1984 - THE BOOK

"To the future, to the past, to a time when thought is free, when men are different from one another and do not live alone—to a time when truth exists and what is done cannot be undone:

From the age of uniformity, from the age of solitude, from the age of Big Brother, from the age of double-think,—greetings!"

from George Orwell's novel 1984

1984, the greatly prophesized and predicted year has fallen upon us, not with a crash, but like the fall of a curtain that separates the past from the future.

This year was predicted to be one where people were constantly watched through a "telescreen" by "Big Brother", the unseen ruler who sees and controls all.

People were supposed to be divided into 3 classes, "the Inner Party", "the Outer Party", and "the Proletariats". 1984 was to be a time where people celebrated "Hate Week" and where "War is Peace", "Freedom is Slavery" and "Ignorance is Strength".

As we continue our rapid journey into our future, we should stop to recognize and remember 1984, not for George Orwell's warning to the future, but for the memories it holds of a time when people were individual and unique and of a time heading from the past towards the future.

To all of you who will be leaving Glenlawn, we wish you a successful and a happy niche in life. In this day of specialization, when emphasis on proper and adequate education is all important, it becomes increasingly necessary that you have a clear goal for which to strive—not an unattainable goal, but one based on your actual interests and ambitions. It is not necessary to be a genius in order to live a full life and win respect of others, but the important thing is to work to achieve excellence in your chosen work whether this be studying, selling, carpentry, medicine or nuclear physics. The only person who does not gain the respect of his/her fellowman is one who fails to develop fully his/her potentialities. I am always reminded of a motto of a former colleague of mine: "Second rate is excellence—to the second rate." May you always go first class.

From all of us at Glenlawn, may we extend our best wishes and offer our congratulations.

W. A. Ruff
Principal

Society accepts that there are two purposes to education: to discover who you are and to develop what you are. Discovering has excitement and developing takes work.

Each of us is born with many talents and education should provide opportunities so that each can discover what these talents are. And society needs the variety of talents you have to offer. You may have a talent for music, a talent for understanding people, or a talent for handling large machines. With this discovery of our talents, each of us has a responsibility to develop what we are. We need to enhance these talents and acquire the skills of communicating, whether through speech, through mathematics, or through fixing carburetors.

It is no easy task to have the courage to discover who you are and then to become the best possible you. Growing is exciting and sometimes hurts a lot. The good news is that you needn't expect to be a finished product at the end of your schooling; education takes a lifetime, and no one is ever finished with discovering and developing.

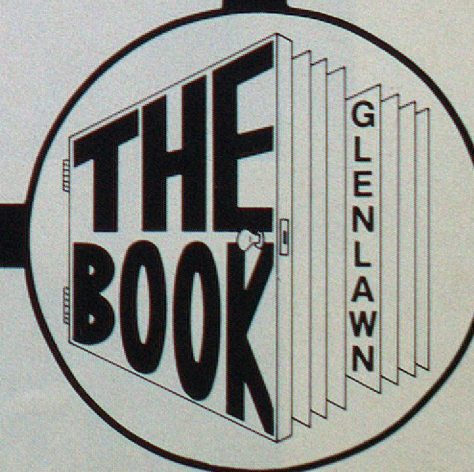

At Glenlawn, we have tried to give you a broad range of experiences through our course offerings and extra curricular opportunities. I hope you have taken the opportunity to learn about yourself and that you have worked to develop those special skills and talents that make you the special person that you are.

I know that Glenlawn is an exciting school because of the kinds of people who are here, students and staff. To each of you, thank you for your contribution. And to the graduates, my best wishes.

Mrs. Victoria Olchowecki
Vice-Principal

As a distant runner and a member of the Cloverleaf Championship Cross Country team, I find it hard to wrap up the season in a few sentences. Cross Country is not just running across a field but it enables the runner to come in contact with nature. The feelings are hard to describe as you trek across the grass through the bushes and along the river bend. Cross Country is more than training for championships and wanting to be number one. Cross Country is man in harmony with nature not man against nature.

Terry Fox Run

On a chilly Saturday morning in September, hundreds of people gathered in St. Vital Park to continue one man's dream.

The Terry Fox Run for the St. Vital area was once again organized and run by the students and staff of Glenlawn. The course was just under 9 kilometers in distance and covered a wide variety of terrain. The first place finisher was Glenlawn's own track athlete, Jason Braun (and the race wasn't even fixed!). The effort of hundreds of other runners will not go unnoticed for it was their determination and hard work that raised thousands of dollars for Cancer Research.

Freshman Girls

Freshman Girls Volleyball Team

Thanks to the dedication of the players and our coaches, Rhonda Giles and Doreen Boddie, we had a very strong team but not enough inspiration to pull it off! We played 2 tournaments, one in Transcona and one on our own home court—G.C.I.!! Unfortunately we didn't pull those off too well either!

The highlight of the year was killing Dakota in straight sets. Although we didn't do it when it counted, in the semi's we lost an extremely close and exciting game—3 sets to 2!! What a drag! We'll get our revenge next year!!

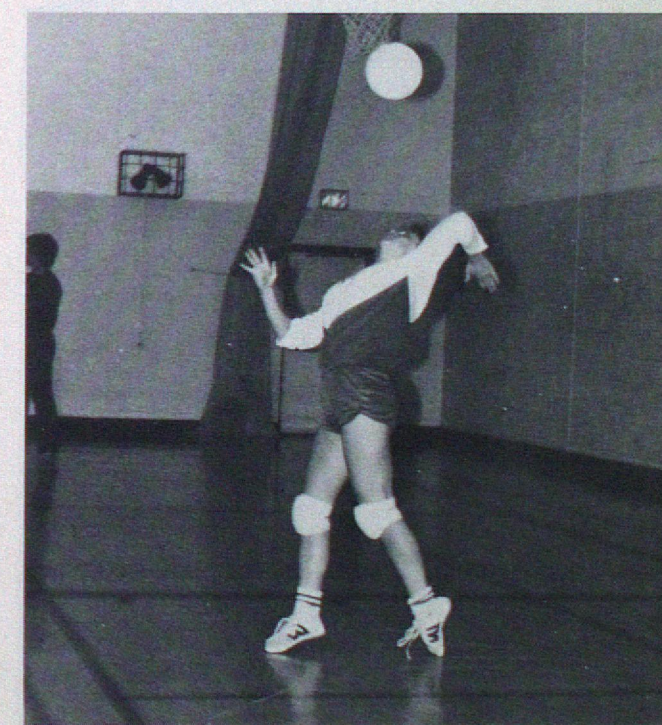

This year's team was:

—Colleen Starkell & Lori Ducharme.

VOLLEYBALL VARSITY GIRLS TEAM

When our roving reporter went down to ask the team what happened this season they told us "NOT MUCH".

VOLLEYBALL

Freshman Boys

This year's freshman volleyball team had an enjoyable year under the coaching of Mr. Baggly and Mr. McCormack. Through out the season the team was hot and cold but managed to win a good number of games. The team participated in many tournaments and did well in all.

—Glenn Klym

Varsity Boys Team

When asking Kurt Baldwin, team captain, what happened this season he said

Telescreen Stars

This years Reach for the Top team ran into a tough West Kildonan team bowing to them 325-305. Glenlawn was ably represented by Elan Levine, Kathy Magnusson, David Haroldson, and Andrew Kendle. The team put in an exceptionally strong performance that would have produced a happier result had they not played West Kildonan. The team put in the long hours necessary to achieve the excellence that is necessary to compete with the best schools in the province. Indeed in two warm up matches Glenlawn soundly beat a strong team from Daniel Mac.

The team would like to thank the alternate, Tony Rogge, and the coaches Mr. Moor, Mrs. Macri, Mr. Entz, Kelly Moran, and Scott Radley for their efforts on the team's behalf.

The Gathering of Parties Christmas—1984

December 17, 1984 was Glenlawn's first Christmas Dance in 5 years. It was a great success. With a turnout of close to 200, we even made money! Glenlawn celebrated the festive season to the great music of Roadshow Sound. A special thanks to all the staff and students who contributed to the successful event.

Joanne Quinton

Basketball Teams Freshman Girls

As maybe noticed from our win-loss record, this year's season wasn't as successful as we had anticipated. Although we did have a great time in Regina!! Our other tournaments included the one held at Glenlawn.

Great thanks to our coaches Diane Deman and Maurice but try as they might, they just couldn't whip us into shape!

Freshman Boys

Well, here it is, the MAGNIFICENT freshman boys basketball team! They were so busy making it to the Provincials that they found themselves unable to spare a few minutes of their time to have their picture taken. The few who managed to show up were . . .

No, we aren't Freshman Boys but we sure like to have our picture taken!

Varsity Girls

The Varsity girls' Basketball team of 1983/1984 enjoyed a successful season. It all began in December's Fort Richmond tournament, where Glenlawn managed to defeat would-be provincial champions Dakota. Throughout January and February, the team played well but struggled through an extremely difficult schedule. Their persistence paid great dividends come playoff time, however, as Glenlawn almost upset Vincent Massey in League Playdowns, and defeated Mennonite Brethren and Crocus Plains in the Provincial tournament. The girls beat Crocus on unforgettable last second long shots by Ryan Dixon and Cheryl Reid. Glenlawn finished as one of the top eight teams in Manitoba.

—Karen Hamilton

Unfortunately, no team shot was available.

Varsity Boys

The Glenlawn Lions finished the basketball season with a record of twelve losses and eight wins in twenty games. The team tied with Westgate for a third place finish in the Cloverleaf Conference. The highlight of the season was a trip to Brandon to compete in the Neelin Basketball Tournament.

The Lions were led throughout the season by veterans Bob Weir, who scored 467 points, and by guards Chris Keenan (228 points), Jim Campbell (56 points), and forwards Alan Mayberry (160 points), and Kurt Baldwin (146 points). Kevin McCallum and Kevin Svenson were juniors who should lead the team in 1984-1985.

Mr. Hazell from Laval School again coached the Lions in the past year. The team planned a game against Glenlawn alumni players from the previous five years to wind up the season. A team has also been formed to participate in the University of Winnipeg Spring League.

—Bob Weir

"Comrades" On Ice

The 1983/84 curling season was another successful year for Glenlawn Collegiate. The school placed second in the Cloverleaf High School Bonspiel.

During League play, the Grand Aggregate champion were: Paul Tardi, Paul Scharf, Jim Moore, and Renee Howden. The runners-up were: Richard Kawa, Craig White, Bruce Hamilton and Richard Kula.

Glenlawn Collegiate shared ice with Windsor Park Collegiate again this year and was victorious during the inter-school competition.

Glenlawn Chess Club completed a very successful chess year. Turnout was better than normal, largely due to a fine squad from St. George Junior High where Mr. Wright had been working with a group for a couple of years.

Thus, Glenlawn was able to start the season with more than the usual number of semi-skilled players. In consequence, play was stronger than it had been for years. The end result was a successful tournament, just terminated.

Standings were as follows:
School champion and winner of "The Golden Knight";

Gregg Arkos.
Runner-up—Scott Hitchens
Number Three—Nick Caia

Russ Maley—Instructor

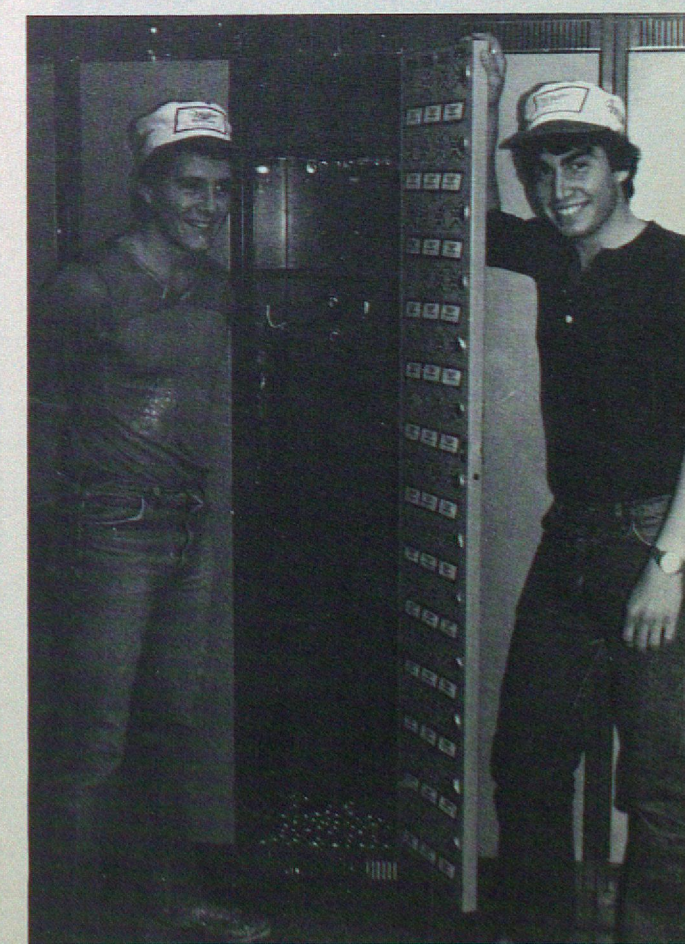

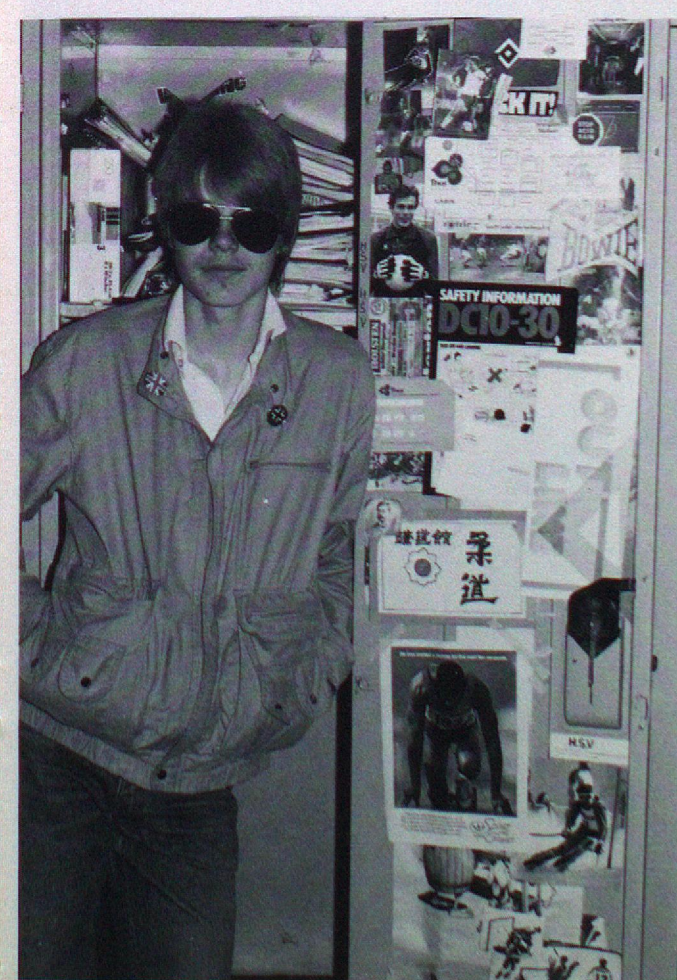

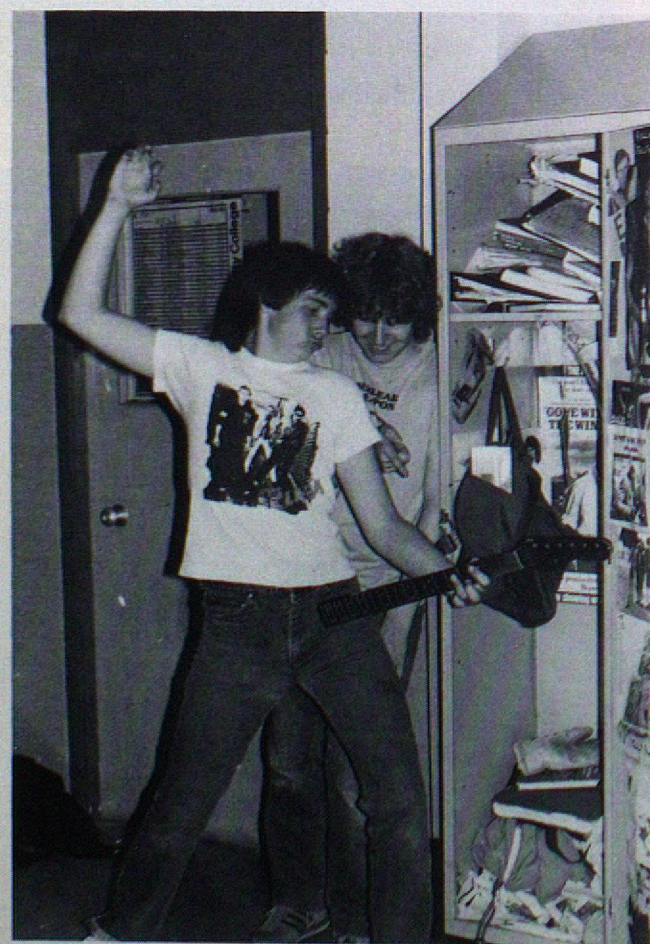

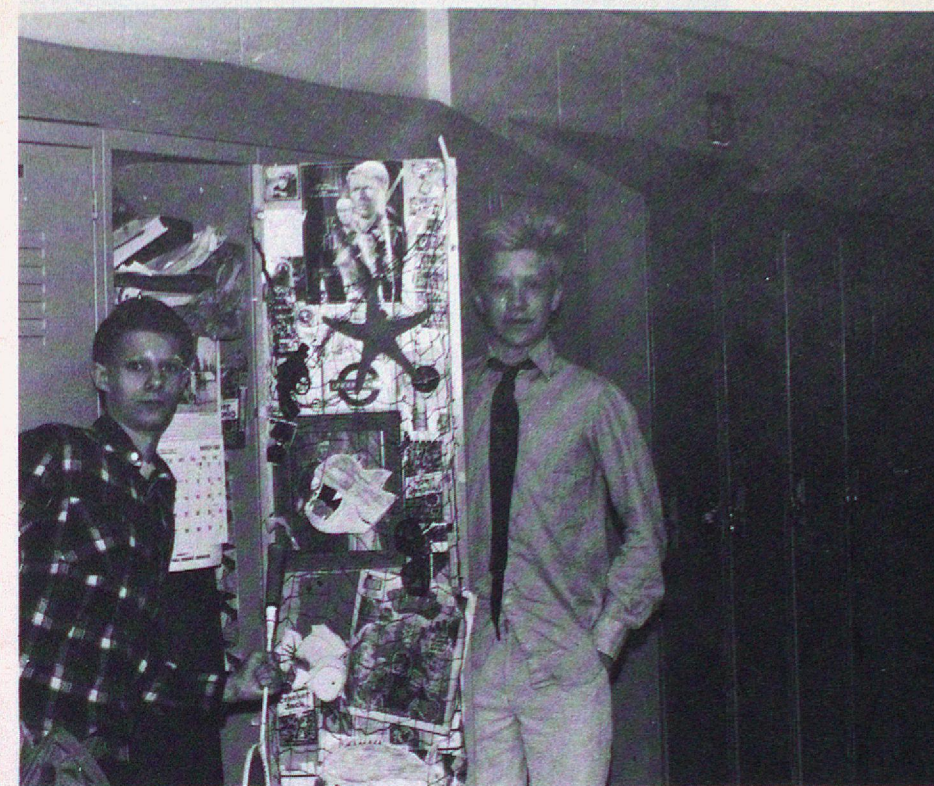

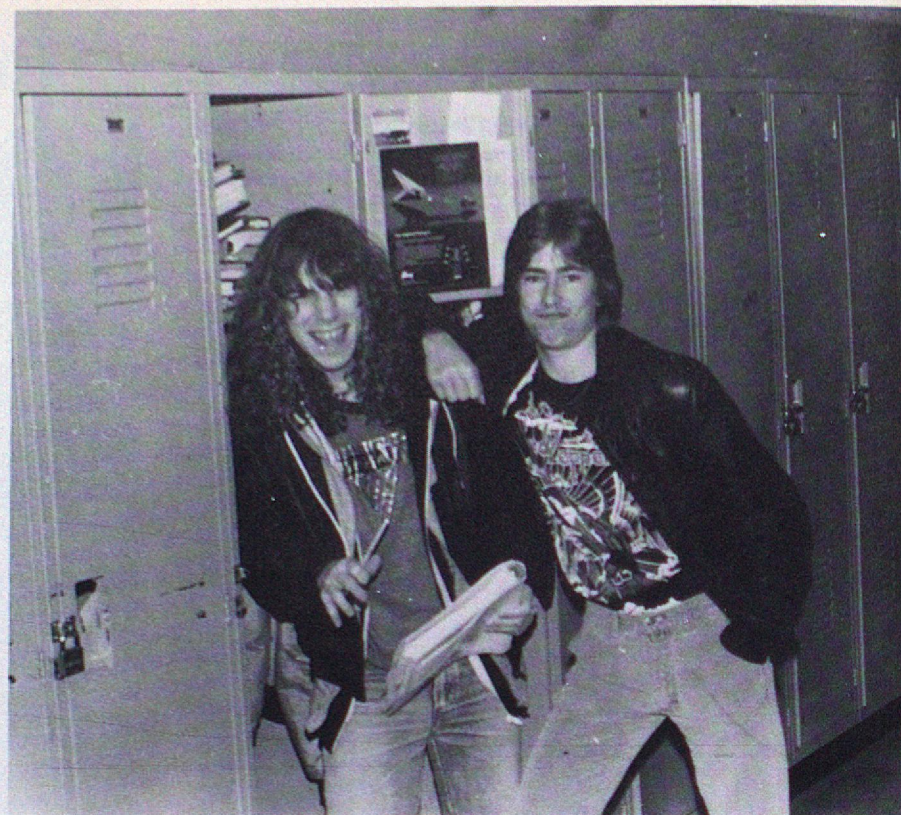

This year's Glenlawn managed to have only one ski outing to Agassiz Ski Resort. There were a total of 48 students involved in the trip of which most were first timers who became last timers. Much to Mr. Kullman's surprise there were no major injuries. It should be noted that Mr. Kullman did NOT fall once during the entire day.

Anti-Hate Week

This year's PEP WEEK is said to have been "one of the best in year's!" The enthusiasm of all three grades led to stiff competition and a week of suspense. We must make special tribute to the grade 12 contestants with the great legs that led to a victory in the Hoo La contest, and also the Grade 11's for their outstanding cheer which took first prize and 1000 points. However, the Grade 10's struggled to the top with great enthusiasm and expertise. It was close all week with the Grade 10's coming out on top. Congratulations to everyone!

Final Standing: 10's . . . 1st
11's . . . 2nd
12's . . . 3rd

A Show of Talent

The 1984 Glenlawn Variety show was held on March 1 in the school Auditorium to a full house. The successful evening was the result of the combined talents of teachers and students to raise funds for the Art, Drama and Band programs.

Mrs. Quinton (Drama) came up with the idea of a fund-raiser in the form of a variety show, and Mr. Bruce the bandmaster prepared his jazz band for the evening. And the talent search was on!

It was an easy task because Glenlawn had many talented performers.

Brian Rougeau and Shawn Drysdale both played in rock bands with non-Glenlawn students.

Dayna Steer and Lisa Boychuk performed a dance routine to "Bad Boys" and Mrs. Nash's Jazzercise group performed two numbers.

Barb Hiebert, Mark Aptekmann, Brent Bailey, Paul Winslow and Kim Grieve all added their talents to the show.

Dean Gunharson, escape artist and Mrs. Quinton's former student, demonstrated his straight jacket escape; and the Drama group performed 2 mime pieces.

Mr. Keddie, Mr. Ruff, Mr. Kullman, Mr. Bruce and Ms. Erickson "shook it" beside Jennifer Unwin, Mary-Lynne Dymont, Sherry Snowden and Mark Aptekmann in a rendition of Rodney Dangerfield's "No Respect" who was played by Kent Jamieson.

The Moonlight Breakers wrapped up the evening with students Peter McKoy and Kensley Palmer, and friends amazing us with their moves!

Mrs. Quinton

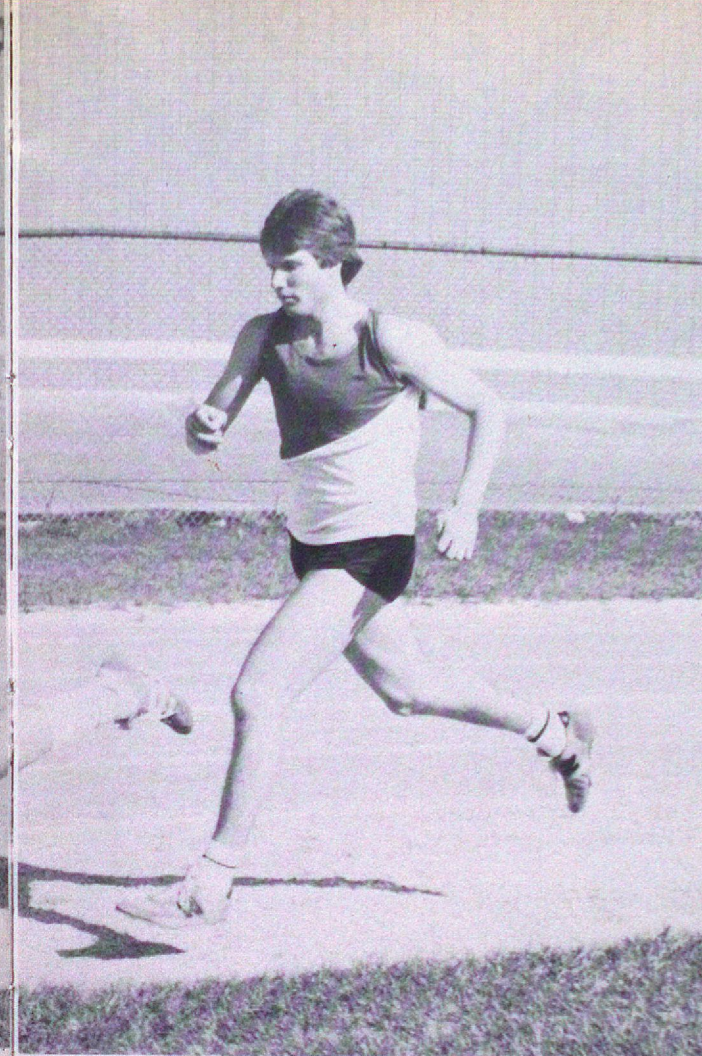

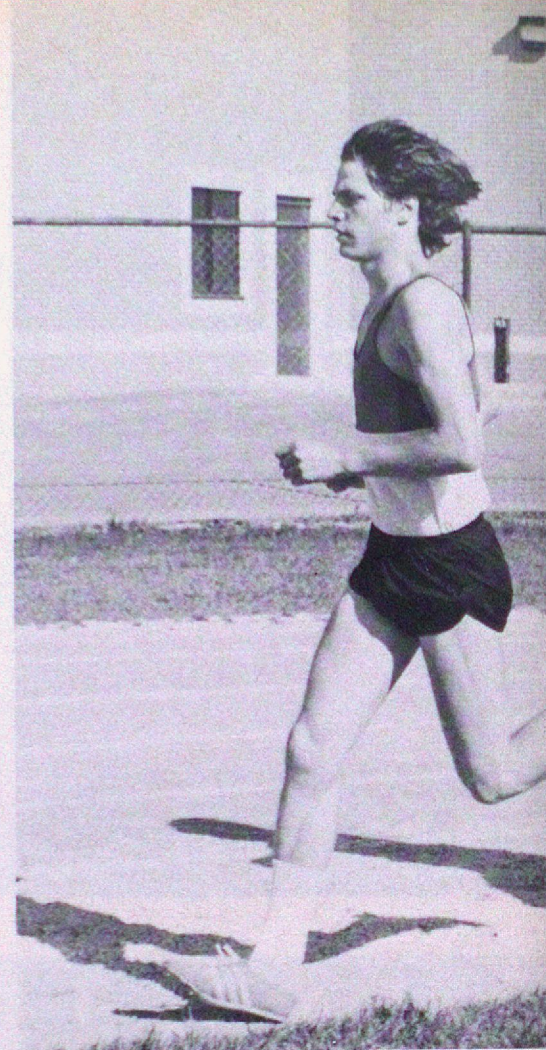

The Glenlawn Track Team had a super season this year. They competed in a number of indoor meets as well as outdoor meets.

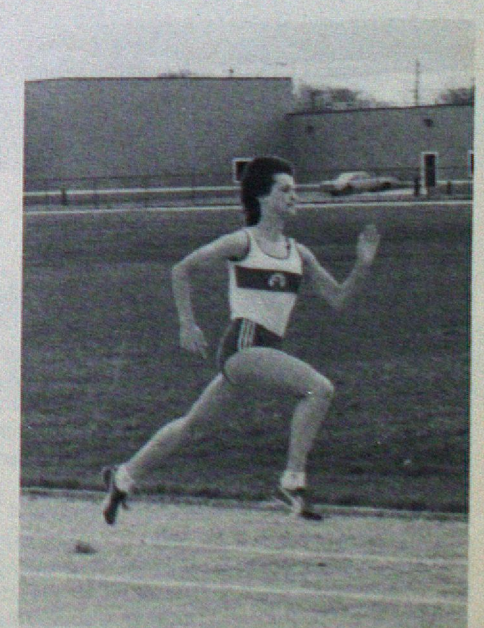

They participated in the Manitoba Indoor Games, Boeing Classic, Steinbach Indoor Games and Brandon Age Class Meet.

Outdoor season was a little disappointing since the University of Manitoba Pan Am track surface was not completed. The Cloverleaf had to be held at Memorial Park, but Glenlawn still proved to be tops as they once again were victorious in earning the Cloverleaf title. The Provincial "A" Meet was held at Grant Park Track. The Glenlawn track team did quite well considering the pouring rain and asphalt track surface!!

Geography Trips

Birds Hill Park (A Trek Into The Wilderness)

On October 4, 1983 Mr. Humphrey's Geo. 200 class and Mr. Kornberger's Geo. 201 class left for Birds Hill Park with 50 students to see if our skills learned in the classroom could bring us through a day of orienteering. (Actually it was to see if they could lose us and thereby have spares in their respective slots.)

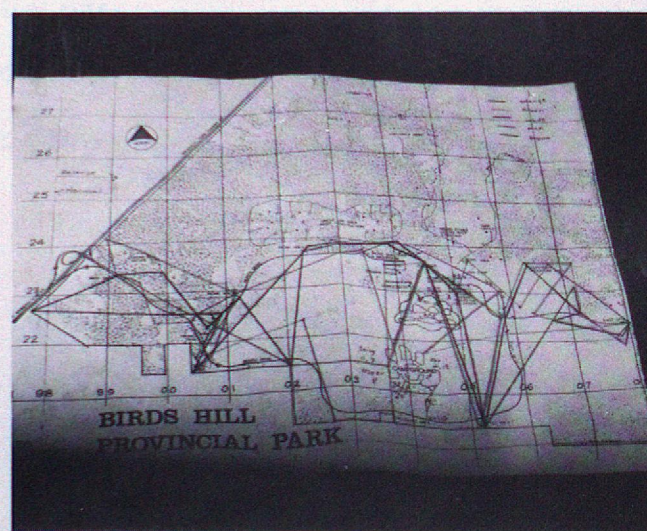

Ten different teams of 5 people each set out from the west gate, armed with only a compass, a map, a ruler, and a pen. We had to end up at the opposite gate.

The day we went, it was misty, rainy, and damp. The teachers drove around in their nice warm dry cars as we sweated walking, trudging through swamps and rough country. (Ah they tried, but they could not lose us.) We survived the trip despite a cougar running wild in the park, slashing rain, and certain things hanging from trees.

The first people to arrive at the finish were Matt Booth, Bob Zackarias, Don Beaton, Derek Griffiths and Kim Cumming.

The picture painted is probably one of hard labourious work. Well, it was, but it was also fun!

K.J. Cumming

Carberry Field Trip

The infamous Carberry field trip, once again took its toll on the unsuspecting geography 200 class. Fortunately, the wood ticks were not out in full force, although the sun was. Many a painful shoulder was heard the next morning. As numerous yelps and screams were emitted from unwary persons succumbing to the sadistic punches of their fellow classmates.

—Tony Rogge

Glenlawn girls soccer team placed second in their pool this year. They were defeated by Fort Richmond in the semi-final game. Next year the girls will be even more "BRUTAL". A big thanks to Shannon Sinko for coaching. The team members were as follows: Judy Allen, Michele Banks, Bonnie Chorley, Wendy Chura, Sharon Dare, Lillian Duech, Donna Dorsett, Diane Gillespie, Monique Hendricken, Claudette Langlois, Susan Mattson, Diane McArdle, Angie Murray, and Carey Vandeboncoeur.

—Bonnie Chorley

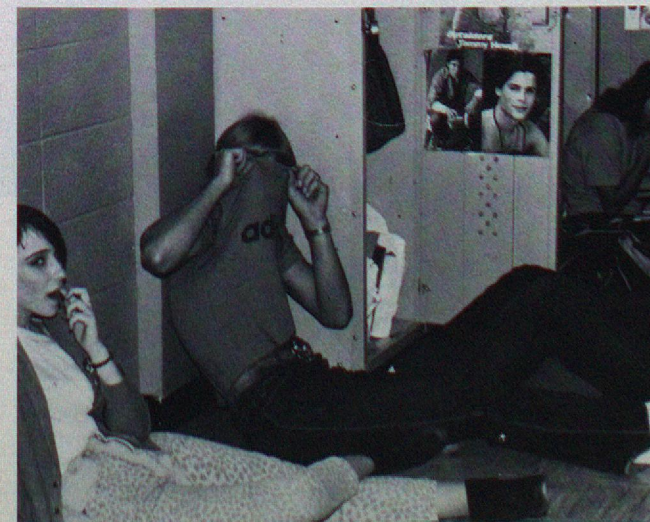

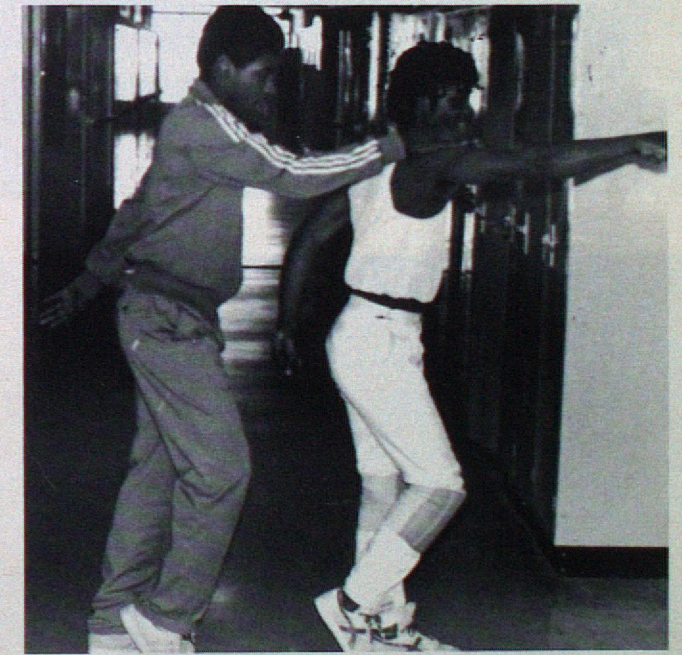

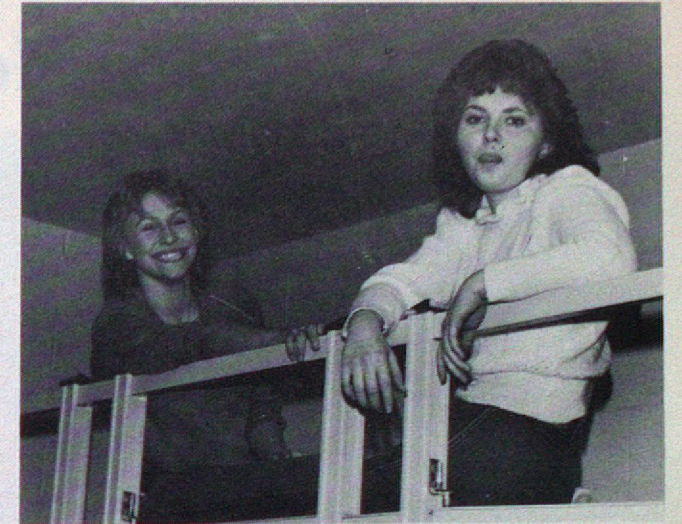

Although, Glenlawn itself did not officially sport a team. The Windsor Juveniles was almost entirely, comprised of Glenlawn athletes. Special thanks to Mr. Heinisch, and Mr. Entz for their attempt at putting together a Glenlawn team. The players included:

Goalie: Bryan Beckett
Fullbacks: Mike Clairmont, Geoff Batzel, Marc Berard, Andrew Kendle
Midfield: Aaron Carriere, Frank Stockle, Tony Rogge
Forwards: David Berthiaume, Greg Faraci, Lindsey Forsyth, Ron Haiko, John Loseics, George Rozak.

—Tony Rogge

Baseball and Stuff

Gosh, you're right this isn't the Boys Baseball Team either. Well guys maybe if you had won a game we might have got some shots.

East Meets West

This year twenty-seven students from Mrs. Svienson's 100 and 200 French classes went on exchange to Jonquiere, Quebec. Glenlawn exchanged with a technical vocational school called Poly-Valente Arvida.

When we met our billets at the airport there were looks of apprehension on their faces as they wondered if they were going to have a good time. These looks soon disappeared as the trips engineered by Mrs. Hyde and Mrs. Svienson started. The trips included the Museum of Man and Nature, the Planetarium, the Parliament buildings, and a Hutterite colony at Elie organized by Mr. Entz. The week ended all too soon. We parted friends despite some of the communication problems.

A week later Glenlawn arrived at the airport at Baggotville near Jonquiere. The French students were happy to see us and eager to show us their city. We saw a pulp and paper mill, a power station, and took part in two rallies. The biggest thrill of all was the trip to Quebec City. Our hosts organized a farewell dinner for us. Soon it was over and it was time to leave for home. There were tearful good-byes made at the airport. The exchange was a very interesting experience for everyone and many friends were made.

Lights, Curtain, Action . . .

The joy of drama can only be experienced by those with artistic talents and those with severe psychological problems. As a drama student, with no artistic talents, I will try to share the experience of a drama production. Its fears, its hopes, its legal complications.

It starts with the rehearsals that go way into the twilight hours. Acts of ritual suicide are a usual if not welcome sight, as is the sight of a student peering through the door and saying "Dang!! This isn't regular school activities. It must have something to do with socialism!"

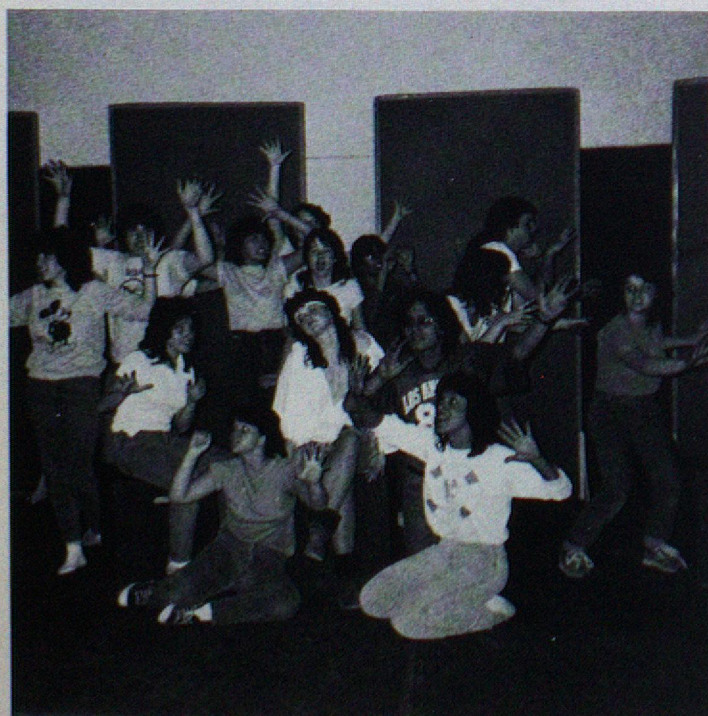

When the performance rolls around fear becomes your best friend, you can trust no one, only the script itself. You forget about Geography tests and become paranoid to the point of seeing Mr. Humphrey in your back yard . . . Camping. D-Day was never like this.

As the lights dim and the audience settle down with their six pack of 'Blue', you get a warm feeling and you realize that you don't always have full bladder control. With brave steps you bounce on stage and do what most guest stars on the Love Boat fear. Yes, you act.

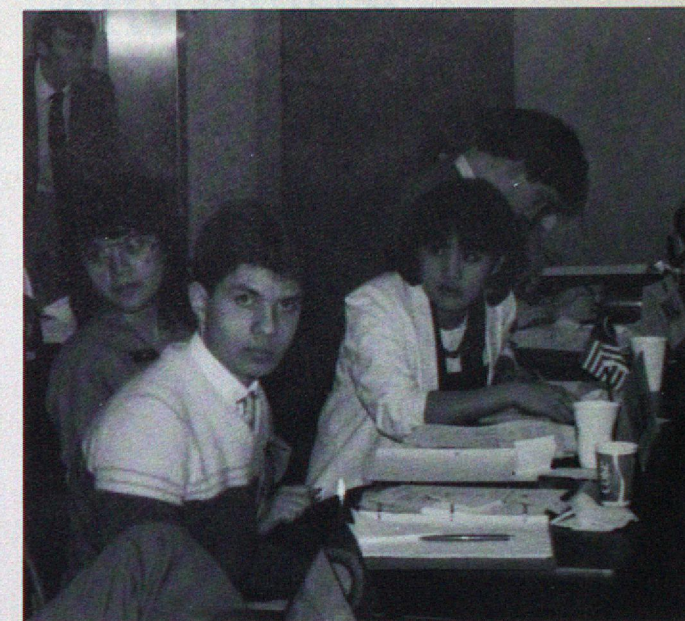

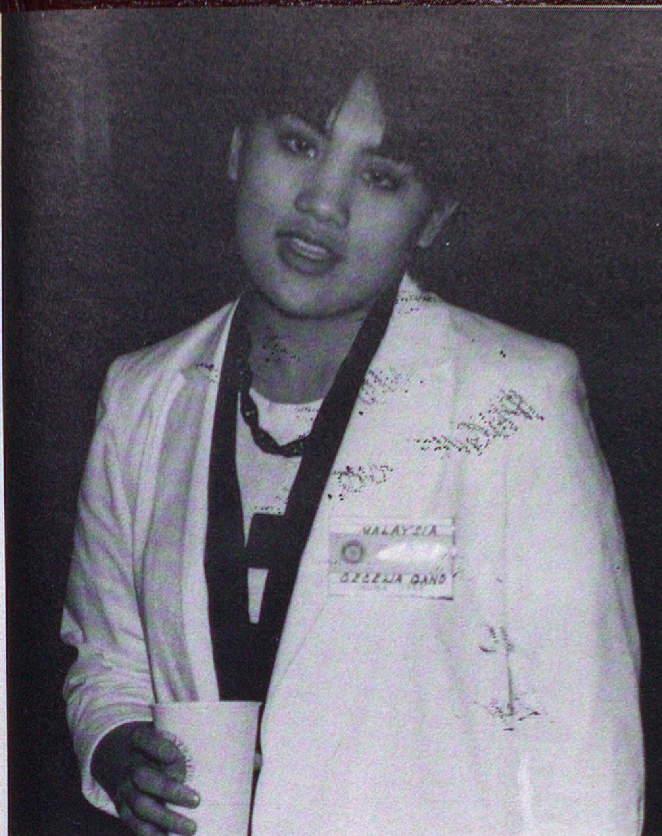

As the smoke clears and the dead are carried away, you hear the applause and realize that you are at last accepted by your community, and they no longer fear that you will molest their daughters.

You can always spot a drama student, for they are dreaming of Statford Festival, of doing King Lear, Hamlet and a great sex scene with Debra Winger. But in all seriousness, I'd like to thank the students of Glenlawn for putting up with us and the staff for keeping us in line. Without your support we'd probably be stealing cars and listening to Ted Nugent.

—Rob McLaughlin

MUNA

Five of us, Dale Schwartz, Jason Braun, Ken Nord, Doris Tay, Cecelia Gano, participated in the Model United Nations Assembly (MUNA). This year we did research on two countries: Belgium and Malaysia. The research included: writing letters, finding out the history of the countries and then finding out their positions on international issues. The issues that were debated this year were: the Invasion of Grenada, the New International Economic Order. We also proclaimed 1985 the Year of the Youth.

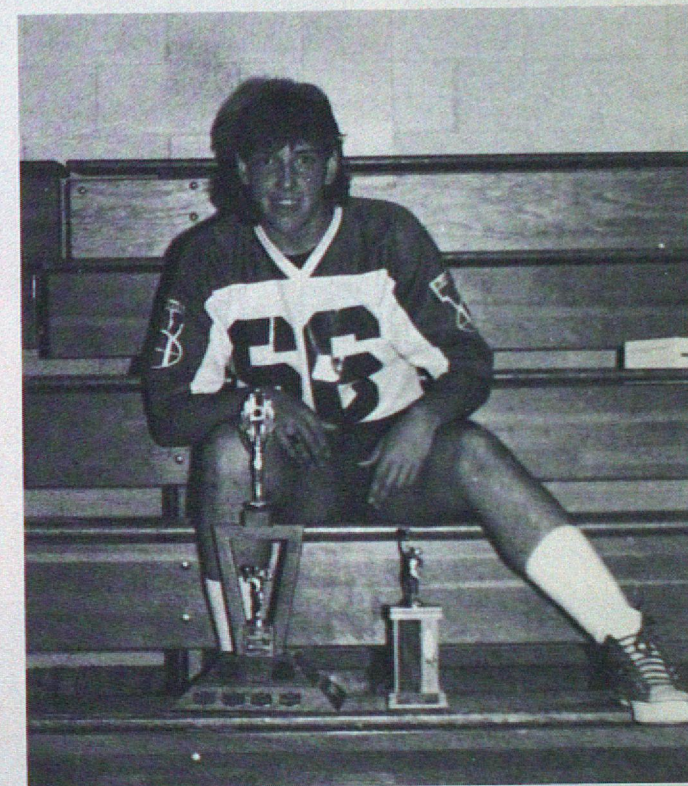

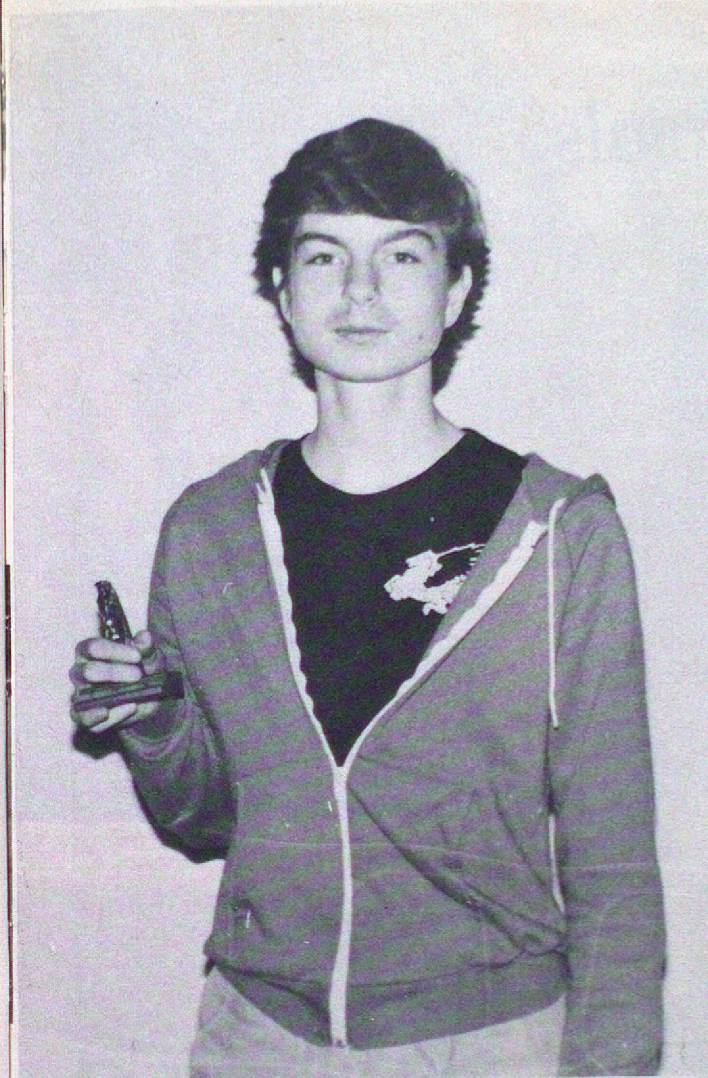

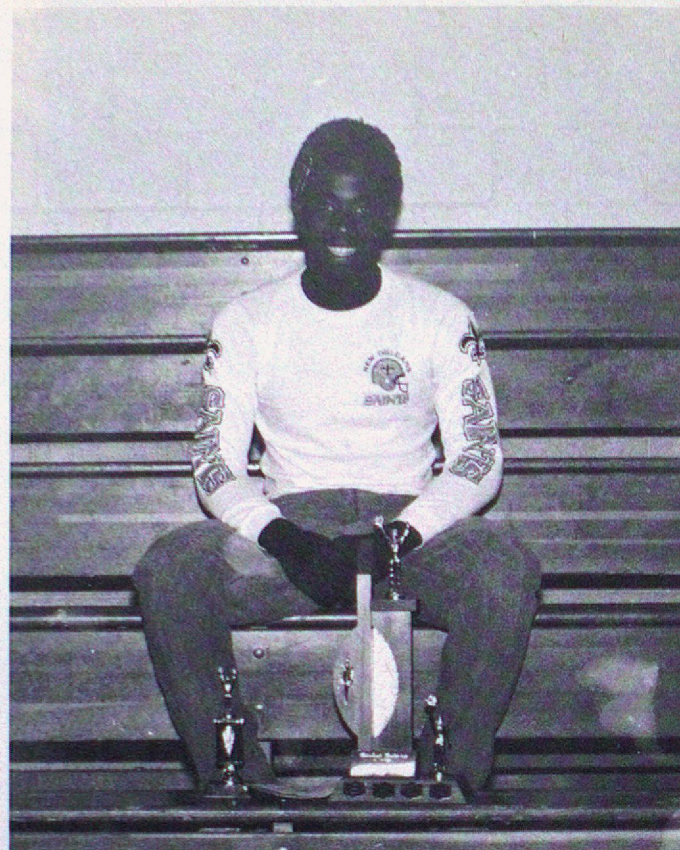

The two day debate took place at the Convention Center. There we heard speeches and held bloc meetings. Belgium was part of the Western bloc, Malaysia was part of the Asian bloc. There we had to decide our bloc's position on the resolutions and we submitted them to the General Assembly the next day. We spent this day debating the three resolutions.

That night we had a banquet of all the students that participated. This included students from Saskatchewan, North Dakota, Minnesota and all over Manitoba. Our special thanks goes out to Mr. Keddie and Mr. Wieler for their counseling and much appreciated advice. Also our thanks to Mrs. Hyde for helping us with resource material.

Dale Schwartz

Awarding the Athletes

During the past three years of the "Ruff Regime" the intense focus on athletics in Glenlawn has become more and more evident. This increased emphasis on athletics has lead to city wide recognition of Glenlawn's athletes. On June 13 the Administration rewarded these athlete's determination and dedication with a series of sports awards.

Recipients included: Kim Grieve, Kevin McCallum, Jason Braun, Bob Wier, Bunny Julius, Dayna Steer, Kensly Palmer, Lisa Viau, Dianne Gillespie, Andrea Capeck, Karen Hamilton, and Aaron Carriere.

Our Elected Officials

- Throughout the year students have worked hard and have had many accomplishments:
- Glenlawn had their first successful school dance since 1978
  - Fundraising for Jocelyn House
  - Actor's Showcase
  - Freedom Jam
  - Successful Pep Week

This year's students worked very well together as a team. Everyone pitched in to get things done and we had a lot of fun doing so.

A special thanks to Mr. Keddie and Mr. Ruff who have been very helpful to us throughout the year.

The Student Council wishes best of luck to this year's graduates, next year's graduates and incoming freshmen.

—JoAnne Quinton

The Rewrite Squad and Planning Committee

After spending three years on the Glenlawn Photo Club/Yearbook staff, I take great pride in 1984—The Book. The success of this years book should be credited to our fearless leader Megan McMillan whose stubbornness and determination enabled her to start work on the yearbook in late February (one of the latest starts ever) and finish by July 1 (one of the earliest finishes ever). In addition to her hard work Megan managed to surround herself with a more than capable staff. A staff that spent so much time with one another that we slowly became so much like a family that we called our main staff advisor Mr. Sakiyama—"DAD". Other family members were: Mr. Kullman, Alice and Doris Tay, Jess Dixon, Tony Rogge, Cherie Unsunier, Jason Braun, Pat Kelly, Kathy Magnusson, Kelly Haripik, Jan Miller, Barb Schneider and Kim Grieve (Advertising editor).

President's Message

It is really rewarding to be president of the Student Council when you are able to be part of such successful events in your school such as: the first dance in approximately six years, Pep Week, the Variety Show, and Fundraising for Jocelyn house.

I really appreciated the help from fellow student council members, teachers and of course-participation from Glenlawn students themselves. All of you made these events a success.

A special "thank you" is extended to Mr. Keddle and Mr. Ruff for their guidance and patience! I hope that Glenlawn Students felt we did a good job but, there is always room for improvement so, good luck to the "president to be!"

After attending Glenlawn Collegiate for three years you feel very close to the students especially the grads all of whom I wish the best and will miss.

In ending I would just like to wish the best to next years grade 12's, 11's, and newly arriving freshmen.

Have a great year!

—Dayna Steer

Editor's Message

11:58 pm, July 1, 1984

—choke, choke, sputter, sputter—GASP!!!!

The final page of the yearbook is DONE! over the past 5 months this day has seemed even more distant than the day I decide to wear a lime green stretch polyester pantsuit (thank God this came first).

Firstly, 12 very very important folks devoted most of their exemption week and most of their lives to making this yearbook. Thanks ALOT guys, I couldn't have done it without you! (wondering who those 12 were?—check page 54). There were also many students and staff who did many small but major tasks for us, you know who you are and I hope you know you are greatly appreciated.

Secondly, I have to thank Mr. Kullman and Mr. Sakiyama, who fearlessly and rather insanely took up the task of supervising the production of 1984—The Book. What would I have done without Mr. Sakiyama's persistent reminders that "Now Meg remember, this isn't an underground newspaper". Thanks Dad, you've restored my faith in mankind.

Thirdly, Elanikins Levine deserves to have her portrait hung beside V.O.'s in the hallway for all the yearbook work she has semi-stoically done for the past three years.

And with this last paragraph, like a good idealistic self-righteous youth, I could write all my cynical little social comments on the state of society. I could complain about the horrors of Nuclear War, of even worse Capitalism. I could tear apart this next generation of "upwardly mobile Junior Executives" (which ugh! I guess I am a member of). But instead I would rather wish all of the Grads of '84 the best of luck for "our" future. You guys are really terrific people may you always keep your youth and vitality. Have a nice life and try not to grow up to be boring old yuppies!

—Megan McMillan

Special People

Not all of Glenlawn's students led everyday suburban lifestyles. Three such students were Andrea Capeck, a page in the Provincial Legislature, Michele Banks and Lelia Skik, both were exchange students with AFS.

Andrea seemed to always be missing from her classes to go to run errands, deliver messages and pour coffee for our overworked M.L.A.'s. When Andrea was asked what she learn't from this experience, she replied "Well I learn't that all Conservatives are Capitalists, out to only benefit themselves and don't care about anyone else except themselves." She was kidding . . . I think.

Both Lelia and Michele had written a few words about their experiences as exchanges students. But unfortunately a few mishaps and crises have prevented their essays from being submitted.

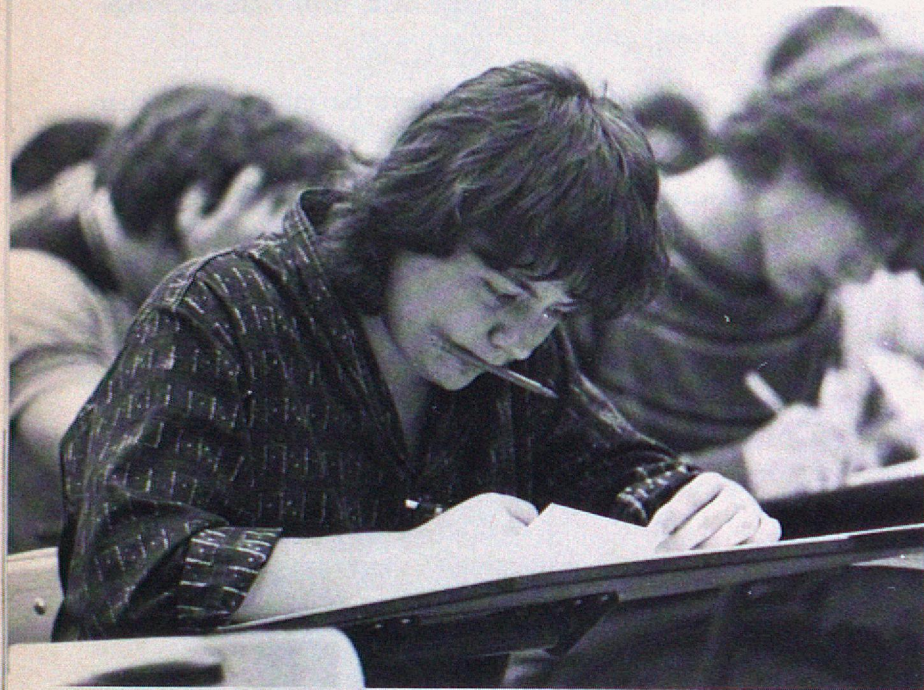

Lelia Skik, a Tunisian native came to Winnipeg in the middle of January to face the frostbite, a far cry from the Desert sands of North Africa. Lelia was infamous for missing Mr. Humprey's Geo. 300. She added alot of exotic color and charm to the hallways of Glenlawn.

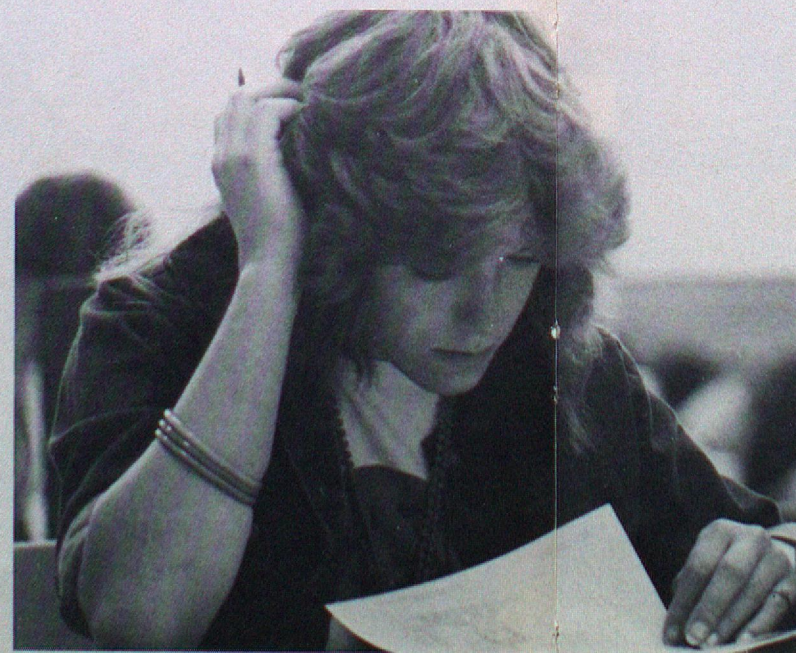

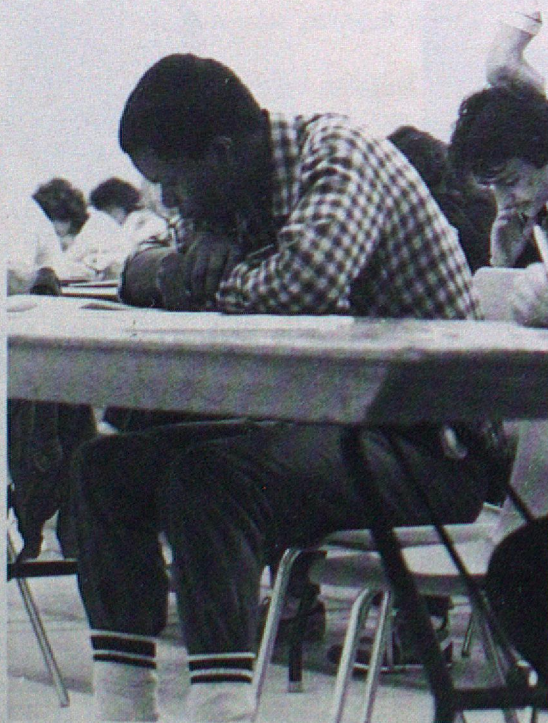

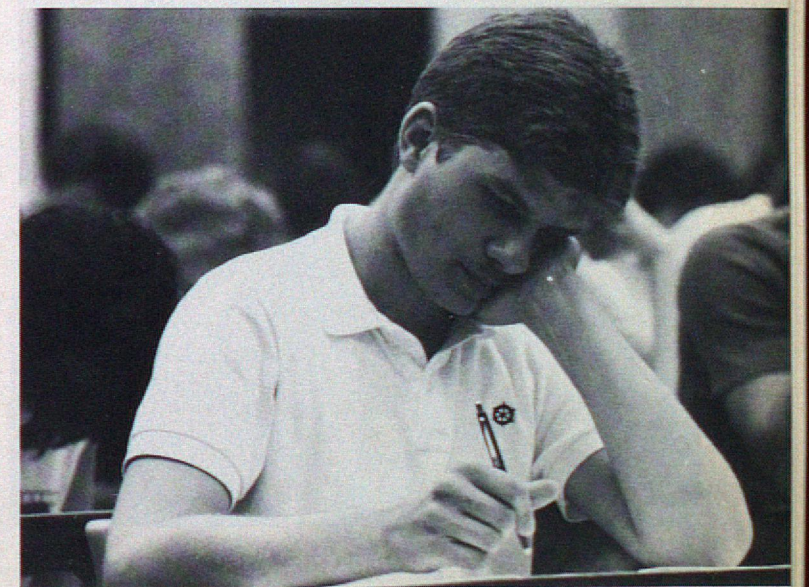

Michelle Banks "came from the land down under where women glow and men plunder". She raised a few eyebrows when she called an eraser a rubber. She was actively involved in many school activities. She returned to Australia on the last day of school and will be missed by her many friends which she acquired during her year in Canada.

Cram, Cram, Cram

Braving the bone-drenching rainstorms, ear-splitting thunder, blinding lightning, and hot muggy weather, these conscientious students waded through the school grounds to sit and cry, plead, scream, moan, and rip hair through Exam Week.

The Class of '84

Over 120 Grade 12 students received their High School Diplomas on a hot June 29, 1984. As well as receiving their diplomas, the graduates with outstanding academic achievements were awarded with scholarships and awards.

The majority of the awards were split between Kathy Magnusson and Elan Levine. Elan won the coveted Governor General's Medal. Dayna Steer gave the Valedictory Address which is sure to be remembered by many. Barb Heibert displayed her incredible talents with a very special piece of music.

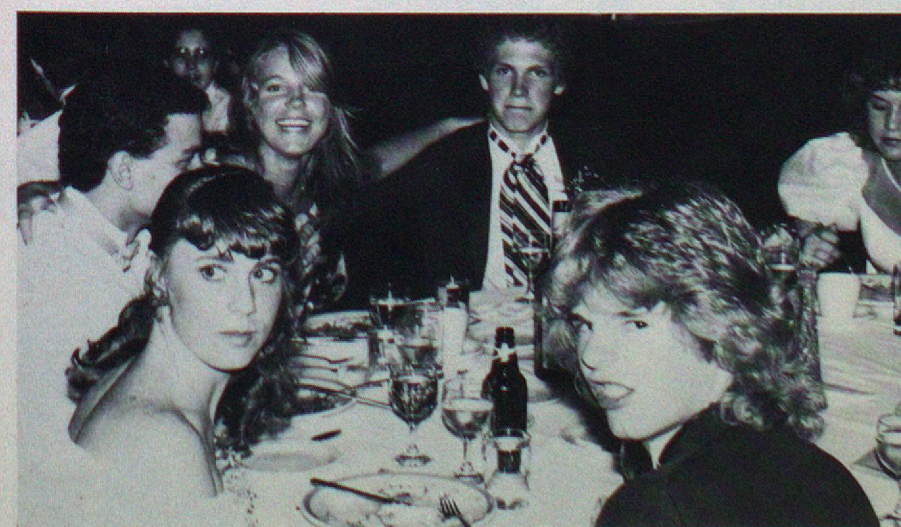

Many of the graduates were surprised at Mr. Keddie's odd (read: warped and twisted) adaptations of their ambitions for their futures.

GRAD

The Faces of 1984

On June 25, 1984 the Limousines were in full force escorting Glenlawn's Grads to their dinner and dance at the Marlborough Inn. Nothing but compliments were heard for Mr. Humphrey and Kim Grieve who worked so hard to make this years grad successful. Rob Mrygold was the Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Debbie Hazel opened the meal by saying Grace and Michelle Banks closed the meal with the greatly appreciated Toast to the Queen. Dayna Steer gave the Student Council Remarks while Kim Grieve toasted the teachers. 1984 was another chapter in the long honored tradition of "Mr. Keddies Toast to the Graduates." No one will forget that evening where both the students and staff donned their ball gowns and tuxedos to let their hair down and PARTY!!

Somebody please tell that person behind me that she has bad breath.

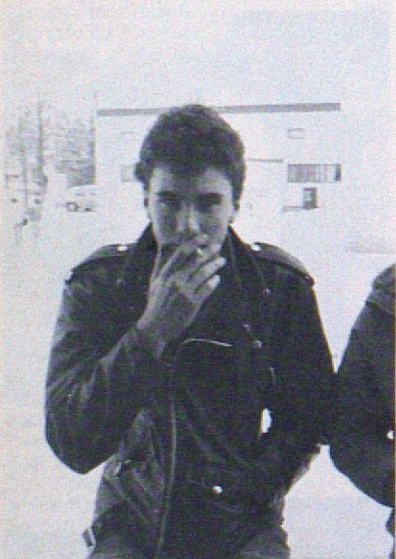

This is the last time I'll ever get roped into some stupid contest.

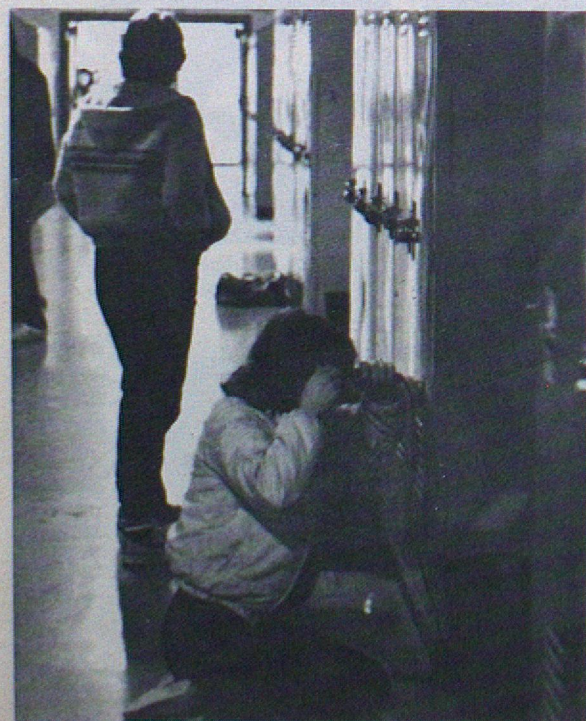

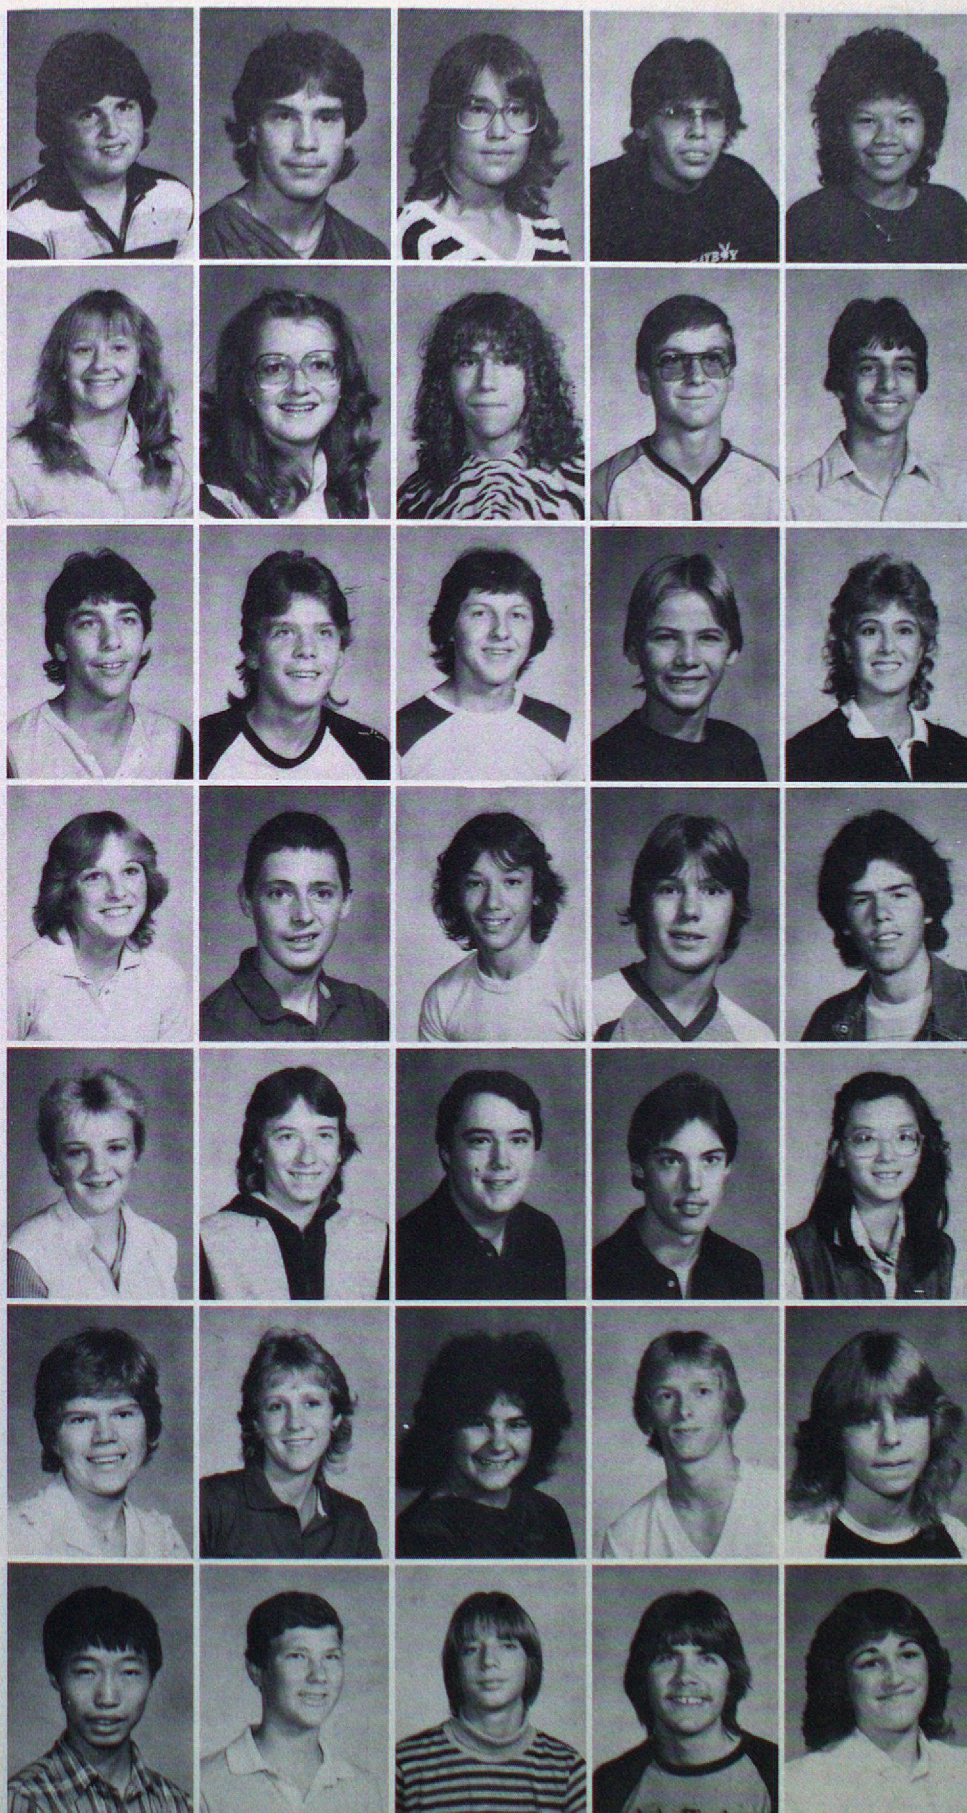

Would somebody please tell Michael not to remove his shoes in class?

Yeah, I know it's a candy cigarette—but it looks.

MESSAGE FROM THE “PLANNING COMMITTEE AND REWRITE SQUAD”:

Hey all you missing faces!
Where were you on picture day?
Even though we've missed your “mug shots” in 1984—The Book, we haven't forgotten you. All of you have been mentioned here in our special missing persons list. We also apologize to those of you whose names have been misspelled or who are missing a grad caption, you are obviously so unique you are undescribable.

'84 in Review

- Pierre (the Trudeau) finally stepped down.
- Maggie (the ex-Trudeau) got herself pregnant and remarried.
- Micheal (megabucks) Jackson "beat" his way into the hearts and pocketbooks of millions of pre-teenage girls.
- Jason Braun beame the "Suns" Athlete of the week.
- Vans and Vurnets
- Bowie, Judas Priest, Van H alen and the Exploited all ventured to the wilds of Winnipeg.
- Pierre (the Trudeau) marched for peace in Europe while Ronnie (the Reagan) flew cruise missiles over northern Alberta.
- Ed Schreyer went to Australia while Jeanne Sauve became the first female Governor General.
- We all missed the partial eclipse of the sun (the non-event of the year)
- The government desperately tried to bilingualize us.
- The compressor broke down —ie— we cooked in June.
- 'Flashdance' and 'Footloose' were in, Cellulite was out.
- USSR and friends boycott the Los Angeles Summer Olympics.
- In June basements became swimming pools.
- The Stanley Cup was won by the Edmonton Oilers.
- Glenlawn acquired the highest per capita number of black leather jackets in all of Winnipeg.
- 'Ghost Busters', 'Terms of Endearment', 'Police Academy', 'The Big Chill', 'The Temple of Doom' . . .
- Cabbage Patch Kids.
- 260 U.S. Marines died in Beirut.
- Mr. T.
- Everybody made videos
- Glenlawn saw the advent of numerous hallway musicians.
- The warmest and slushiest winter ever.
- Boy George shocked the matrons of Ameica, not to mention the Macho guys of Winnipeg.
- Yuri Andropov died.
- Oil tankers in the Persian Gulf were bombed.
- The Russians shot down Korean airline 007
- The Glenlawn Yearbook staff actually met its final deadline!
