A Note from the Editors.....

The 1997-98 school year celebrated Glenlawn's 75th year of existence which was marked by some incredible events. The death of Princess Diana caused world-wide grief and awareness like we had never seen before. The movie "Titanic" became the highest-grossing movie of all time, and continued to play to sold-out theatres four months after it first opened. In the U.S., children were killed by other children who carried guns to school, shocking and terrifying people the world over. These events changed the way we look at the world, and became, in small ways, influential in the way we think.

Thankfully, Glenlawn is a place where we can all feel safe without the added security of metal detectors and surveillance cameras. Once again, our school and its remarkable spirit roared on again. After many wins and losses, great performances, long tiring practises, awesome projects, late nights working on English essays, and 7-Eleven runs, what we've done has become who we are. The picture of Glenlawn is made up of these Pieces of Us.

ADMINISTRATION

Seventy-five years ago, in 1922, the first St. Vital high school opened at Norberry School, with the pioneer grade XI class of 1924 numbering five graduates. In January 1950, students and teachers packed their classrooms and moved to the present site of Glenlawn Collegiate. Forty-eight years and five building additions later, we find ourselves, one thousand strong, in a fine educational facility celebrating its seventy-fifth anniversary. A place where students challenge themselves academically, athletically, aesthetically, or on a job site. Where 200 students earn a place on the honour roll, where teams compete at the provincial level and where performances fill the theatre to capacity and bring national acclaim. Glenlawn students provide important leadership in planning fundamental changes such as the Advocate system, enrichment opportunities such as the student conference, or social events such as spirit week and the graduation dinner and dance.

Glenlawn is also a place of many personal accomplishments and we want to congratulate each of you on your accomplishments this year -- we are very proud of you!! We have enjoyed the privilege of watching you grow and of learning important lessons through working with you.

We wish each of you well in future endeavours, whether at Glenlawn or beyond, and are confident that the "Glenlawn Advantage" will continue to benefit our graduates.

CLASSES

CURLING

Glenlawn's Curling Club had a very active 1997-98 season with thirty-six students participating in a league with students from Dakota and College Jean Sauve. Congratulations to Michelle Schoemperlen, Lindsay Sweers, Yvonne Van Den Bosch and Stephanie Pedrick who won the grand aggregate for Glenlawn. The "B" group winners for the league were Scott Boyd, Wade Biegun, Chris Wiebe and Greg Hamilton.

All members of the Curling Club enjoyed a season full of good curling and good friendship.

Mr. K. Love

Boo at the Zoo

As "Monster Mash", "Stayin' Alive", "Disco Inferno" and many other spooky songs echoed throughout Assiniboine Park Zoo from October 20th-30th, Glenlawn's students were entertaining up to 6000 people a night! The event was "Boo at the Zoo", with sites organized by Glenlawn students, including the Great Pumpkin Patch, the Addams Family, the Pirate Ship, the Freak Show, and the Wolfman Disco. With the help of student volunteers, who were not working towards Leadership hours, they were able to impress everyone in attendance. The students maintained the Halloween spirit and enthusiasm while they nearly froze from working outdoors for four and a half hours each night. Although Glenlawn's effort may not have been appreciated by the animals at the Zoo, it was definitely appreciated by the Zoo staff and audience of anxious trick-or-treaters.

STREET SCENE

A record number of theatre production students turned up to audition for this year's drama production "Street Scene" by Elmer Rice. Forty-five were cast and twenty-five students worked on the production crews.

Audiences were impressed by the three story apartment block designed by Lyndsay Irvine, and built by Shawn St. Godard and the set crew. This was the most ambitious set ever attempted by our Fine Arts department.

The actors were also very impressive. Despite many challenging roles, all the cast members delivered high-quality performances.

A sincere thank-you goes out to all the volunteers who contributed their time and talent.

The Junior Varsity girls volleyball team had a tough season, coming against strong competition in the Cloverleaf. The squad was victorious over College Jeanne Sauve in the quarter-finals, but lost to the Fort Richmond Centurions in the semi-finals. Although there were not always a lot of checks in the "win" column, each member of the team walked away having learned a great deal about themselves and about the game. The girls should be commended for their sportsmanship, commitment and their hard work.

The Junior Varsity boys volleyball team had a successful three month season. They placed first in the Cloverleaf conference, second in the Maples and Glenlawn tournaments and third in the Dakota tournament. Losing to Kelvin in the quarter-finals, the team placed in the top eight at the Provincials.

Special congratulations to Colin Wood who was named an All Star in the University of Manitoba tournament.

The Varsity girls volleyball team had a great year. They placed 5th in the U of W, Seven Oaks, and St. Vital tournaments and 4th in the U of M tournament. After losing the Cloverleaf championship 8-2 to Jean Sauve, the girls fought hard to almost knock off the #2 ranked team in the province, losing the final set 16-14. Of all the Cloverleaf teams Glenlawn ranked the highest in the Provincials -- 6th! Thanks to all the players, managers, and assistant coaches for a great year.

The 1997-98 school year saw a great start for the Varsity boys, as they repeated as tournament champions at the Seven Oaks tournament. After a brief stint at the #1 ranking, the boys stayed around #6 for most of the year and maintained that for the Provincial Tournament. Injury and illness contributed to a first round exit from the Provincials. The highlight of the season was winning the tournament in Lacombe, Alberta where the team played their best volleyball of the season. Congratulations on a memorable year!

Encounters With Canada

Students from Glenlawn Collegiate experienced the great opportunity to be representatives for the Encounters with Canada program held in our Nation's capital. Students had the choice of participating in the various sub-themes of arts and culture, law, science and technology, sports, the RCMP, the world around us, and government. A few highlights of the trip were touring Parliament, visiting museums, and going to numerous cultural events. These students left Ottawa with many wonderful memories of the Canadian friends they met, they also brought back a greater appreciation for their country.

Junior Achievement is a non-profit organization that teaches students about the business world. This year Glenlawn was home to 4 individual businesses. Lasting Impressions produced embossed stationary and Cosmic Creations produced painted picture frames.

This year both companies successfully broke even and were able to return a dividend to their shareholders. Both companies would like to thank all the teachers, family and friends that helped support the program.

TOPS

Missing: Camille Cheng.

The TOPS (Teens Offering Peer Support) program seeks to increase students' "helping skills", and knowledge of common issues that affect young people. Students are taught to be sensitive listeners who use communication skills to facilitate the growth and development of their peers through self-exploration and decision making. They are also made aware of appropriate community resources that assist students.

BASKETBALL

The Junior Varsity girls basketball season was exciting. We got off to a slow start losing our first tournament and home games, but came alive throughout the season on and off the court. The girls always showed leadership, enthusiasm, and tremendous sportsmanship. The girls ended up securing a playoff spot in the Provincial Finals. They are an excellent bunch of girls. We will certainly miss them.

This year's Junior Varsity boys basketball team won the Cloverleaf Conference Championship. Congratulations on an excellent season and keep up the good work!

Missing: Megan Dizon, Coach Glor, Coach Mayette.

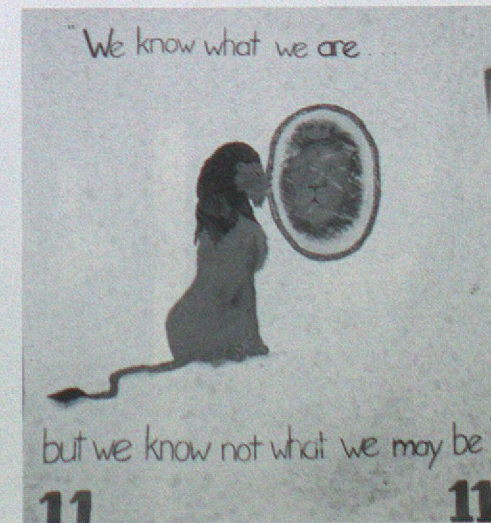

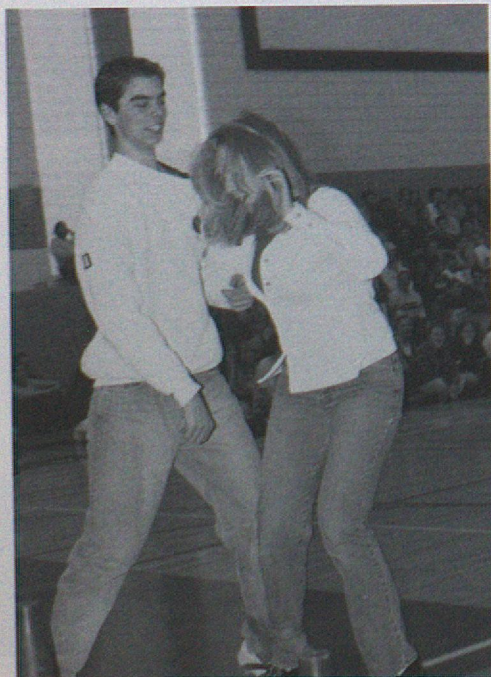

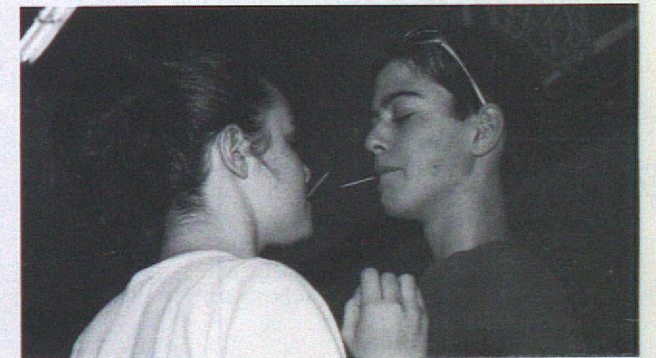

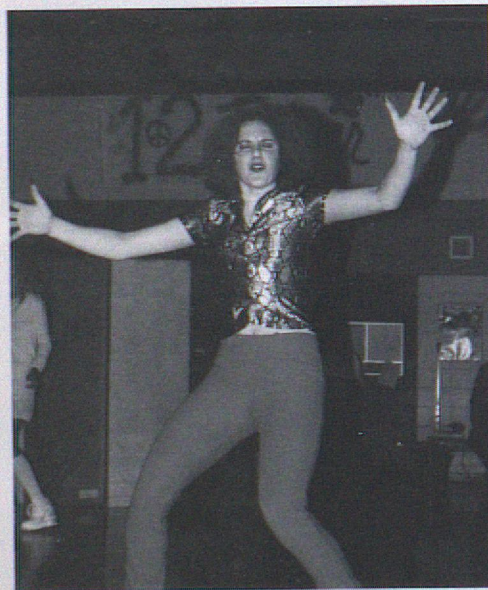

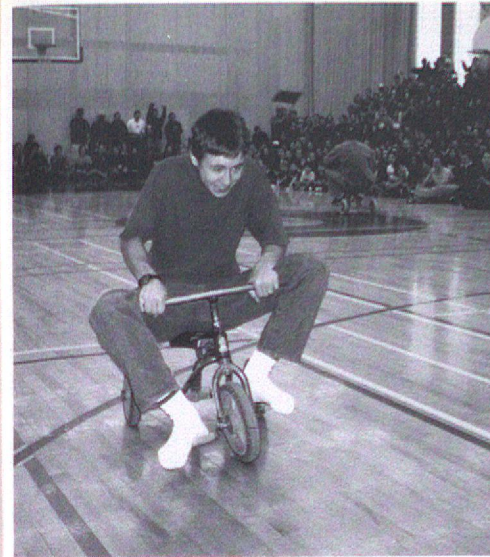

The Varsity girls team completed a terrific season by winning the Cloverleaf Conference championship, and becoming finalists in the 4A Provincial Tournament. The team finished with a 25-7 overall record, and captured tournaments at Steinbach and Brandon Vincent Massey. The girls played well, won many exciting games, and showed a spirit and skill that did them proud.

Missing: David Saltchuk (manager).

This year's Varsity boys team came in third at the Cloverleaf Conference. It's been a great season for both the coaches and the team.

SPIRIT WEEK

NUNSENSE

Nunsense II: The Second Coming:

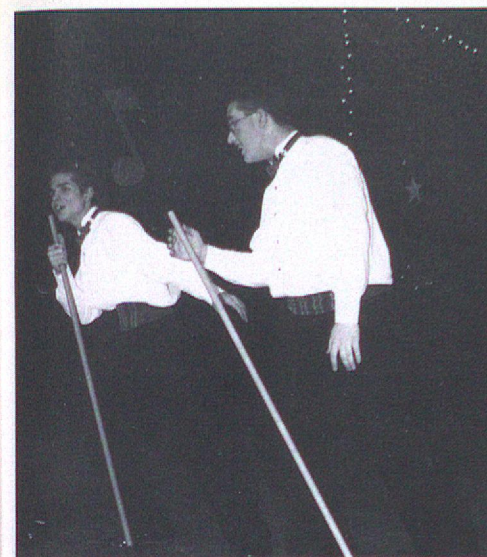

The separation of boys and women for this year's musical was, as far as the girls were concerned, a stroke of genius. The smaller cast made for more intensive rehearsals than in the past (as did the already busy schedule of the "Sisters").

Finally, with the help of St. Maria Kives and Sister Marilyn Redekop, the sisters overcame singing lessons, spontaneous splits, and even rugby practice to give a comically loveable and altogether heavenly performance.

Nunsense II's Cast:

 Sister Mary Leo: Ashley Sharpe
 Sister Felicia: Lisa Reimer

FOREVER PLAID

Forever Plaid:

This year Glenlawn tried something different with musical theatre. Instead of the usual one-show production, Mrs. Redekop decided to take on two separate productions. Under the skillful direction of Marilyn Redekop, Maria Kives, and the new student teacher Marty Cashin, eight well dressed plaid performers rose to the challenge of the musical Forever Plaid.

The performance, a very modern show and perhaps the most musically difficult in Glenlawn history, went on for three days and three nights. All of the performances were extremely well done, and received wonderful reviews from many audience members. A big heart felt thanks to all who helped in the production. Well done Plaids.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Third Row (L to R): Krystina Suderman, Patricia Dubeau, Lori Dyer, Andrea Sarmatiuk, Stephanie Swain, May-Ting Yee (secretary), Krista Hildebrand.
Missing: Ms. A. Penner (advisor), Kelly-Anne Zahynacz, Shannon Pruden, Robert Mulder, Lisa Allan, Leigh Enns, Regan Harden, Ashley Roch.

From opening day routines and Senior two welcome barbeque through sweatshirt sales, dances, Spirit Week activities, sponsorships and assemblies - the Student Council was responsible once again for sustaining the unique Spirit of Glenlawn. The dedication and support of this group is appreciated by both staff and student body.

Mrs. J. Sharpe

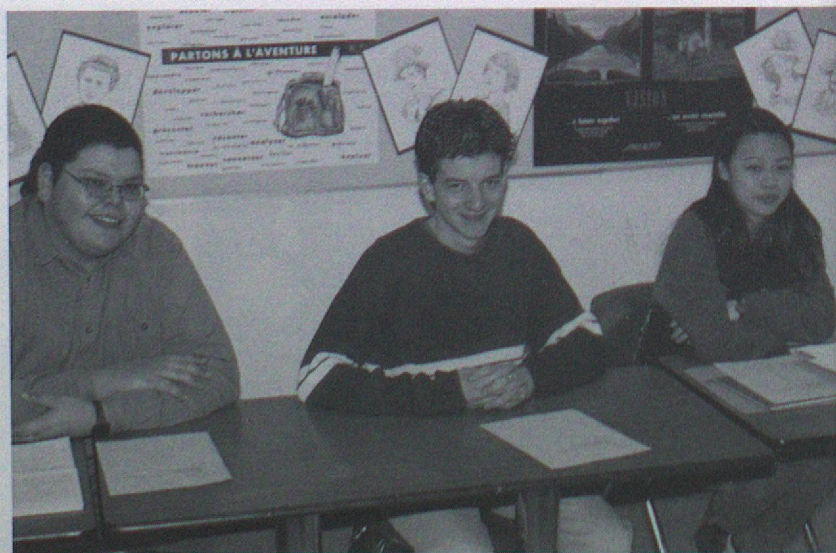

SPORTS COUNCIL

Missing: Alana Warnick.

This year's sports council acted as organizers of events designed to promote physical activity and enjoyment of sports among the student body. They ran the Terry Fox Volleyball Tournament and the Hoops for Heart 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament raising money for the Cancer Society and the Heart Stroke Foundation. They also put on sports pep rallies to encourage school spirit.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Glenlawn Work Experience celebrated twenty years of successfully working with our partners in the community to provide "on the job" experience for students. We would like to thank our work stations and acknowledge their valuable contribution. Many of our students have been able to secure employment because of these work experience opportunities. These photos depict students in the, "World of Work."

CHOIR & JAZZ JUNCTION

D-Slot Choir

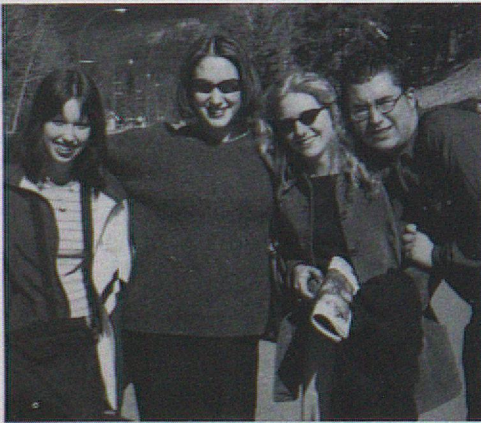

This year was a great year for choir, with both choirs performing brilliantly at Choralfest and the Winnipeg Music Festival, where E-slot choir received a gold. As well, E-slot choir also had a great time at the Rocky Mountain Music Festival in Banff. "Meow, Kitties!"

Throughout the year, Glenlawn's choral performances were enjoyed by all, even if some of us had to lip sync due to various problems, like recent surgery, throat infections or not knowing, well, the lyrics. I'm pretty sure it goes, "Ubi caritas et Sha-na-na-na-na-na, a yippity boom-de-boom." But, uh, try to focus on the positive- like Mrs. Redekop's fluorescent shoes, or our magnificent chorography! Well, we'll always have Choralfest.

CONCERT BANDS

Senior 2

Glenlawn's Band program did exceptionally well this year. Our high school was pleased to see our seven bands perform at Optimist Festival, bringing home fourteen golds, one of our best years yet. The large, but very enthusiastic senior two band impressed us all, by their talented musical abilities and wonderful Glenlawn pride. The senior three and four concert bands once again stepped up another level, playing some outstanding music such as the senior three's favourite, "Fortress", and the amusing senior four piece, "Sarabande and Polka".

Without a doubt, this was the year of the Wind Ensemble. For the first time ever, Glenlawn's finest Wind Ensemble became the first high school band privileged to perform in a feature concert at the Rocky Mountain Festival. These outstanding students played three concerts back to back in one night. Boy what a night!

And last but certainly not least, Glenlawn had three jazz bands to add a little spice to the music program. The senior jazz played some smoking tunes, like, "Samantha", and the intermediate sax section blew many audiences away when they played, "In Full Swing". As well, we must mention the junior jazz who had a great first year getting their first taste of what high school jazz is really about.

Many thanks is extended to our devoted band directors, Mrs. Bourbonnais and Mr. Kristjanson, who always give so much to their students. As well, many thanks to Mr. Poulter who helped greatly in getting all the bands to Banff.

LEADERSHIP

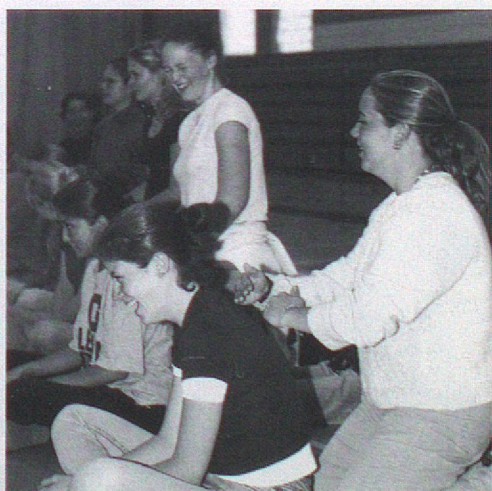

The 1997-98 Leadership group faced two challenges this year: losing their leader and adjusting to a new one. Even with these challenges the students came up with such major accomplishments as Boo at the Zoo, Take Pride Winnipeg, and the Student Conference. Other smaller, but no less important, involvements were in Champions, the Jazz Optimist Festival, and Glenlawn's Toastmaster's Club. The group would like to send out warm thoughts to Mrs. Nordhiem and wish her good luck for the future, and also thank Ms. Oswald for stepping in and doing a more-than-fantastic job. Congratulations to all of Glenlawn's leaders on a great year.

Jennifer Jamieson

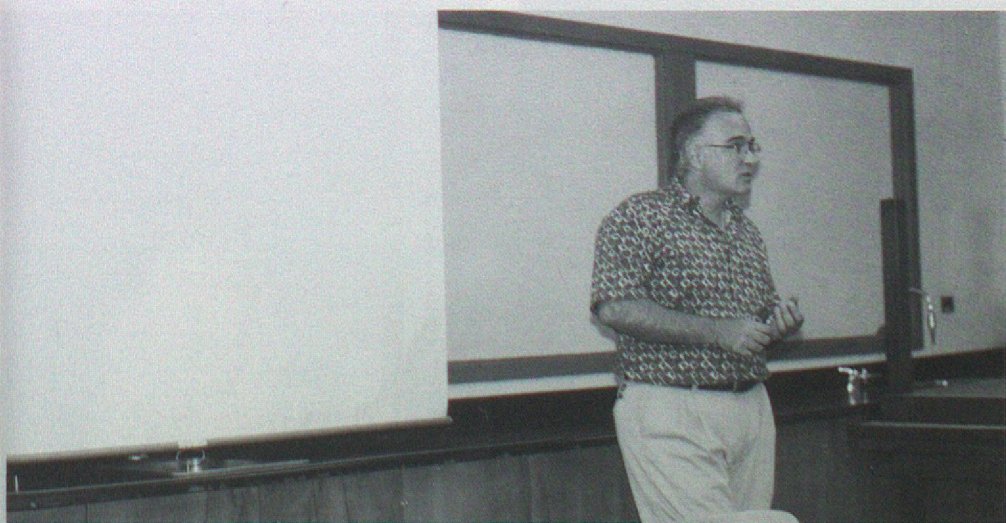

CONFERENCE

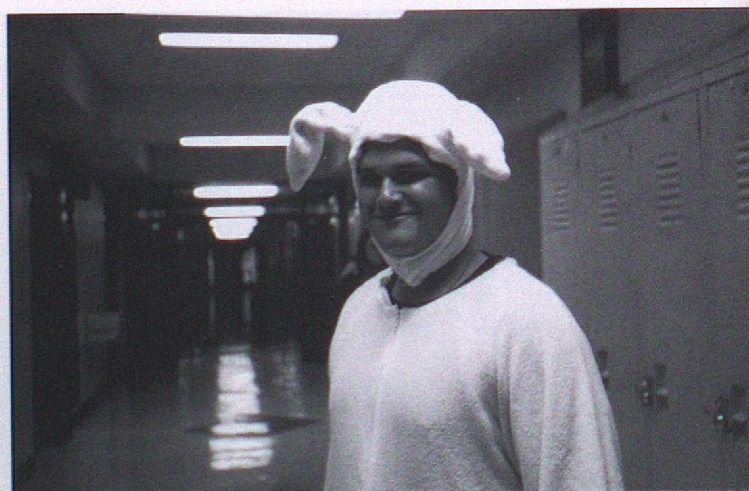

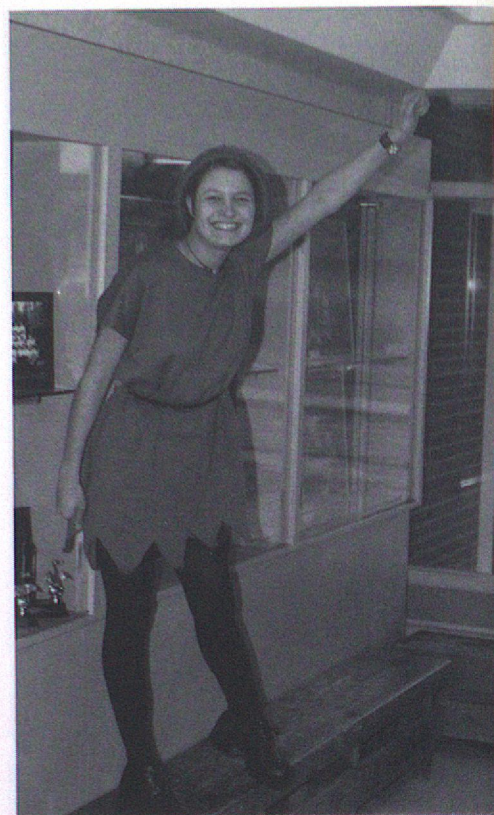

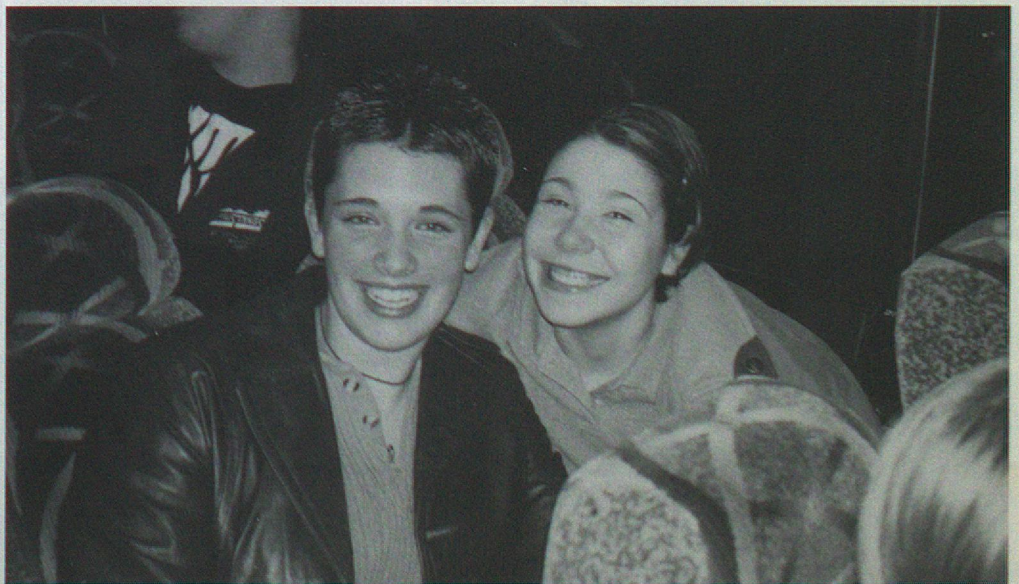

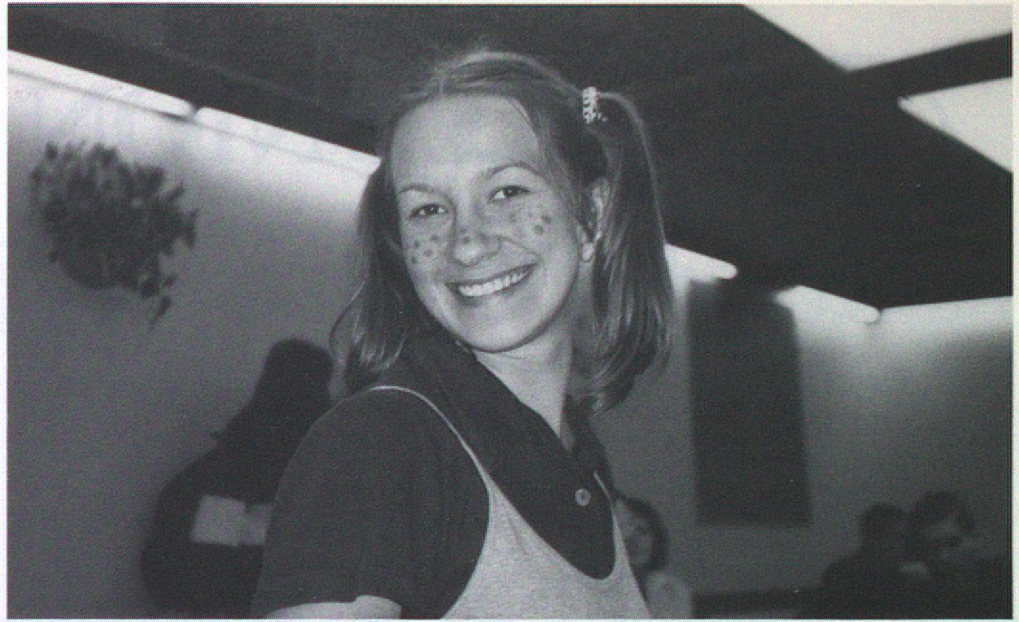

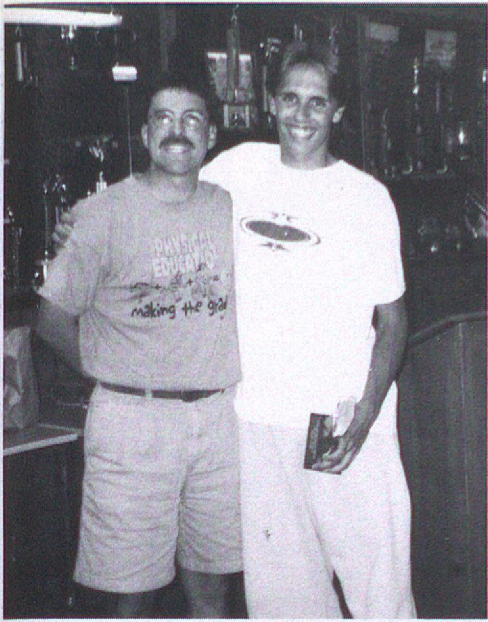

The 1998 student conference was probably the largest project Glenlawn's Leadership group has ever taken on. As the students' way of getting involved in Glenlawn's 75th Reunion weekend, the Student Conference posed many challenges but also gave many rewards. For the members of the executive committee there were months of planning, budgeting, and 'schmoozing' that went into the project. The day of the conference, Glenlawn's students enjoyed sharing the experiences in Lifelong Learning of alumni and other speakers in sessions such as The Art of Trampolining, Careers in the Arts, The Basics of Guitar, A Year in Australia, Careers in Advertising and Marketing, Ballroom Dancing, and Theatre Techniques. Congratulations go out to all those who were involved. The day was an overwhelming success!

Jennifer Jamieson

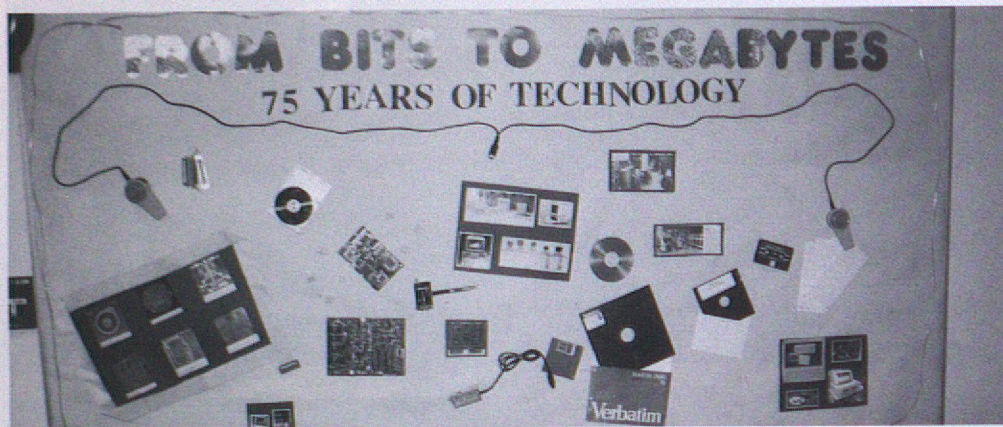

SAY CHEESE!

75TH REUNION

Many travelled from all over Canada to celebrate 75 years of Glenlawn tradition. The celebration consisted of four days: a school open house, a large reunion show at the Pantages Playhouse, a dinner at the Convention Center, and many enriching activities such as a golf tournament, a volleyball tournament and several church services.

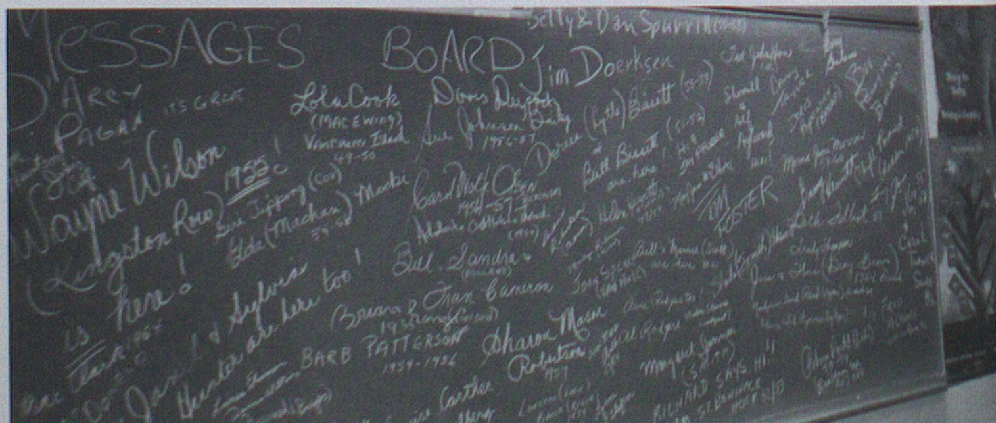

The students of Glenlawn were helpful in performing in the reunion show which was directed almost entirely by our very own Mrs. Quinton. From singing and dancing to concert bands Glenlawn students teamed up with alumni to put on a show which celebrated 75 wonderful years of experiences. Nora Alexander (a member of Glenlawn's first graduating class in 1923) made a lively cameo appearance.

At the open house decade rooms of memorabilia were set up to remind alumni of their presence here.

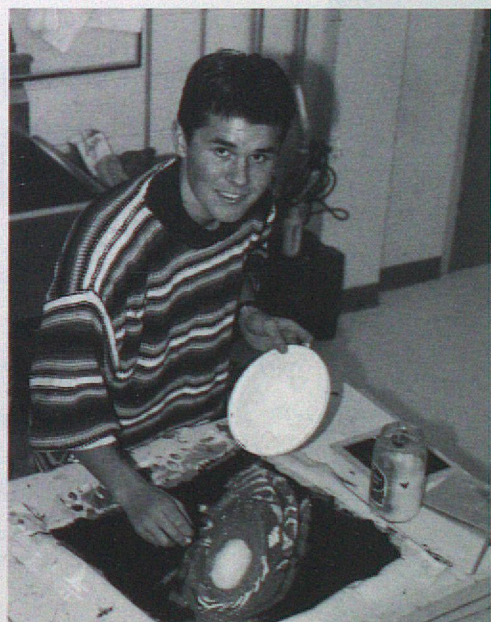

The reunion dinner band provided an eclectic atmosphere playing a variety of selections from the fifty's to present day and was well received by the 1009 in attendance.

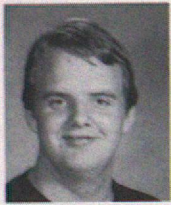

Thank-you to all that helped and who were in attendance.

GRADUATION

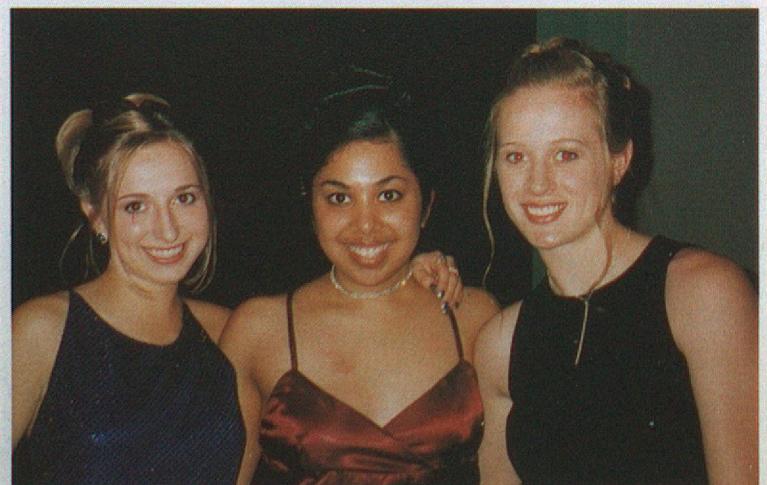

Grad Committee

This year the Grad Committee broke records and sold approximately 900 tickets. The committee also had such achievements as one of the highest number of full-time members and the highest number of male members. Even with these, our greatest accomplishment sits in the front foyer and is a tribute to Glenlawn's past seventy-five Student Council Presidents, Valedictorians and Governor General Award recipients. We all had a great time at meetings and a special thank you must go out to Mr. Humphrey, without whom the evening could not have been as great a success as it was. Thanks for a great evening and good luck to all the graduates.

VALEDICTORY ADDRESS

Play It Again, Sam

Isn't it amazing that man can split an atom, wipe out ravaging disease and land a probe on the surface of a foreign planet and yet...we are still unable to get decent air conditioning in the old wing of our beloved school.

Huge leaps have been made in the fields of medicine, computers and space exploration during our years at Glenlawn: take cloning, Pentium and the Mars probe, for example. There are still problems to be solved: war for one. At home, we have the war on crime, gang war, and even corporate wars for the almighty dollar. Glenlawn, it seems, is nearly untouched by these events. More than any other high school in Winnipeg, it seems to be a common ground, neutral territory where the line between jock, nerd and arts...uh...patron is consciously blurred. At Glenlawn there is an all-pervading sense of safety, and even goodwill. This is why I feel bad leaving.

Glenlawn's neutral territory reminds me of Casablanca: although we at Glenlawn have fewer Nazis and a smaller airport, I think Mr. Keddie could probably do a pretty convincing Bogart. Much like Glenlawn, it was sweltering hot in parts and hard to leave. One required an exit visa, much like our own diploma, to go out into the world. Now, in the movie, Ingrid Bergman and her boyfriend require two exit visas (diplomas) to leave Casablanca (Glenlawn). They must get these visas from Rick (our beloved teachers), and avoid the evil Nazis (Uh, let's say poor marks) in order to leave. Still with me? Okay, we are Ingrid Bergman and we're about to get those visas but then Sam (the announcements lady) plays our favorite song (a beautifully taped recording of O Canada) and we discover that we still love (like) Rick (our teachers) even though we're supposed to leave with our boyfriend (post-secondary plans), who we are actually married to (pre-registered for), but we couldn't tell Rick (our teachers) that before because it would break his heart and that's why we left him standing in the rain at the train station in Belgium, leaving him only a note which was delivered by Sam. . .

So the analogy breaks down a little bit. Those of us in Chemistry 40S are used to it. The feelings about staying in Glenlawn are true though. We have slouched laconically through those attractively decorated halls for a good three years, now, all of a sudden, they expect us to just graduate! To clean out our proverbial "lockers", run to "Sev" for one last Slurpee, and then hop on the bus to Nextyearsville. Listen, pal, we're not quite ready yet! They've only just gotten those neat bubble tops for the clear cups! Plus, it would be so much safer just to stay here in Glenlawn, wouldn't it? Where else are we going to find wonderful people like Ms. Oswald to run to us with last minute projects, or Mrs. Bekeris to cajole and insult us regularly? What will a day be like without Mr. Entz and his booming orations? Or Mr. K. and his booming orchestra? Or Mr. Poulter and his booming tirades? Speaking of loud, next year we will miss Mrs. Redekop's fantastical shoe collection!

This is a risk we'll have to take: this diploma is our exit visa. It is our passport to the outside. We are the Grade Twelves and we are ready. While it would be impolite to overstay our welcome, let's wait until after we shake these hands to dash out the back door, of course getting in those vital last insults, and letting loose uncontrollable whoops of sheer delight in freedom, or at least the ability to sleep in longer. Don't forget the big picture: not only are we leaving something great, we're entering something greater.

Realize this fantastic, and I say this without a hint of sarcasm, FANTASTIC, place called Earth. Notice the world around you. Not just the weather, but the climate; Notice the forest, and study the trees. Question and comprehend the information you receive, especially from the media and advertising. Often these two groups succumb to public opinion polls and trends, causing them to shift focus away from some events and towards others. A problem doesn't go away just because it wasn't covered on the evening news. Look at what happened in Burma, what's happening in Indonesia. If you find yourself asking "What's happening in Indonesia?" it is time to find out. Realize our world, because it is precisely that, our world. No more pencils, no more books.

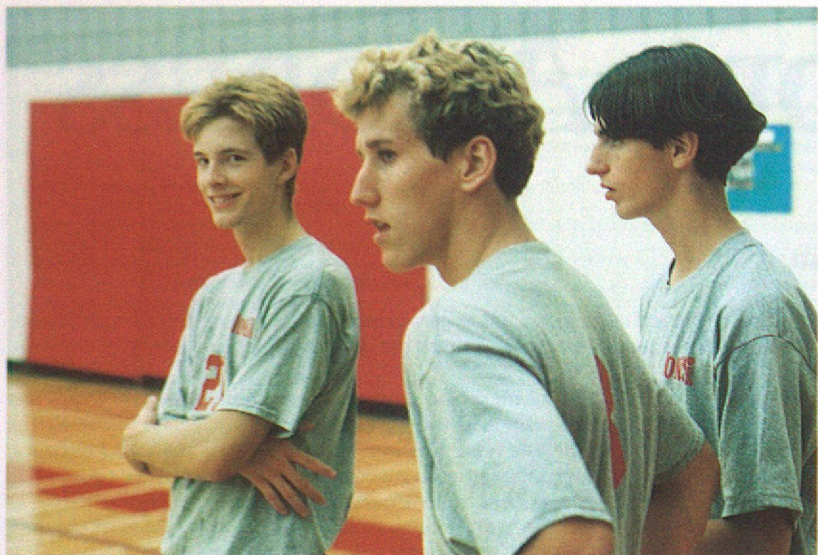

If you're bored with Earth, why not try the moon, or maybe Mars. People who have graduated from high school just like us have been to the moon. People have become successful artists, or athletes, or have just learned to enjoy life to its fullest. I can't see how anyone could be bored here, boredom is a waste of your life: there is always something better, strive for it. Take that course in small engine repair that you've always wanted to take, and if you can't afford it, get a job. If you can't get a job, get the skills you'll need through education. Take control of your life. In the immortal words of Shirley MacLaine, "Get up, get out and live it!"

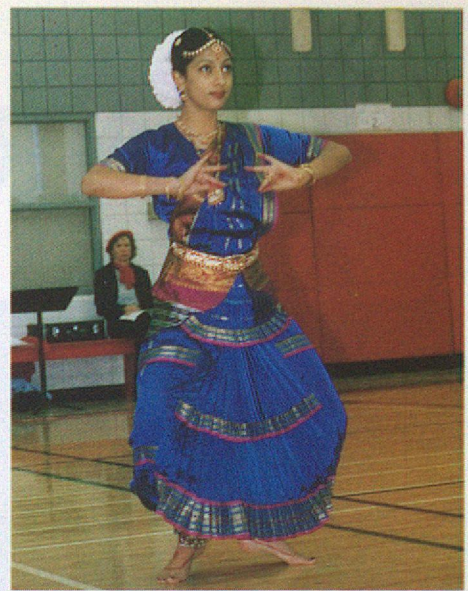

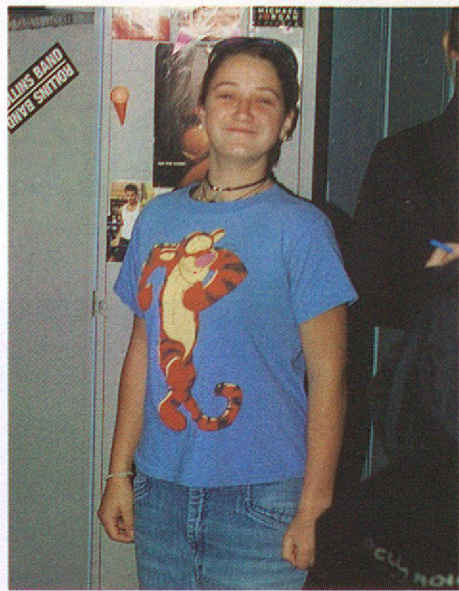

So many people go through life without realizing their full potential. They coast. We've all seen it, but right now it seems like a remote possibility, a fictional lifestyle. That is the trap. Life is not serendipity, in fact, most of the time life will do its best to take you down. At Glenlawn, I think we've come a long way in the fight against racism, sexism and hatred, but the world out there hasn't quite caught up to us yet.

So I'm going to give myself a promotion. Pretend I'm a teacher. I'm going to give you one last assignment: survive, and not only survive, but flourish. And we can do it. We have the skills, we have the training and we have the support. I can't think of a better team, or a more elite force than the graduates of Glenlawn Collegiate. We have graduated, we are unleashed. Millions of places to go, billions of people to meet!

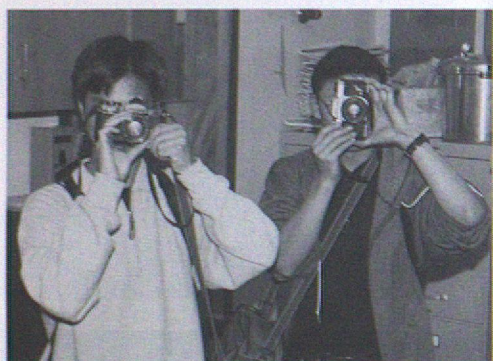

To all those teachers, friends and parents upon whose shoulders we have stood, I thank you. I thank you, on behalf of the graduates, for tolerance and respect. You've brought us a very long way, from Junior Mafia to "WE'RE BIG. WE'RE BLUE. WHATCHA GONNA DO?" What we've done in this school won't amount to a hill of beans in that great world out there, but there's a whole new life waiting for us. If we don't leave, we'll regret it; maybe not today, maybe not tomorrow, but...uh...probably today, and for the rest of our lives. When you look at your diploma don't think about how much longer you can sleep in next year, or how to translate "Two beers, please" into Spanish. You are worth so much more than that, so don't cheat yourself. Think about where it's going to take you, and what you're going to make of yourself. Take it as your passport, get on that plane, and fly.
