consists of twenty-two members.

Most of us, with a specific goal in mind, have chosen the matriculation arts and science course, with biology as our option. Although this course involves much time directed to study and preparation, we have not found ourselves greatly handicapped in our extra-curricular activities. Several of our earlier risers, Linda Donald, Linda Friesen, Heather McRae, Lee Kohanek, Barbara Pippus and Susan Sarmatiuk, commonly associated with the “Alarm Clucks,” manage to straggle in for eight o’clock almost every morning. Some of our more lingual clan, Doreen Hildebrand, Barbara Pippus, Lynn White, Joan Kirby, and Lee Kohanek, regularly attend Mr. Carsted’s German classes. Less frequently attended is Russian class, for our sole member is Linda Donald. Even with the combined efforts of Tony Dodson, Steve Tully, Gordon McGregor, and Bill Barrett, our boys volleyball team has not been able to boast as many wins as our girls’ volleyball team. It is not unusual to hear Myrna Smith’s voice at lunch hour, for she is a member of the drama club who is always practising her lines, much to the amusement of the boys in our room. Joan Kirby, our Freshie Queen candidate, truly made a pretty picture at the “Freshie Dance” and I would advise Barbara Pippus, a member of the camera club, to concentrate more on real life scenes than in stills!

Some of us appear to have our futures fairly accurately mapped out for ourselves. George Howard would like to enter law, while Lee’s interests are inclined more toward veterinary work. Barbara Pippus, Teresa Melnyk, Heather McRae and Joan Kirby seem to favor nursing as their career. Lyall Hunt would like to be a psychiatrist, while Barbara Hodges would like to be a medical technologist. Doreen Hildebrand and Kathy Sliter, although they are not quite sure what they plan to be, seem to enjoy reading, and so may plan to become journalists. Myrna Smith and Susan Sarmatiuk hope to become teachers. When we are older it will be interesting to see how many of us have reached these goals.

Bob Anderson plays soccer, annoys everybody, and works terribly hard at school. Jean Tod, who hails from West Hawk Lake, likes geometry, is never without Bonnie. Sharon Savoie, social rep, is a noted athlete and enemy of Keith. Gary Moore, our class president and brains, plays on room soccer and volleyball teams. James Hindmarsh comes from "behind them thar hills." Plays soccer. Bob Rosier, a likeable, large-size soccer and volleyball player. Carole Lipsett, one of our room's librarians, is a redhead with a big smile. Delbert Stonehouse, a tall boy with a fair amount of grey matter, is famous for his writing. Lynne Gafka, a personality girl, tries not to answer questions. Keith Gibbins, Mr. Carsted's favorite pupil, enjoys soccer and volleyball. Bob Lamblin, terrific athlete, soccer and volleyball, active member of drama club. Jerry Peters, goalie for our soccer team, is never without George. Pat Krasowski is always cheerful — usually seen with friend Anne. Lee Hurst, another one with "brains," is usually watching the boys. Ken Laidlaw, the strong, silent type, hopes one day to answer a question for Mr. Bramadat. Bob Toews ("Towsy") spends most of his time annoying Joanne or doing homework. Peter Crockatt, year book rep, is usually with "Towsy" and without French book. Doreen Plantje knows millions of people, but is usually with Sharon. John Stiver, class vice-president, is a member of the soccer and volleyball teams. Bonnie Daman, Jean's partner in crime, spends time puzzling over geometry. Dave Dare, another one of our "24-hour" grin boys, plays soccer and volleyball. Sandra Dryden usually keeps silent, but doesn't quite hide her personality. Jim Lear, often hiding behind Joanne, tries to look intelligent. Roland Thompson, a newcomer to Room 19, is already "spicing up" the back corner.

Room 18, the haven for all during noon hours has several types of students. It has Garry Hindle who will bet on anything that he thinks is a sure win. Don B., Wally S., and Graham G. form the popular trio who constantly amuse the rest of the class. Wayne W. favors us with a demonstration of how gracefully he he falls off his chair every few days. He says it takes practise. Our class officers are: Wally S., president; Graham G., vice-president; John S., secretary; Steve B. "Roar" rep; Janet Y., social rep; Garry H., Red Cross rep; Carole Y. as year book rep; Diane W. and Carl P., sports reps. Nearly all the girls play on the inter-room volleyball team. Boys keen on basketball are; Don B. Wally S., Graham G., Carl P., and John S. Matter of fact, room 18 has its own hoop (a slightly deformed coat hanger) and a game is usually in session during the noon hour.

Pat S. talks to Graham much of the time and is a friend to all. Budding actress and teacher's pet is Diane, who has a friendly word for everyone and is a "real student." Steven B. and Keith K. are favourites of the teachers, and pals to all. Although Kathy P. is a studious and silent worker, she really hits that volleyball where it should go. Janet T. never at a loss for words, especially when Linda M. is around and wants to tease or just to have fun. Linda is on Glenlawn's junior girls' basketball team. Although Cathey E.'s main interests lie at Windsor, she dutifully attends her music lessons. Reice, envied for his seat at the front of the room, is popular and well liked by everyone. Pauline, the cute girl who can't seem to find her voice, (along with Mr. Halstead) believes in ghosts. One fellow with a charming personality and lots to say to everyone is Carl P. To volleyball we give a cheer,

And able players list we here:

B. and C. and S. and K.,
M. and L. and sometimes J.

Dear Mr. Sugden, brave and true,
We dedicate this ode to you.

* Freshie Queen Candidate

UNITED NATIONS

Glenlawn saw the beginnings of a new club in 1960-61. A few interested students gathered to discuss the accomplishments and functions of the United Nations and world affairs in general. This group became known as the United Nations Club. Meetings consisted of open discussions about such matters as Cuba and whether the white man was corrupting the natives, and debates, the resolutions of which were: resolved that "Red China be admitted to the United Nations," and resolved that "the Commonwealth is stronger without South Africa."

Many thanks to those who attended the meetings and supported the club. The club would like to express its gratitude to Mr. Boyes and Mr. Hryhor, the advisors.

The class executive is headed by Fran Pfeffer, who happens to be the freshie queen. The vice-president's place is capably filled by the deep-voiced Don Duncan. "Little" Tim Barnfather holds down the job of secretary-treasurer. This is a good job for Tim because he just "loves" money. The people who represent the class at social meetings are Allan Daman and Bev Hammond. The sports reps of this room are Morry Rutherford and Janis Ranosky. The Red Cross representative is someone who enjoys the job — Fred Brennan. Gossiping Neil McJannet has the position of "Roar" rep.

Room 13's girls' volleyball team were the Grade 10 champions. The team consisted of: Janis Ranosky, captain; Pat Wardell, Sharon Przybylski, Bev Hammond, Diane Curtis, Fran Pfeffer, Helen Goulding, and Gail Wotton.

Pat Wardell represented Room 13 on the junior basketball and volleyball teams. Janis Ranosky and Sharon Przybulski played on the varsity basketball and volleyball teams. Fran Pfeffer played senior basketball.

Gail Wotton cheerfully acted as spare for the Glenlawn cheerleaders.

The boys' inter-room volleyball team consisted of: Moe Rutherford (captain), Ken Sutyla, William Brennan, Mike Miller, Lorne How, Adam Matviuk and Fred Brennan.

The boys' inter-room soccer team consisted of Duncan Moore, Bill Brennan, Grant Johnson, Ken Sutyla, Mike Miller, Don Duncan, Moe Rutherford, Adam Matviuk, Ken Webb, Lorne How. Duncan Moore played on the school soccer team.

On the night of the freshie dance Fran Pfeffer, of Room 13, was voted freshie queen of 1960-61. This was an honor to Fran and Room 13.

GRADE 10 - ROOM 11

Room 11 this year served as the first matriculation-commercial room in Glenlawn's history. Some twenty students from Glenwood, Norberry and Windsor were interested in this combined course which would give them a commercial certificate and a senior matric standing at the end of three years.

The members of the class participated in most of the activities offered. Kerry Bittner, Dave Chomiak and Terry Schjerner, the only three boys in the room (pity them!) played in the inter-room soccer games and volleyball. Doreen Nunn, Heather Bell, Joan Caughey, Beverley Marceniuk, Pauline Melnik, Tina Derksen, Carolyn Varey, Barbara Channing and Pat Rodier, took an active part in the inter-room volleyball games. At bowling, the girls and boys combined their talents. Barbara Channing and Diana Angell were chosen as cheerleaders. We also have members who are active in the drama club: Maureen McDowell and Diana Angell. In general, many of the students were able to take time off from a packed schedule to be present at extra activities.

The elected officers, who served during the year, were: Pat

Rodier, president; Diana Angell, vice-president; Barbara Channing and Dave Chomiak, social reps; Kerry Bittner and Doreen Nunn, sports reps; Heather Bell, "Roar" rep; and Annelese Schwentke, year book rep.

There were also some very interesting sidelights that helped us to break the monotony of studying. For example: the cupboard space was very often taken up by a conglomeration of bottles (not beer bottles). In an attempt to escape from too much home work, we came up with a novel idea, when we created a "Monument of Industry." Poetry contributed to some amusement, e.g. "Muddy Snow," written by one of our great poets. The class also received a modern name, "Cool Cats," by one of the staff members.

All in all, it was an interesting and rewarding year. We did find that working on our own to a greater extent than we did in Junior High was at times quite difficult, but we feel that we are now qualified to say that we are well on our way to a maturity which should be an asset in Grade XI. The class enjoyed a successful term under the leadership of Mr. A. Bramadat.

The Grade X soccer champs and finalists against Grade XII's for the school championship: Fred Nock, Ed Dregar, Syd Page, Dave Denesovych, Gordon Brokop, Dayton Kemp, Bob Crockett, Alex Stratton, Charles La Brossiere, Fred Nock. Room 27 contributed players to many of the school teams — volleyball: Bob Devlin, soccer: Albert Grenke, Terry Kubin; junior basketball: Bob Devlin, Bob Crockett, Bob MacRae and Terry Kubin. The bowlers: Gary Dudar, Bob Delvin, Bob Crockett.

Room 27 had the honor of having this year's Freshie Queen — "Frieda" Nock. Her popularity was proved by the landslide of votes she received at the Freshie Dance. However, due to her lacking various essential characteristics, "Frieda" resigned her position to the runner-up.

GRADE 10 - ROOM 8

Room 8's class teacher, pert, pretty Miss Betcher, is appreciated by all. She teaches us shorthand and English. Since Room 8 is comprised of twenty-four lovely ladies and only one boy, we have given him the royal honor of being our mascot. His name is Jake Wall.

Our president, lovely Linda Fellowes, who was also our freshie queen candidate, occupies a backseat and continuously carries on a conversation with her neighbors. We understand she is an ardent curler. Jake Wall, who fills the roll of vice-president, happens to be one of Linda's neighbors. He is also one of our best shorthand students. Myrna Howarth is our secretary-treasurer and a bowling enthusiast in our school league. Social rep is Donna Lancaster. She is forever plotting with Mavis and Linda on how to enrage a certain teacher. We proudly boast Mavis Giles as sports rep, and our contribution to Glenlawn's volleyball and basketball teams. She is frequently seen browsing along the halls with Janis Ranosky. Petite Yooko Tsutsumi, our faithful Red Cross rep, stands first in class. Her only desire is to grow a little. Dorothy Verplaetse is perfect as our "Roar" rep. Occupying a front seat, she continuously takes journeys to the water fountain. We wonder, "Is she really thirsty?" She is another of our bowlers. The year book rep is the room's only redhead, Iris Fail.

We proudly boost our volleyball team, consisting of: Mavis Giles (captain), Stanis Robison, June Moon, Dorothy Verplaetse, Margaret Pekrul, Christine Borley, Judy Campbell, Marguerite Christensen, Iris Fail and Donna Ball.

Glenlawn offers us a great variety of clubs in which many of the "gang" in our room participate. Savellia Zaplatynsky takes an active part in the United Nations club and is another of our bowlers. Members of the commercial club are: Evelyn Guigueno, Christine Borley, Stanis Robison and June Moon. Jane Conlon is a bowling enthusiast and has a mysterious habit of kicking Mr. Bramadat. Dorothy Verplaetse, Yooko Tsutsumi, Savellia Zaplatynsky and Iris Fail are seen dancing at every spare moment. We gather from this they are fans of the Friday noon dances. Often seen running to drama club practices is Iris Fail.

This terrific bunch of girls (oops!) AND one boy! makes a splendid room, which keeps the teachers jumping.

Although Bob Meyers is on the "Roar" staff, he attends hardly any meetings. His pal, Leo Lafrance, who is the sports rep, is sometimes not very sporting. Pat Leach, the vice-president of the room, was our nominee for freshie queen. Dave Jardine, the class president, is our best gymnast. Judy Baker claims the honor of best typist. Janice Megill spends most of her time talking to Pat by sign language. David Millette and David Macleod, our best volleyball players, watch amazed as Greg Sheedy disappears each day at the five-to-four bell. Heather Kelly is one of our brighter students. Pat Young, when not defending herself from Bob and Leo, talks to Ronwin Hurt, our happiest student. Reg Branionier understands neither English nor arithmetic, but is convinced he'll do O.K. Glen Corne says he's going to join the army if he fails this year. Linda Aleciuk must be asleep, as she never makes a peep. Helen Palehetski would be happy if she were the only girl in our room. John Copeland likes all sports except tumbling. Bev Bostock, our Red Cross rep, is always collecting bottles for "the box." Wayne Toole sits in a corner talking to May White. Myrna Henry, our girl sports rep, enjoys talking with Dave, Bob, or Leo. May Leucique and Rudolfa Vanderkoog gossip with each other between bites at noon.

CAMERA CLUB

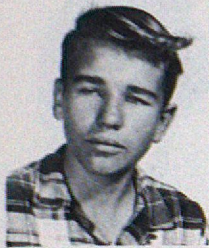

Did you know you can join the camera club even without a camera? Did you know that the camera club goes on exciting field trips? Did you know that you can learn to take better pictures in the camera club? and learn dark room techniques? If you did not, join the camera club next year and find out. Our thanks to our staff advisor, Mr. Dow, for his expert advice on all aspects of photography.

The teacher of Room 2 is Mrs. W. Fraser. The class president is Bob Lillyman, vice-president is Murray Wooden, and the secretary is Millie Chekoski. Our two social reps are Gary Richards and Carol McNamaro. The sports reps are Lorayne Matthews and Bob Hrycuik. Ken Crisp is our Roar rep, and Judi Haynen our Red Cross rep. Gwen Bannister is our Yearbook rep. Mary Wilson and Mark Kadish are our librarians. Nancy Newmark was our candidate for freshie queen. June Tippet is a member of the volleyball team. Members of the inter-room volleyball teams whose names are not mentioned above, are: Judy Collett, Marlene Tye, Marlene Nieman, Joyce Harrison, Dorothy Broome, Claudette Herie, Diane McKane, Rosella Toews, Barry Newcombe and Marvin Alward.

The Drama Club has had a most successful year. Under the direction of Mr. Bramadat, Mr. Dow, and Mr. Halstead over thirty students representing all grades have learned something of the theatre. Basic understanding of acting, make-up, production, and writing has been gained. Emphasizing the extent of interest in the drama club were the two "Drama Nights" held, one on December 8th and one on April 20th and 21st. The selection of short plays presented each time were well received. A special feature of the April Drama Night was the presentation of a play in French directed by Mr. Sugden. The play chosen for Glenlawn's production in the Manitoba Theatre School Drama Festival early in May was "Ghosts a la Mode."
